Horses Selling

than at former sales on account of the fact that there were a number of very poor horses sold for low prices, holding down the average which at former sales has been from $80 to $95. There were two strings of very poor horses which the owners sold cheap in order to avoid feeding through the winter months. One string of thirty head brought as low as $4 and high as $20. There were also two big bunches of colts and young mules which helped hold down the average.

Each succeeding sale this season has attracted buyers from a wider area until there are here today buyers from Liverpool, England, and the island of Cuba. Among the buyers are the following: J. W. Parker, New York; J. Frisbee, St. Louis; Morris Davis, St. Louis; J. Dean, Kentucky; J. W. Haggerty, Bridgeport; C. C. Smith, Alliance; Tom Bradstreet, Grand Island; Art Langman, Grand Island; Art Rodgers, Texas; Jimmy Murphree, Liverpool, England; Sam Parker, Cuba; Orville Holloway, Broadwater; Ray Westover, Lakeside; and John Burry of Sidney.

There are about 200 head to be sold today and from present indications they will be cleaned out early.

was the victim of a deliberate plot and that his death was premeditated. The union side claims that the slayer of Lee was not a union man and his death cannot be blamed to them.

There is very little change in the strike situation. One large mine closed yesterday afternoon and another signed up with the union, agreeing to pay the wage scale demanded.

LOCAL NEWS

From Saturday's Daily:

O. A. Moonahan was a visitor in Alliance today from Scottsbluff. He says the sugar campaign is well on in the valley and that a record-breaking season is expected. The sugar plant is working at its fullest capacity.

S. W. Holt has the contract for painting two buildings for W. W. Norton, the large store building and the Diamond pool hall.

Mrs. H. F. Gallup of Mitchell left for her home today after a two weeks visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Thomas.

F. H. Beeson is looking for his brother Joe from Omaha tomorrow, who is coming for a week's visit in Alliance, with probably a little duck and grouse shooting during that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Whitaker and Miss Minnie Whitaker of Canton stopped in Alliance yesterday afternoon, enroute to South Omaha, where they went for a visit at the home of Mrs. Whitaker's parents. They expect to be gone about three weeks.

From all around people coming to Alliance remember The Herald, which is very pleasing to all connected with the paper. Among those favoring this office with a call yesterday were J. F. Willis of Marsland, Dawes county; Hanford Green, Strasburg, Sheridan county; and H. H. Lohse, Ellsworth.

W. F. Rosenkrantz and family have moved from 419 Big Horn avenue two and a half blocks south, 206 Big Horn.

Chas. Avery, mayor of Orlando, arrived in Alliance too late for the fair but intends to stay over a few days and celebrate anyway.

Miss Delia Roberts and Mrs. Eli Holt of Bayard were Alliance visitors today. They are stopping at the Burlington hotel.

O. A. Engersoll of Linn is another visitor who came to Alliance for the fair, riding in yesterday's races.

James Delancy of Scottsbluff was a visitor during the fair and was greatly interested in the sugar beets produced in Box Butte county.

W. C. Simonson left here yesterday for his ranch, going by auto. He resides in Denver and spends a great deal of his time on his ranch in this neighborhood.

William Benschoter, a retired newspaper man now living in Schill, is numbered among Alliance visitors. With him is his daughter and son-in-law C. W. Herlan of Lakeside, who participated in yesterday's events at the fair.

Mrs. John Lucas returned Wednesday from a visit to Bridgeport.
