Edgement Express, Jan. 17: Engineer Nicolai, while climbing into his engine Monday, slipped and fell into the turntable pit and was carried out on a stretcher. He is a very sore man at present.

Custer County Chief, Jan. 17: Harry Townley, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Benjamin, who is fireman on the Burlington, was seriously injured at Marsland about a week ago. It seems that during a destructive fire at that place, which burned a large hotel and a number of business houses to the ground, he was helping to save the buildings and was accidentally struck by an ax. The blow cut through the shoe on Townley's left foot nearly severing the ankle bone. He was taken to Alliance and it was feared for a while that his foot would have to be amputated. Later reports state that his foot will be saved but he will be laid up for some time. Mrs. Townley, who was visiting in Broken Bow, went to Alliance to be with him on Wednesday.

Chadron Chronicle, Jan. 16: We are in receipt of the sad news stating that Rev. Julian who is well known to all our people is in a hospital for treatment at Omaha and his condition is very critical.

Marsland Tribune, Jan. 17: A. H. McLaughlin went to Alliance Friday on a combined business and pleasure trip. While there he was the guest of his friend Smith P. Tuttle. It goes without saying that two "old soldier boys" enjoyed the renewing of bloody days during the visit. McLaughlin returned home Sunday.

Miss Frances McGinnis made her usual visit with friends and relatives last Saturday and Sunday. Her parents and brother who recently came to Alliance from Missouri will make their home in Chadron in the near future. Her brother was a visitor here stopping at the Richey hotel the night it burned. He says Marsland gave him a very warm reception.

NATIVE CATTLE MARKET LETTER

Chicago, Ill., January 22.—The local run Monday was 29,000 and at the six leading western points 56,000. The supply was too large for the good of the market. Beef steers here sold at prices steady to 10c lower. The market was a long-drawn-out affair because of the straggling in of trains. Top beefs made $9.50 for 19 head of 1,646 lbs. average. There was a marked scarcity of choice offerings and a big preponderance of plain, medium and roughish kinds. Most trading was at $8.50 down to $7.50, with quite a showing at $7.50 to $8.00.

Tuesday local run of cattle was 8,190 and the six western markets had a total of 37,000. Beef steers met slow sale here from the outset and prices were steady to 10c lower, offerings of value around $8.25 up, showing the loss. Best beefs available numbered 30 head, averaged 1,591 lbs. and sold at $8.85. Among our sales were branded western Shorthorns from Kansas at $8.75. They included 43 head of 1,461 lbs. average for Springer & Johnson and 19 head of 1,555 lbs. average for G. G. Springer.

The local Wednesday supply was 18,000. The six western markets had a total of 35,000. Everything was against the selling interests here. The run was above all expectations, trains straggled in all day long, outlet through eastern shipping channels was very narrow and local dressed beef men did practically nothing until right near the noon hour. When a trading basis was established it was a 10 to 15c lower deal. Best beefs available sold at $9.15 for 20 head of 1,421 lbs. average. Sales were largely at $7.50 to $8.50. Coarse medium and heavy weight steers were mean sale from start to finish, and there were not a few loads of such offerings that were still unsold at the close of the day's session.

Supplies of cattle here today were 5,000 and the six western points had a total of 19,000. While the local trade in beef steers was slow, prices were held steady with the previous day's decline.

There is nothing in present nor near future market conditions to warrant holding back cattle that are in good flesh condition. Their place is on the market. Keeping them in that feed lot with the express purpose of striking higher markets is attended with more or less danger. However, we advocate the retaining of good quality kinds that need 30 to 90 days longer feeding to put them in good flesh condition. They should pay well for their keep.

Beef grades of cows and heifers showed a price loss of 25 to 50c from last week's close, with most sales at $5.15 to $6.75.

Stockers and feeders continued in good demand, but prices went 25c lower than the finish of last week. Bulk of trading was at $6.00 to $7.25. CLAY, ROBINSON & CO.

Miss Maud Moffitt made final proof last Saturday on her claim, located near the Moffitt post office. Her witnesses were Earl Douglas and Bud Hulsted of Orlando.
