All Five for About the Price of Ours Alone

This is the biggest bargain in the best reading matter ever offered to our subscribers. It includes our paper—the best weekly published in this part of the state—and the four Magazines of national prominence shown above, sample copies of which may be seen at our office.

We have never sold our paper alone at less than $1.50 a year. But on account of the splendid contract we have made with these big publications we are able to give our readers the four magazines with our paper, all one year for only $1.68—just 18 cents more than the regular price of our paper alone.

Send us your orders right away, give them to our representative or call and see us when you are in town. As soon as you see these clean, beautiful, interesting magazines you will want them sent to your own home for a year.

COTTONWOOD VALLEY NOTES

(By Cottonwood Valley Steve)

Sweat the prairie dog, is all the go now in the valley.

Bonnie Hagaman was visiting in town over Sunday.

G. G. Clark and family took dinner with J. C. Hawkins Sunday and report a fine time.

Mrs. Glen Gentle and sister-in-law were sightseeing in the valley Sunday.

Shirley Hagaman drove down to Bonner Monday.

H. E. Fisher was down to Mr. Gentle's Sunday and reports Mr. Gentle as being improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud McClanna were up from Bonner Sunday to visit G. H. Hagaman.

Mr. Underwood was transacting business with Minatare people one day this week.

Mrs. John Hanley is visiting at the ranch of her brother, Lee Marsh, this week.

R. R. Reddish went to Lakeside this week to attend a cattle sale.

Herbert Robson went over to the Platte river Tuesday to look after a bunch of cattle he has on feed over there.

P. S. Malley and wife enjoyed one of Mrs. Lee Marsh's excellent dinners Sunday and also had a splendid time which is always the case when you visit with those people.

Cal Underwood returned this week from his extended visit in Missouri and Iowa.

C. C. Coker was in town Saturday from Bonner. He reports stock around there as doing fine and there is plenty of feed.

Miles Hagaman is still at the old Leater ranch looking after stock and will no doubt be well cared for if they depend on him.

Mrs. Hawkins was calling at the Clark ranch one day this week while J. C. was trying to exterminate a prairie dog town.

Joe Soupons has taken the management of the P. J. Nolan ranch for the summer.

We are glad to report that Mrs. A. A. Wright is still improving and that Grandma Corbett is strong and hearty for one of her years.

Excellent for Stomach Trouble.

"Chamberlain's Tablets are just fine for stomach trouble," writes Mrs. G. C. Dunn, Arnold, Pa. "I was bothered with this complaint for some time and frequently had bilious attacks. Chamberlain's Tablets afforded me great relief from the first, and since taking one bottle of them I feel like a different person." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

HARRY CRILEY BOUND OVER

Alliance Man Who Is Charged With Breaking Into Store Building Under $1000 Bond

Harry Criley, who was arrested Thursday night charged with breaking into the frame building on Box Butte avenue and stealing part of the Simmons stock of goods, was arraigned before Judge Berry at the court house at 10 o'clock Saturday.

Criley was not represented by an attorney. He plead not guilty to the charge and was bound over under bond of $1000, which he could not give. In default of bond he was placed in the county jail. As evidence in court several articles which were found in his room were placed on exhibition.

PERU NORMAL NEWS ITEMS

Peru Nebr., March 9—Two basketball games were played here Friday evening, one being between the girls' teams of Peru and Beatrice and the other between the boys' teams of Peru and Bellevue. The score for the girls' game was 44-7 in favor of Peru, and for the boys' game, 41-29 in favor of Peru.

The training high school entertained the senior practice teachers Saturday evening.

The senior class will give "Every Woman" as their class play. This play was decided upon soon after Christmas.

The military company recently elected the following commissioned officers: Roy Clark, captain; Frank Leger, first lieutenant, and Ivan Winslow second lieutenant. Other officers will be appointed by these officers, advising with Prof. Beck.

The glee club in conjunction with the girls' glee club gave a splendid entertainment Tuesday evening. One of the numbers given by the girls' glee club was "Estudiantina," a Spanish student song which was presented in costume. Several solos were given by Dr. House and Miss Blankenship.

The basketball team left Wednesday morning for Bellevue, Grand Island and Kearney, where they play Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings respectively.

George Carrington, an alumni of Peru and ex-county superintendent of Nemaha county, talked in chapel Wednesday morning. Mr. Carrington is traveling for the Patent Heating and Ventilating Co., with headquarters in Minneapolis, Minn., but will move to Chicago in the near future.

The students and faculty were greatly pleased with the readings from Riley's poems given by Mr. Monical at chapel Wednesday. Mr. Monical travels for D. C. Heath & Co., and lives in Lincoln.
