

C. O. D. Parcel Post

On July 1st the postoffice department will begin sending parcel post packages C. O. D. This will be a big and much needed addition to the parcel post system and will result in much of the light package COD business being transferred from the express companies to the mails. Following are the most important rules regarding the COD system.

1. The sender of a mailable parcel on which the postage is fully prepaid may have the price of the article and the charges thereon collected from the addressee on payment of a fee of ten cents in parcel post stamps affixed, provided the amount to be collected does not exceed $100. Such a parcel will be insured against loss, without additional charge, in an amount equivalent to its actual value, but not to exceed $50.

2. The sender of a collect on delivery (C. O. D.) parcel will be given a receipt showing the office and date of mailing, the number of the parcel, and the amount due him.

3. A C. O. D. parcel will be accepted for mailing only at a money-order office and when addressed to a money-order office. Money-order offices are designated in the parcel post guide by an asterisk (*) or a dagger. The postmaster at the mailing office will be held responsible for the postage required for the return of a parcel addressed at a non-money-order office.

4. The C. O. D. tag must show the amount due the sender, the money order fee necessary to make the remittance, and the total amount to be collected. It should be securely attached to the parcel, which should be numbered to correspond with the tag, stamped C. O. D., and the charges to be collected plainly written thereon. The parcel will be treated as ordinary mail until it reaches the office of address, where on payment of all charges, it will be delivered to the addressee or, unless otherwise directed by the addressee, to the person, firm or corporation in whose care it is addressed, or to any responsible person to whom the addressee's ordinary mail is customarily delivered. A receipt for the parcel must be obtained on the tag attached thereto.

5. The receipted tag will be considered as the addressee's application for a money order for the amount due the sender. A money order will then be issued, stamped C. O. D., and mailed to the sender in a penalty envelope by the postmaster, who will enter on the tag the number of the money order, the amount and date of issue, and file it with other money-order applications. No return receipt will be furnished the sender, as the money order serves that purpose.

6. The addressee will not be permitted to examine the contents of a C. O. D. parcel until it has been receipted for and all charges paid. A parcel may be refused when it is tendered for delivery, but after delivery has been effected it can not be returned on account of dissatisfaction with the contents or the amount collected.

7. The Department will not be responsible for errors made by senders in stating the collection charges or for any misunderstanding between senders and addressees regarding the character or contents of parcels.

Civil War Veteran Calls

Wm. F. Jackson, a civil war veteran, was a caller at The Herald office on Saturday. He makes his home at Battle Mountain Sanitarium, Hot Springs, S. D., and has been east on a furlough. He went from Alliance to Marsland to visit his daughter, Mrs. Alice Britton.

The following short article is taken from the Des Moines News of Wednesday of last week. It repeats a story told by Mr. Jackson:

Yankees Made Good

Prophecy to Girls
William Jackson of South Dakota and Joe Dillets of Van Buren county, both of Company F, Fourteenth Iowa infantry, were taken prisoners at the battle of Shiloh, according to a story told by Jackson yesterday.

Together they were put on a train and sent to Jackson, Miss.

Before the prisoners were taken from the train at Jackson, Jackson and Dillets were leaning out of a window and watching the crowds. Two young women walked up and eyed them amusedly.

"Now, see what you get for trying to whip the Johnnies," one of the girls said, and both then proceeded to tell the northerners what they thought of them. "Why, one Johnny can whip five Yanks," they said.

"Right there I made a prophecy to those girls," Jackson said yesterday. "I told them that before the war was over we would come back to their town and turn it upside down, that we wouldn't leave one stone on top of another. And just about a year later we did come back and we did turn their town upside down. Not only that, we burned it down. I was just wishing I could see those two girls again, when who should appear in front of me but both of them, crying their eyes out. They didn't remember me at first, but don't you forget it, it reminded them of what they had said a year before and the prophecy I made them."

ARRIVE HERE THURS. MORNING

The following letter was received by The Herald yesterday morning from the South Omaha people.

South Omaha, Nebr., June 16. Herald, Alliance, Nebr.

Gentlemen: The South Omaha delegation of about 25 stock yards and commission men are planning on leaving Omaha late afternoon of June 25th, to attend the Cattleman's Convention at Alliance, June 25th to 27th. They will arrive at Alliance the morning of the 26th, and participate in the convention and celebration, renewing old acquaintances and meeting the new ranchmen and farmers, setting out the advantages to be obtained in marketing their stock at South Omaha.

They leave Alliance at noon, June 27th, going south to Northport and west to Scottsbluff, making station stops along the route. Arriving at Scottsbluff about 4:00 p. m., June 27th, the delegation will put in the early evening making a run in automobiles up to Mitchell, where they will take supper, and then drive back to Scottsbluff to spend the night.

Early Saturday morning June 28th the party will leave Scottsbluff en route east, making short stops at all the principal stations as far east as North Platte.

This is the regular early summer trip through western Nebraska, that is made by the South Omaha Live Stock Market representatives, and is looked forward to with a great deal of interest and anticipation.

Old Timer Returns

E. E. Sisley, of Palo, Iowa, who settled near Alliance over twenty-five years ago, at the time the town started, and who left shortly afterwards, returned for the first time after an absence of that length of time, this being his first visit since leaving.

Mr. Sisley was much interested in Alliance. He has been a constant reader of The Herald, so was familiar with the progress of the town and knew something of the pictures which have been published in this paper.

The meeting between Mr. Sisley and his brother, who lives on a farm near Alliance, and whom he had not seen for twenty-three years, was something the two men will always remember. Although being apart for half of the ordinary lifetime the two men knew each other at once and spent some time trying to make up for the many years during which they were apart. Mr. Sisley will visit here for about a week, when he will return home.
