"A COMBINATION OF ABILITY - EXPERIENCE - FINANCIAL STRENGTH"

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

TAGG BROS. and SMITH BROS. COM. CO. have consolidated their business at the South Omaha Market under the management of W. B. TAGG, and in the future will have the same salesmen. SMITH BROS. location in the cattle yards has long been considered one of the best in the Yards, and will now be used for all our cattle. ART TAGG will be the head cattle salesman, assisted by BILLY ORCHARD and FRED W. LIGHTFOOT. J. D. STORRIE will be our brandman. The feeder buying department will be in the hands of G. P. MOORHEAD and ELLIS J. WRIGHT.
In the sheep barn SMITH BROS. location will be used and M. C. WILKERSON and A. E. COMPTON will look after the selling and buying.
OFFICE at ROOM 101, EXCHANGE BLDG., where a hearty WELCOME will always be awaiting you.
In the consolidation each firm retains its name, so that stock billed to TAGG BROS. or to SMITH BROS. will be handled by us to the very best possible advantage and remittances promptly made. Your patronage is respectfully solicited.

Highland-Smith

Miss Minelle Highland and Mr. Leon L. Smith were married at nine o'clock this morning by Dean Ware, in the beautiful, new St. Matthews Episcopal church. As the bridal party moved down the aisle the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March were played by Miss Eunice Burnett, following which the choir sang. The bride was dressed in a wedding gown of white silk embroidered voile, over white messaline, and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. Miss Vivian Holloway was bridesmaid and wore a pink brocaded satin dress with pink crepe drape and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The ushers were Clarence Hyland and Robert Sneed. Little Kathrynne Harris was ring bearer. The church was beautifully decorated with pink roses and smilax.

A delicious and well prepared five course wedding breakfast was given by the parents of the bride at the Highland residence on Laramie Avenue after the ceremony. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Highland, Mrs. F. W. Lester, Mrs. Claude Lester, Vivian Holloway, Perry Buckle, Clarence Hyland, Robert Sneed, Kathryn Harris, Dean Ware, Mrs. Gruenig, Mina Lougeay, and Mrs. Holloway.

The bride and groom left on the noon train for a honeymoon trip to Omaha, Chicago, Sterling, Rock Falls, Ill. At the last point they will visit Mr. Smith's parents for two weeks. Many elaborate presents were received.

RECEPTION

A reception was given Saturday evening at St. Matthews church. A large number of people called to present their compliments. A beautiful bible was presented by Dean Ware. His presentation speech was as follows:

Presentation Address of Dean Ware

"This Holy Bible is presented to Miss Minelle Highland by the congregation of St. Matthews church upon the happy and auspicious occasion of her marriage. In the early days it was customary to present a copy of the Word of God to the first virgin united in holy wedlock in a newly erected church. It was generally understood that the giving and receiving of the Holy Bible brought a twofold blessing upon the bride and upon the church.

"Therefore, in behalf of the congregation of St. Matthews church I esteem it an honor, Miss Minelle Highland, to present you with this token of our devotion. Your name is inscribed upon the bell in the tower of the old church. It has been synonymous with every aggressive movement in the church's history, and, better still, God has indelibly inscribed your name upon the hearts of the congregation. May the twofold blessing be poured upon you and upon the church. Sincerely yours, Geo. G. Ware."
