TRIAL SUBSCRIPTION OFFER

Special Offer to Persons Who Wish to Try The Herald for Three Months in eastern part of state to trade for PAPER WILL STOP ATEND OF TIME oughly unscriptural the teaching of length of the building being loaded

We want the attention of every reader of this paper to this proposition. We are beginning a list of trial subscriptions to The Herald at the special price of twenty-five cents for three months. The trial subscriptions received under this offer will be placed on a list separate from our regular subscription books and discontinued at the end of the three months. The Herald has a good subscription list, but there are many persons who are not now subscribers who should be receiving the paper. We wish to reach this class of persons for a few months by this spe cial trial subscription offer. All persons receiving sample copies of this paper, and others who may read this offer, are requested to send us their subscription at once for three months, unless they are already on our subscription list. Subscribers to this paper who wish to send it to their friends for short time, will find this a splendid opportunity to do so. We expect to place several hundred names on our trial subscription list within a short time and request the co-operation of all friends of the paper in our efforts to do so. Remember that all trial subscriptions received under this proposition will be stopped at the end of the three months without being ordered
