NELL ACHESON RETURNS.

Popular Alliance young lady returns from extended visit with eastern friends.

Miss Nelle Acheson, who left for the east on August 9th has returned to her home in Alliance, arriving Friday at noon. When the Aspenwalls of Chicago returned east she accompanied them.

Miss Acheson on her trip visited with the Aspenwall family for two months, taking a complete course in Domestic Science at one of the large Chicago institutions. She, in company with Miss Ruth Aspenwall, made an extended trip to Deerfield, Wisconsin, where they visited Miss Aspenwall's grandmother and to Lake Mills, Wisconsin, where they visited Miss Aspenwall's aunt.

On her way home Miss Acheson visited with Mrs. H. B. Menefee, in Omaha. Mrs. Menefee was a resident of Alliance for a number of years and has many friends here. Miss Acheson was in Omaha visiting friends for about ten days.

At Lincoln she stopped over for a couple of weeks, visiting with the R. E. Hamilton family. These people were formerly Alliance people. She also visited with Rev. and Mrs. Gordon, formerly of Alliance pastor of the United Presbyterian church in Alliance and is now located in Lincoln.

The many friends of Miss Acheson are glad to have her back with them again to take her part in the social life of the younger set, with whom she is very popular.

CANDIDATE FOR DEPUTY STATE AUDITOR.

W. L. Minor, postmaster at Morrill, Nebraska, is a candidate for the appointment of Deputy State Auditor. Mr. Minor has always taken an active part in western Nebraska politics and is a leading Republican. Petitions urging his appointment throughout this end of the state and we understand that he has a very good chance of securing the appointment under W. B. Howard, the Republican candidate who was elected on November 5th.

Mr. Minor was an Alliance visitor on Monday, going from here to Lincoln in connection with his candidacy.

VISITS ALLIANCE FIRST TIME IN MANY YEARS.

Mrs. F. M. O'Linn, of Chadron, mother of Elizabeth Smith, librarian of the Chadron Public Library, was in Alliance Monday on a contest case before the government land office.

Mrs. O'Linn had not been in Alliance since the court house was moved from Hemingford and when coming through Hemingford and being informed that it had been moved by train to Alliance many years ago was very much surprised. She was very much surprised at the town of Alliance also, which was only a little village when she last saw it.

ANOTHER BULL MOOSER.

The quietus may have been put on the big stick for the time being and Theodore may be quietly passing his time at Oyster Bay. The cold weather may come and old Boreas may shake the earth with his wintry blasts. Democratic presidents may come and go, but it all makes no difference to Joe Smith, of the Holsten force, for it's a healthy, laughing six pound baby boy, born at eleven thirty o'clock Sunday morning and Joe says he showed his teeth the very first thing so he's sure to be a true Bull Mooser. This makes the third boy in Joe's family and they're everyone thoroughbred Bull Moosers like their popular father.

MAKE TRIP TO SCOTTSBLUFF.

Chas. E. Wood, president of the First National bank, accompanied by his son, Eugene E. Ford, assistant cashier of the bank, made a trip to Scottsbluff the last of the week. While there they made a trip through the Scottsbluff Sugar company factory while in operation with a full force.

LOCATES AT NEW CASTLE.

Chas. M. Phifer, who has been in Alliance for a number of years, is now located at New Castle, Wyoming. He writes The Herald asking that his paper be sent there.

BRINGS APPLES—TAKES BACK SPUDS.

William Landrigan, who brought up a carload of fine apples from Falls City, Nebraska, a short time ago, returned to Falls City on Saturday with a carload of Box Butte county spuds. It is said that a fair exchange is no robbery and he loaded the same car with spuds that he brought the apples in.

Mr. Landrigan is a voter in the same ward with governor-elect Morehead and states that he has a very high opinion of the new governor, who is highly respected in his home city.

RETURNS TO MILWAUKEE.

Dr. W. T. Eikner, who was located at Hemingford for a number of years and more recently at Mason City, Nevada, was in the city last Friday arranging his affairs before going to Milwaukee. Dr. Eikner left Milwaukee about ten years ago because of poor health and located in western Nebraska, where he amassed a fortune in real estate.

Dr. Eikner returns to the staff of Trinity Hospital in Milwaukee and takes up his old work. He is now in fine health and eager to take up his chosen profession.

McKELVIE ELECTED TO LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

In the absence of complete returns it seems that S. R. McKelvie, publisher of The Nebraska Farmer, has been elected lieutenant governor by a vote of something near 15,000 more than his nearest competitor. In view of the tremendous plurality given Wilson for president, and the defeat of Governor Aldrich for re-election, this splendid vote for McKelvie comes as a fine compliment to him. He is a native Nebraskan, the youngest man ever to have been elected to this office in Nebraska, and his good vote no doubt resulted because of his successful business career and his clean, progressive record in public life.

BUSINESS TRIP EAST.

Ben Anderson, of the Holsten Drug Store, went to Lincoln and Omaha Friday night. He stayed over in Lincoln Saturday for the purpose of witnessing the big Varsity foot ball game.

ECHOES FROM CHADRON

Chadron Happenings Always Interest Our Readers

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Chadron resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

James A. Kersey, 8, Main St., Chadron, Nebr., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions and I am sure that they are well worth recommending. I had slight symptoms of disordered kidneys and as there has been Bright's disease in my family for several generations, I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy soon completely cured me. I believe Doan's Kidney Pills to be unequalled for kidney disorders."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
