Every farmer in Nebraska ought to know about the greater tractor demonstration at Fremont next week, which will be the greatest exhibition of power farming machines ever shown in America; and we wish that every person interested in agriculture in the west half of the state might read the page ad of the great event appearing in this issue of The Herald. This exhibition has been organized by the Twentieth Century Farmer, of which Prof. E. W. Hunt, so well known in Box Butte county, is associate editor.

Farming by tractors is here and here to stay, but there are so many different kinds of tractors, all claiming superiority, that it is still difficult for many farmers to decide which one is best suited to their needs. This demonstration next week, where forty tractors, including all of the best makes, will plow, harrow and seed five hundred acres of stubble and prairie, will give those who attend a better opportunity than they have yet had to decide upon the relative merits of the different machines and the kind or kinds best adapted to their particular purposes.

The Herald wishes to commend this demonstration and urge all of its readers who can attend to do so. As will be seen by the program printed in the advertisement, the exhibition will furnish a fine entertainment as well as being immensely instructive.

Editor C. L. Mayes of the Rushville Recorder and J. N. Veach, agent at that town for the Ford automobiles, drove over to Alliance Monday in the former's machine, on their way to Denver where they went on business and to drive a car back. "Ted" Westover came over with them for a visit with his brother, Joe.

BURKETT-GIBSON
On Wednesday, August 27th, County Judge L. A. Berry issued the license of two highly respected Sheridan county citizens to wed and completed the good work by trying the nuptial knot that bound in marriage the lives of Mr. Jack Burkett and Mrs. Sarah E. Gibson. The groom is well known in Alliance where he was formerly in business and has many friends here, as well as in the neighborhood where he now resides. The bride is an excellent lady of mature years. After becoming a widow some years ago, she came from Oklahoma to Nebraska, residing most of the time in Sheridan county, where she has relatives, and a few months in Alliance. She is the mother of Mrs. Gene Rentfro of Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Burkett will reside on his place in the Spade neighborhood, where The Herald will visit them each week and wishes them all the happiness imaginable.

MERRIT-WHETSTONE
There is only one unpleasant thing for the newspaper scribe in recording the union for life a worthy young couple and that is the difficulty in finding words to express our congratulations and say all the nice things deserved. At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Whetstone, at 4 p. m., Wednesday, August 27, 1913, Rev. O. S. Baker, pastor of the First M. E. church of Alliance, performed the ceremony which ended the betrothal of Miss Gertrude Viola Whetstone to her husband and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Whetstone, of this city's most charming young ladies, who is one of this city's most beautifully gowned in white with bride's roses in her hair. The groom was attired in black. The parlor decorations were bride's roses and valuable wedding presents were as tokens and congratulations of their many friends, about thirty-five of whom were present at the ceremony had a delightful three course luncheon, was served.

HOME OFFICE, ALLIANCE, NEBRASKA

OFFICERS: R. M. Hampton, President, Alliance; A. Metzger, Vice Pres., Merriman; Chas. C. Jameson, Sec'y-Treas., Ellsworth.
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: C. H. Tully, E. P. Meyers, Reuben Lisco, J. H. Bachelor, W. M. Fleishman, Robert Graham, E. M. Searle, Jr., Herman Krause, J. H. Monahan, A. R. Modisett, E. M. Eldred, O. T. Davis, Dan. E. Hill, Robert A. Cook, John H. Orr.

A telegram received Tuesday afternoon from South Omaha states that seventy-two head of cattle, shipped by Bignell Brothers, of Alliance, sold on the South Omaha market Monday for eight cents, and averaged in weight 1450 pounds. This makes an average of $118.40 per head, or a total of $8,524.80 for the lot. Certainly a good showing for western Nebraska cattle.

The Milk Cow train, to be run under the auspices of the State University and the Nebraska Dairymen's Association, announced in The Herald recently, is being looked forward to with great interest by farmers and ranchmen in this section of the state. D. Clem Deaver, the Burlington immigration agent, thoroughly believes in dairying as being a profitable thing for the farmer, and he is giving his support to the special train proposition.

The train will travel approximately 1500 miles and will pass through and make stops at approximately ninety minutes each at sixty-seven towns in the following counties: Knox, Pierce, Madison, Antelope, Holt, Rock, Brown, Cherry, Sheridan, Dawes, Sioux, Box Butte, Morrill, Grant, Hooker, Thomas, Blaine, Custer, Sherman, Buffalo, Hall, Perkins, Lincoln, Frontier, Dawson, Gosper and Phelps.

This train consisting of a large furniture car containing representative milk cows of the Holstein, Jersey, Guernsey, Ayrshire and milking Shorthorn breeds from the university farm; a flat car where the cows can be exhibited to the public; a baggage car fitted with exhibits from the dairy husbandry department of the university together with an exhibit of books and reading matter of interest to farmers and dairymen, the use of which is furnished free to the people of the state by the Nebraska Public Library Commission; a lecture car and a combination sleeping and dining car for use of the lecturers accompanying the train together with the five lecturers and two representatives of the university and two representatives of the dairyman's association will arrive at Niobrara, Knox county, on Monday, September 15th. The schedule of hours when stops will be made as given for the first day will be closely followed on subsequent days.

The schedule for the entire trip is as follows:
Monday, September 15th, Niobrara, 8 a. m.; Verdigris, 10 a. m.; Creighton, 12 m.; Plainview, 2 p. m.; Pierce, 4 p. m.; Norfolk, evening session.
Tuesday, September 16th, Battle Creek, 8 a. m.; Oskdale, Neligh, Elmington, O'Neill.
Wednesday, September 17th, Emmet, Ainsworth, Stuart, Newport, Bassett, Long Pine.
Thursday, September 18th, Ainsworth, Johnston, Woodlake, Valentine, Kilgore, Cody.
Friday, September 19th, Merriman, Gordon, Rushville, Hay Springs, Chadron.
Saturday, Sept. 20th, Whitney, Crawford, Harrison.
Monday, Sept. 22d, Belmont, Marsland, Hemingford, Angora, Bridgeport, Alliance.
Tuesday, Sept. 23d, Lakeside, Bingham, Hyannis, Whitman, Mullen, Seneca.
Wednesday, Sept. 24th, Thedford, Halsey, Dunning, Anselmo, Merna, Broken Bow.
Thursday, Sept. 25th, Ansley, Litchfield, Ravenna, Cairo, Grand Island.
Friday, Sept. 26, Grant, Madrid, Wallace, Dickens, Maywood, Curtis.
Saturday, Sept. 27th, Farnham, Eustis, Elwood, Bertrand, Loomis, Holdrege.

The territory through which this train will pass is confined largely to the western half of the state in which the dairy industry is steadily on the increase. From the 67 towns at which this train will make stops there was shipped in the year 1912 of heavy, hand separator cream, 145,578 10-gallon cans from which was manufactured approximately 4,366,000 pounds of creamery butter or about fourteen per cent of the creamery butter manufactured in the state for that year.
Creameries located at towns in the territory where the train will make stops manufactured in the year 1912, 1,848,000 pounds of creamery butter. No statistics are available showing the amount of farm or dairy butter made.

JAS. MURPHY BUYS RANCH

Another good sized ranch deal was completed last Saturday morning when James Murphy purchased a 1600 acre Mulloy ranch from J. Rice. The tract is located 22 miles south of Alliance and 15 miles west of Angora.
The land involved in the sale is 1500 acres and brought $150,000. This year's crop upon it is estimated at one thousand tons of hay which Mr. Murphy says is the finest grass and blue stem good wheat now being cut under this hay and goes to the new purchaser who will take over the ranch as the haying is completed.
The new owner expects to stock his ranch with at least a thousand head of cattle, western Nebraska high corn, and cattle cheap and ranchers can buy top market, there hold them for a year or two here in the sand hill country.
Mr. Murphy is a comparatively young man, who has spent the five years in this vicinity on the homesteads and ran a large business, but Mr. Murphy thinks that he saw a splendid opening and took advantage of it. He is one of the alert young business men of this part of the state, who prefer to pin their faith to the live stock business under its most favorable conditions.—Oshkosh Herald.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

Newsy Letter From

Rev. G. C. Jeffers

Former Alliance Minister Now Living at Ovid, N. Y., Still Interested in Alliance and Her People

CAUGHT SOME FINE FISH

The many Alliance people who remember the good work done by Rev. G. C. Jeffers while pastor of the Baptist church here, will be glad to read the following newsy letter received on Saturday:

Ovid, N. Y., Aug. 28, R. F. D. 2, Alliance, Nebr.

Gentlemen: I am very glad to state that the Herald has found its way to my address here at Ovid. No paper comes to my home that brings more interest with it than does the Herald. I read the news to know what your people are doing. I read the editorials to know how the public pulse is beating. I read the ads to know if the business men are still doing business. I mark with special pleasure the improvements that are going forward. Strange as it may seem, I note a peculiar pride in all these. It argues to me that my love for Alliance and her people has in no wise abated from what it was five or six years ago. I want to see her churches built up, her schools advanced, and her commercial interests developed. So long as the city looks to one end, the greatest good to the greatest number, she will grow and prosper.

A word in regard to myself. I was called to the pastorate of the Ovid Center church last April, and immediately entered upon my duties. It is a country parish, but in a very wealthy community. The church is prospering and all is going pleasantly with us. We have just returned from a two weeks

If your name is not on the subscription list of The Alliance Herald, the official organ of the Nebraska Stock Growers Association, NOW is the time to subscribe. Send us your name with $1.50 and we will send the paper a year and guarantee that you will receive your money's worth. Or, better still, if you are a stock raiser or interested in the live stock business, fill out below the blank application for membership in the Nebraska Stock Growers Association, send it with check for membership dues to the secretary, and you will receive The Herald one year prepaid.

camp at Cayuga Lake, only four miles from us. Had a delightful time fishing, with the result that we had all the fish to eat we cared for. Will not attempt to tell you the size of some of the fish I caught for fear Jim Feagins might think it a fish story. Suffice it to say, I caught some fine fish.
In connection with the parsonage here, there are three acres of land and I have it all planted. I wish I lived near the Herald office; the editors should have some toothsome morsels from my garden. Our home is only three-fourths of a mile from Shadrake Springs station on the Lehigh Valley R. R. If any of our old Alliance friends will kindly let us know, we shall be glad to meet them at the station at any time, Herald editor included, for a good visit with us. Our latch-string is out for any of you.
Success to the work of the Herald and to every good work of the people of Alliance.
Sincerely,
G. C. JEFFERS.

The city electric light and power department landed the contract the first of the week for the electric light and telephone wiring of the new Box Butte county court house, now in course of construction. The consideration is $1200. This is for the rough wiring only and does not include the fixtures. It does include the conduit wire, cabinet boards, meter boards and switches. The wiring will be of the most modern kind and will be in accordance with the rules and regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

A number of the Alliance young people spent Sunday in Hot Springs, S. Dak., enjoying the plunge and the Wind Cave. They returned Sunday night and report a very pleasant trip. They were: Elizabeth Lawbaugh, Ada Lawbaugh, Neva Brenaman, Paula Brenaman, Mable Sward, Della Watson, Alice Large, Leana Bayse, Maude Kelly, Mable Kelly, Flora Brenaman, Geraldine Brenaman, Madeline Zediker, Jess Burnett, Urban Zediker, Milton Denny, Francis Sward, Clifford Sward, John Shay, R.
