JUNIORS HAVE CELEBRATION

Members of Junior Class Hold Celebration in Honor of the Class Victories

After winning two games of basket ball Thursday—the boys' team from the alumni, and the girls' team from the Freshmen girls—the Junior class of the High school procured several packages of "good things to eat" and marched a short distance north of the High school, where a celebration was held. A large bonfire was built after gathering up all the "tumble weeds" for a distance in every direction and making a pile about ten feet high. The light from the fire could be seen for several blocks. War dances, yells and songs were indulged in during the celebration. Wood was added to the fire, after which roast apples, "hot dogs" (the kind you get at Coney), sandwiches and pickles were devoured by the members of the class. The "Freshies" appeared on the scene, and after feasting—their eyes—dispersed. After the feed and more yells and songs, the crowd adjourned by common consent.
