We Welcome Woman and Her Suffrage

If through it she will accomplish a greater interest in good homes and set higher ideals for the youth of our country. By instinct woman is a home builder because she realizes the good influence it has on the children, and you men would be terribly surprised if you knew as well as we do what good common sense ideas they have on arrangement and in the choice of lumber. They know that our smooth finished siding and casing, base and moulding is a labor and money saver because it requires no extra work from the carpenter or painter, and their taste in the selection of doors and windows usually adds beauty and attractiveness at little extra expense. If you're thinking of building we want to talk to both you and your wife and help you select your lumber.

CONTRIBUTED.

Alliance, Nebr., Nov. 20, 1912. Editor Alliance Herald, Alliance, Nebr. Dear Sir: The enclosed poem which I have composed with my own hands sounds very appropriate. Will you please be kind enough to allow me the space necessary to print it. I will appreciate the favor and remain, Very respectfully yours, A SUBSCRIBER.

THE BURIAL OF THE BULL MOOSE.

Let us bury him darkly at dead of night,
Both his horns, his hoofs and his hide;
We'll plant him neatly at Oyster Bay,
With the "Big Stick" close by his side.
Hush! Make not a sound to disturb his repose,
Nor laugh at the last foray;
Lay the "Rough Rider Hat" with the rest of his duds,
And leave him alone in his glory.
Sing no ribald song of the New York campaign,
Nor the "Roller of Steam" at Chicago;
From the "Panama matter" we'll kindly refrain,
Oh Bill Taff's creeds we'll lay an embargo.
Oh the "harvester Trust" no mention we'll make,
And the Harriman Letter shun fully;
In silence and sadness we'll just make a sneak,
And leave him there feeling so "bully."
Then tenderly, piously, lay him away,
With neither malice or bias;
We may think a Darned sight, but we've nothing to say,
That might shame our old friend Ananias.
No wailing bugle shall sound "lights out,"
Shed no tears for the hopes that are blighted;
But he'll lay like a dead Moose taking his rest,
And the Nation will say DE-LIGHTED."

NEW ROAD OPENED.

The county commissioners have ordered a new road opened across the Burlington tracks about six miles east of town just west of the Sweeney ranch. The new road will be one-half mile in length and runs from the south west quarter of section 35, township 25, range 47, north one-half mile. The petition was put in some time ago but the opening of the road was delayed because of not being on the line and surveying had to be done.

E. P. Sweeney has been appointed special commissioner to attend to the matter of opening up the road.

RESTAURANT CHANGES HANDS.

The Grand Restaurant changed hands last week. Tom Tuck and Tom Ackung sold the same to Hom Suey Wo and Hom Yee who will continue the business at the same stand as heretofore.

AUTOED TO HEMINGFORD.

J. R. Baskins, familiarly known to the Alliance boys as "Curly" Baskins, was in Alliance visiting old friends Monday. He is now connected with the Ideal Steam Laundry of Scottsbluff and was on an auto trip in his new car from the Bluffs to Hemingford.

VETERINARIANS CONFER.

R. E. Davis, Wyoming State Veterinarian, was in Alliance the last of the week conferring with the local state veterinarians, Drs. W. M. Lee, W. T. Spencer and L. S. Campbell.

VISITS WITH POSTMASTER TASH.

G. W. Schreck, of York, visited with Postmaster Tash on Saturday, as he was on his way from a trip to Scottsbluff, where he invested in some property. Mr. Schreck is postmaster at York.
