ALLIANCE HORSE SALES

Horse Market Off, but Fair Number of Buyers Here and Several Hundred Head Sold

NEXT SALES IN SEPTEMBER

The horse market in the east is off, prices are away down, and as a consequence the sales of Lester & Son, last Friday and Saturday, and of the Wright Commission Co., Monday and Tuesday, were not what they would otherwise have been. Taking everything into consideration they passed off better than could be reasonably expected, and leave no cause for discouragement to the gentlemen who are promoting the sales.

We are informed that the two sales already held were away ahead of the first two horse sales at Grand Island, which has grown to an important market. Alliance is in it as a horse market and is here to stay. There is no doubt about this becoming one of the leading horse markets of the West.

Lester & Son, whose sale was held on Friday and Saturday, are pleased with the result, although it was not what it would have been under more favorable circumstances. Owing to the slump in the markets, especially the bad market in the east, the number of buyers present was smaller than at the previous sale and less than what may be expected at future sales. They intend to hold their next sale in September.

The Wright Commission Co. report that they are well pleased with the result of their sale, considering the condition of the market. They anticipate a better market for their next sale, which will be held early in September. They had twenty-seven consignors, and buyers from Texas, Tennessee, Missouri, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Nebraska. The highest string of stuff sold was fifteen head of three-year-olds, mostly unbroke, belonging to J. E. Wilson. They brought $119.00 per head. Geo. Petrie sold three yearling colts at $57.50. The top of the sale was a mule put in by Simon Spry and bought by W. E. Hilliker of the South Omaha Horse and Mule Co. for $200.

There were 325 head sold at the two sales, 162 at the Lester sale and 163 at the other. The proceeds of the two sales amounted in round numbers to $25,000.

In this connection we wish to call attention of all persons interested in these sales, whether buyer or seller, to the fact that The Herald is taking the lead in boosting for them, believing that the Alliance horse market is a good thing for both classes of persons. This paper will keep its readers posted in regard to the progress of these sales. If your name is not already on the subscription list, we invite you to order it placed there. Call at our office, 121 Box Butte avenue, or drop us a line, or call up phone 340 and give us your name and address.

LADIES' AID ENTERTAINS

Ladies of First Presbyterian Church Entertain the Ladies of Their Sister Churches

A UNION MONTHLY MEETING

Wednesday afternoon, July 31, the Ladies Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church entertained the Ladies' Aids of the Methodist, United Presbyterian, Baptist and Christian churches. Nearly one hundred women were graciously welcomed to the Christian Endeavor room of the Presbyterian church. The room was made home-like with tables, chairs, and rugs, and a profusion of cut flowers.

A pleasant and helpful program was given in the audience room of the church, after which a social half hour was spent matching Bible texts. Light refreshments were served, and the company dispersed, feeling that it was good to have thus mingled together in unity.

The program given was as follows: Welcome—Mrs. Mounts. Devotionals—Mrs. Spencer. Prayer—Mrs. Reid. Vocal Duet—Avis Joder and Nettie Nation, accompanied by Dorothy Montgomery. Paper—Ethel Johnston, "In Union There is Strength." Piano Solo—Hattie Renswold. Talk—Mrs. Redenbaugh, "Unity". Reading—Mrs. Laing. Vocal Solo—Miss Mabel Young, accompanied by Dorothy Smith. Round Table Discussion—Mrs. Lunn, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Gregg and Mrs. Wright. Helpful Suggestions—Mrs. Sneed of Nashville, Tennessee.

Weekly Weather Report

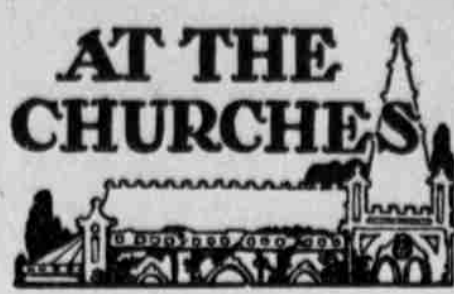

Weather Conditions Continue Good and Potatoes and Corn Making Bumper Crops

REPORT FOR LAST TWO WEEKS

The weekly weather report is a permanent feature of The Herald, but was overlooked in making up last week's paper, hence this report covers two weeks, during which time the weather has been all that could be desired. There have been frequent rains covering this section of the state. The weather has been warm, of course, but not oppressively hot. Potatoes and corn are doing fine. Already farmers are showing samples of what promises to be a bumper crop of spuds. Although the acreage of corn is not large in this country, there will be a lot of it grown this year, the indications now being that there will be plenty to supply the demand for home consumption.

FEED FOR THE FIRE BOYS

City Officials Tender Reception and Banquet to Members of the A. V. F. D.

MANY ENJOY THE OCCASION

In honor of the victories won by the running team at the State Firemen's Tournament and in recognition of the general good work of the Alliance Volunteer Fire Department, the city officials gave a reception and banquet to its members at the city hall last night, at which about sixty-five or seventy were present.

An appetizing repast was served, and speech making and a general good time was indulged in. Mayor Barnes acted as toastmaster, and introduced the various speakers in a most happy vein. J. W. Guthrie, Councilmen Stern and Vaughan, and others responded.

The occasion will long be remembered by those who were so fortunate as to be present, and we shall not be surprised if repeated once in a while.

Junior Normal Obituary

On Friday evening, July 26th, the Alliance Junior Normal of 1912 passed quietly away. A short afterword may not be out of place. The character of the deceased had several strong points of great attractiveness. Foremost among these was the personnel of the faculty, which was composed of a body of exceptionally strong teachers; in no way falling behind the Normals of other years in this direction.

Secondly, we had a large and enthusiastic student body; and one need have no hesitation in stating that those who were enthusiastic at the beginning of summer school, and those who were not, if any were enthusiastic and appreciative at the end of the term.

It is certainly a pleasure to mingle with people such as year by year compose the Junior Normal and Alliance likes to have them here.

A third feature that may be mentioned is the dining hall at the Central building under the able direction of Miss Frazier and her assistants. Board at $3.25 the week in this locality, and with prices of food as they are now, is something to make anyone sit up and take notice, in case you hadn't realized it. This means good food, too, attractively served and including a considerable variety. No wonder that so large a portion of the elite of the neighborhood used to patronize the chicken and ice cream dinner on Sunday. Teachers' appetites are often variable, possibly they are sometimes acted on by causes that would not affect anyone with the physique and mentality of a dock laborer. This, however, could not be blamed on Miss Frazier, and if anyone who partook of it could be so misguided as to have a pick coming on the food, all the writer asks is that the editor of this paper will arrange for him a brief but convincing interview with the malcontent.

Wednesday morning we had our last gathering at the chapel hour, the assembly room becoming the examination hall on Thursday and Friday, and we listened to farewell speeches from the faculty.

On Friday night a reception was tendered to the faculty, students and friends of the Normal, at the Central Building. Here again Miss Frazier's guiding hand and energetic spirit were in evidence.

Chinese lanterns formed a principal part of the decoration. Delicious cherry-punch and cake were served, and all had a good farewell time. The occasion was further enlivened with some piano selections by the Misses Beulah and Dorothy Smith, and by a humorous reading by Miss Grace Johnston setting forth the experience and opinion of a Mrs. McGuffy on the subject of baseball. Enthusiastic applause greeted these items.

IMPORTANT MEETING

Annual Election of Officers Held and Plans Laid for the Coming Year's Work

STATE CONVENTION IN SEPT.

At the meeting of the W. C. T. U. this afternoon the annual election of officers was held, resulting in the following: president, Mrs. I. E. Tash; vice president, Mrs. J. W. Thomas; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. E. Bernhard; secretary, Mrs. R. C. Strong; assistant secretary, Mrs. Wm Bignell; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Young. Vice presidents of churches: Presbyterian, Mrs. Wm. James; Baptist, Mrs. Julia T. Boon; United Presbyterian, Mrs. G. L. Fernald; Methodist Episcopal, Mrs. Phelps; Christian, Mrs. E. I. Gregg.

The following delegates were elected to attend the state convention to be held at Central City, September 24-27: Mrs. Bernhard; Mrs. Jennie Reed; Mrs. J. G. Beck. There will also probably be in attendance at that assemblage from the Alliance union, Mrs. I. E. Tash, who is entitled to a seat in the convention by virtue of her office as president; Mrs. Abigail Cornu; Mrs. J. G. Vance, superintendent of the State Loyal Temperance Legion; and Miss Mabel Young, State superintendent of Railroad work.

ALLIANCE FATS VS. LEANS

Big Game Base Ball at Fair Grounds This Afternoon

A test of supremacy between the fat and the lean men of Alliance is taking place at the fair grounds this afternoon in a game of base ball. It is hard to forecast the result, but the opinion prevails that the leans have a little the edge on the fats in the national game.

In honor of the occasion the Alliance band is furnishing music. And here is where The Herald is hit hard. Three of our force are members of the band, including two linotype operators, and as a result publication is delayed, much to our regret.

LATER—The fats won.

These Things

A Band from Italy and four grand concert companies to lead up to it is the Chautauqua's offering in music;

a University Chancellor, an eminent churchman and two or three other of the biggest lecturers on the Chautauqua platform make up the list of orators and speakers;

a character delineator and impersonator with a national reputation in clean entertainment;

a trio of artists in songs, readings and stories who have been the leaders in Chautauqua novelty work for a whole decade;

a Junior Chautauqua for boys and girls directed by the country's greatest exponent of the playground—

—these are the things that make up the Chautauqua.

It lasts five days. It is held under a canvas tent. The mornings are reserved for the duties of the home, the store, the shop and the field.

You can give the afternoons and evenings of five days out of the year to recreation, rest, enjoyment.

The season ticket makes the cost about 15 cents a number.

The Chautauqua has the endorsement of the biggest, best men in the community.

And it's for you to enjoy.
