TWO FINE MISSIONARY ADDRESSES

As announced in Saturday's Daily Herald, the meeting at the United Presbyterian church Sunday evening, which was the last of the series conducted by Rev. E. L. McCreey and Rev. E. L. Pollock, was a union service. It was announced thru the paper that the Methodist, First Presbyterian and Christian churches would unite with the U. P. people in the service, but as it was afterwards thought, and correctly, too, that if they all did, the church would not contain all who came, the Methodists decided to hold regular services at that time and so announced at the morning service. As it was the U. P. church was well filled.

Rev. W. A. Pollock of South Omaha was the first speaker, his address being an exceedingly interesting talk on home missions. In showing the great need of energetic and effective home missionary work he presented statistics regarding church work in the United States, both in city and country. So strong was the portrayal of the pressing needs of the cause that it would have had a decidedly pessimistic effect had it not been for the unbounded faith of the speaker in ultimate success.

Rev. McCreey followed with an address in which he related in a most interesting manner his experiences as a foreign missionary, including some thrilling experiences in the Sudan. An optimistic spirit prevailed thruout this talk, although it was shown that to succeed an immense amount of hard work and sacrifice will be necessary.

LADIES LIKE DAILY HERALD

Opinion of Alliance Ladies on Merits of This Paper—All like and Read It

When it comes to passing an opinion upon the merits of a local newspaper, there are no better judges than the ladies of the community. For this reason it is a pleasure to mention what some of the ladies of this city have been saying about the Daily Herald:

One prominent Alliance lady said a few days ago: "There's no need of taking the Times any more, as it contains simply a rehash of what is published in the Daily Herald."

Another Alliance lady, who formerly was in position to read the daily papers extensively but who recently does not give much time to them, remarked to a Daily Herald representative: "I do not miss the city dailies so much now since we have the Alliance Daily."

A family in the west part of the city took the Daily Herald for a while and then had it discontinued. Within a few days after stopping the paper the lady called up The Herald office and requested that their name be placed back on the subscription list, remarking that her husband said everybody was talking about what was in the Alliance Daily and he didn't know anything about it himself, as he was not getting the paper.

CAFE CHANGES HANDS

The Alliance Cafe, which has been conducted by Mrs. W. E. Gillasp for several months, has been sold by her to Mr. and Mrs. E. Voight, who come here from Sterling, Colo. Mr. and Mrs. Gillasp will return to their former home in Huxtom, Colo., where they will conduct the hotel which they formerly had at that point.

The gentlemen were taken through the court house and shown everything by county treasurer Simon Fishman who is president of the Treasurers' Association whose convention will be held in Omaha this fall.

The commissioners will meet on Friday to receive bids on the furniture and furnishings for the Box Butte county court house now in course of construction.

CURTIS PLACED ON TRIAL

Alliance Man Who is Accused of Stealing and Butchering Cattle is on Trial Now

(By Herald Correspondent.)

VALENTINE, Nebr., Nov. 24.—Frank Curtis, colored, and a party of other negroes were placed on trial here in the district court on Thursday. Curtis is employed in Alliance. The negroes are accused of stealing and butchering cattle belonging to John Batchelor, a prominent and wealthy ranchman of this county.

The negroes live in a little colored settlement not far from the ranch of Batchelor, twenty miles west of Valentine. It is rumored that Curtis and his wife had a quarrel, following which she gave the information causing the arrest of the negroes. It is expected that the trial will continue for several days.

Sidney has needed a good hotel for a long time and the people of Sidney now believe that they are safe in saying they have as good a hotel as there is in the west.

The Value of Spare Moments

From every section, and from all sorts and conditions of men, messages come to tell of earnings increased and futures brightened through study of I. C. S. Courses during spare time.

One letter gives the romance of a young man in California that began with little or no education; another tells the story of a high school graduate in Maine that found himself educated for everything but to make a living. Here are the heart-throbs of a fellow that toiled 12 hours a day and studied his Course as best he could; of a foreman or superintendent that enrolled because his ambition aimed at still bigger things.

No matter where you live, how little spare time you have, or how brief your schooling, the I. C. S. can raise your salary. That statement is backed with 20 years of success and a record of 400 or more advancement letters received every month.

I. C. S. Courses have made draftsmen, foremen, and superintendents of shop hands; building contractors, architects, structural and concrete engineers of carpenters and masons; advertising men, window trimmers, chemists, illustrators, and designers of clerks; electrical, mechanical and steam engineers of laborers; mine inspectors, foremen, and mining engineers of mine workers; bridge engineers, surveyors and mappers, civil engineers, gas engineers, automobile runners and civil service employees of young men willing to use their spare time to mold a career.

Suppose you were to increase your earnings only $20 a month—what a fine return that would be on your spare-time investment! G. O. Gibboney, of Mount Pleasant, Pa., increased his earnings $250 a month, and hundreds have done as well.

Mark and mail this coupon and you will receive free information how you can increase your earnings by spare-time study.
