

SPORTING

Edited by "DOC" COPELAND

A good crowd attended the games Sunday afternoon at the fair ground. The weather was ideal and the crowd would have been still larger had it not been that many who would otherwise have attended were on the auto booster trip.

Next Sunday will be games between Alliance and Chadron, played at Chadron. The Alliance teams will leave here in three autos Sunday morning, take dinner on Pine Ridge and arrive in Chadron in time to start the game at 3 o'clock, before the auto booster excursion arrives. Allianceites who go on the booster trip will be able to witness the ball game at Chadron before returning home.

In the boxing game there are many stars in the limelight, Coulon, Williams, Campi and others, but do not overlook the one best bet to be staged here during the convention on Friday night, the 19th, between Earl Puryear and Harry (Kiscus) Lub, two of the scrappiest little fellows in the game, both being products of the Denver Athletic Clubs. Puryear has gone through the 1913 D. A. C. amateur boxing tournament with representatives from four states, winning the laurels against all competitors in his class, and has been following the game professionally since with grand success. In meeting Lub he is meeting a lad that has held him to a draw on two previous meetings. This meeting will take them on a longer route than any other fight they have had, and undoubtedly will be returned a winner before the final round is reached. Puryear is the classiest of the two from a scientific standpoint, but what Lub lacks in the finer points of the game he more than makes up in aggressiveness and punching power. This will be a grand battle and one worth seeing, as Abe Pollock, sporting editor of the Denver News is the referee agreed upon by the principals. The boxers and the public will be assured a square deal, as Pollock is beyond all doubt one of the very best referees in the game today, with years of experience.

World's Champion Bantam
The world's bantamweight champion, Johnny Coulon, lost his title to "Kid" Williams at Vernon arena, in Los Angeles, Tuesday, by a knockout in the third round. Coulon has been out of the game the past year through illness and lacked all of his old time form. Come to Alliance during the stockmen's convention—you'll see a real bantamweight battle, Puryear and Lub.

Want Druggists Convention
The annual state druggists' convention will be held in Grand Island from June 22d to 25th. Alliance will make an effort to land the convention for the coming year.

Caught Runaway Boy
The sixteen-year-old son of Fred Black of Rushville was apprehended by Sheriff Cal Cox on Sunday and held for his father, who arrived the next day and took the boy home. He was caught in the railroad yards with a bunch of tramps and insisted that his home was in Denver, until the sheriff recognized him.

More Rooms Wanted
Anyone having rooms for rent during the convention should phone the commercial club, phone 74, and give location, etc.

MARRIAGES
Everett Cook, the well known Alliance saloon man, and Mrs. Eva Elmore were married Monday at the home of Mrs. Elmore on Laramie Avenue by Judge Berry.
Christley M. Keeper and Miss Nina Adaline Weatherwax, both of Litchfield, Nebraska, were married Saturday by Judge Berry.
Anderson H. Merry of Billings, Montana, and Miss Pearl Fellows of Edgemont, S. D., were married last Thursday by County Judge Berry.
Walter W. Perrett and Frances W. Goss, both of Hyannis, were married on Saturday by Rev. Titus Lang.

Salvation Army Glide
The latest dance is called the "Salvation Army Glide," according to local experts. In explaining the dance they say, "You dance on your heels and save your soles."

Fourth of July Celebration
A big Fourth of July Celebration will be held at the Snow grove, near the Putman place. There will be an interesting program with horse races, dancing, etc. Everybody is invited to bring their dinner and have a good time.

Clean-up Days
Monday and Tuesday of next week are clean-up days for Alliance. The Commercial Club, co-operating with the city authorities, will see that all back yards, alleys, etc., are thoroughly cleaned up.

The forest service of the U. S. department of agriculture reports that jack pine trees planted ten years ago in the sand hills of Nebraska are now large enough to produce fence posts. Last year the first seed was gathered from this plantation.

Fire at Rock Home
The home of Thomas Rock, corner of Niobrara and Fourth streets, did damage to the amount of several hundred dollars at 8:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening. The fire started in the kitchen, presumably from the kitchen range, and quickly spread through the kitchen and dining room and upstairs.

The building is two story, of frame construction. It was formerly the Catholic parsonage. By the time the fire department arrived in quick time, the building appeared to be doomed but quick work and well directed efforts soon stopped the fire. The damage will amount to probably $500 on the building and furniture.

Making Telephone Record
The Grand Island district of the Nebraska Telephone Company, F. A. May of Grand Island, district manager, is making a fine business record this year. Alliance is in this district. During the month of May seventy-eight new telephones were installed in the district, making a total of 15,992 telephones in this district. Alliance has 1051 telephones.

FIREMEN HAVE SUNDAY PICNIC

Alliance Volunteer Fire Department Will Spend Day at Lister's Grove South of Town

In accordance with their custom of getting together during the summer months for an enjoyable picnic, the Alliance volunteer fire department will spend next Sunday at Jack Lister's grove, six miles south of town. The trip will be made in a big hayrack, with plenty of room for all, and a lot of good things to eat. The start will be made from the city hall at 7 o'clock in the morning. All members are invited.

Stanton in Omaha
George Stanton of the Newberry Hardware Company is in Omaha for medical treatment. He was accompanied by Mrs. Stanton.

Tacoma Teacher Visiting Mother
Mrs. Engel, a teacher in the city schools of Tacoma, Wash., arrived in Alliance on the early morning train last Friday, for a summer's vacation visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Edwards, and brothers and sisters in Sioux county. Mrs. Edwards and son, Guy, came over to Alliance in their auto to meet Mrs. Engel and take her out to the ranch.

Invoiced Lumber Yard
E. F. Jenkins of Lincoln, auditor of the S. A. Foster Lumber Co., was in Alliance last Saturday assisting A. L. Conklin, local manager, in "taking stock." Mr. Jenkins, in common with others from eastern Nebraska who visit Alliance, seemed pleased with conditions in this part of the state and business in this city.

Moved into Larger House
Mrs. Anna Zehrung has moved into the Rice residence at 624 Niobrara avenue, which is considerably larger than the house she vacated at 210 East Fifth street. This gives her more room and better facilities for taking care of patients whom she nurses at her home.

Mail Route to be Discontinued
D. N. Matthews of Sheridan county was in Alliance the latter part of last week to consult a physician and receive treatment, having been in poor health recently. While here he ordered his address changed from Ellsworth to Lakeside, as the mail route that formerly carried mail to the Jess post office and which served him from Ellsworth is to be discontinued.

Bible Club Meetings
During the month of June the Men's Bible Club will meet at the United Presbyterian church, Sunday afternoons, at 3 o'clock. The meeting next Sunday will be led by H. F. Walters.

Vacation at Home
Miss Ethel Johnston arrived Tuesday morning from Stanton, Neb., where she has been teaching very successfully in the High school during the year just closed. She will spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Johnston.

Alliance Art Studio Painted
Photographer M. E. Grebe has improved the exterior appearance of the Alliance Art Studio very much by having it treated to two or three coats of good paint.

Miss Blanche Ibbie, who went to California in December, returned last week after spending an enjoyable vacation at Los Angeles and Long Beach.

Lambert Sewell, a prominent attorney of Los Angeles, Calif., stopped over in Alliance the first of the week for a short visit with friends.

12 ROUNDS OF BOXING

Stockmen's Convention at Alliance, Nebraska

Friday Night, June 19th

PRINCIPALS

VS.

HARRY "Kiscus" LUB

BANTAMS:

Weight, 118 Pounds, Ringside

REFEREE:

Abe Pollock, of Denver

The following clipping was taken from the Denver News on date of Monday, June 8th. It says in regard to the pair:

In picking Puryear and Lub for the Alliance fans they made a ten strike, as both boys are the niftiest, fastest little fellows ever developed in the West, and are great favorites everywhere. They are so evenly matched in speed and punching ability it is hard to decide which is the better of the two in short bouts, but over the longer route they will take at Alliance this question may be definitely settled.

At the Gilbert-Schubert fight at the C. A. C. last month, they put up one of the greatest 8-round battles ever staged in Denver, and had the fans standing on their chairs the whole session, which ended in a draw.

A week afterward they were matched in a preliminary at the Kilbane Chavez bout at the stadium, and repeated the performance of the C. A. C. affair by lacing each other all around the ring much to the delight of the fans, who voted it one of the best scraps of the season.

Both are exceptionally clever, of the aggressive type, and go after each other like a house afire from start to finish.

Going over the twelve round route will give the pair a chance to see who is will precede the main event. For full information address "Doc" Copeland, Alliance, Neb. One good six round preliminary
