

OFFICIAL ORGAN NEBRASKA STOCK GROWERS ASSOCIATION. REACHES EVERY MEMBER
OFFICIAL ORGAN NEBRASKA VOLUNTEER FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION. IT REACHES HEADQUARTERS FOR 15,000 FIREMEN

VOLUME XXII

ALLIANCE, BOX BUTTE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1915

NO. 27

George Foster was here from Canton last Thursday attending to business matters.

George Petri, of Angora, was here last Thursday on business.

Skinner's Macaroni Products, made in Nebraska. Ask your grocer.—Adv.

Miss Viola Kleinke came in last Friday for a short visit with Miss Nell Keeler and other friends.

Mrs. E. S. Kinsley returned to her home at Aurora, Nebr., last Friday after a few days visit here with her cousin, Bruce McDowell, and family.

Miss Edna Benedict returned last Thursday from Hemingford, where she had been visiting with friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Conover were here last Friday from Ashby, visiting with friends and looking after business matters.

Mesdames A. W. and F. W. Black came over from Lakeside last Thursday, remaining until Friday visiting and shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Black were here from Ellsworth the latter part of last week looking after business matters and visiting with relatives and friends.

Pat King and family were here the latter part of last week from Angora visiting with his brother, Wm. King, and attending to business matters.

R. R. Spafford went to Chadron Friday to present the farm survey work at a meeting of the Dawes county farmers' association.

P. D. Gleason, manager of the Alliance telephone exchange, returned home Saturday from an inspection trip which took him to Sidney, Bridgeport and Kimball.

J. H. Lunsford and family, of near Lakeside, passed through Alliance last Saturday enroute to Portland and other western cities, and principally to San Francisco where they will attend the exposition.

Superintendent W. R. Pate departed Saturday for Lincoln where he will take special work at the University during the months of June and July. After finishing that work, about August 1, he will be busy with institute work in the counties adjoining Box Butte until almost time for the next term of school.

Louie Sorenson and Sam Mottis, who appeared in town without visible means of support, were fined $5 and costs in police court last Friday morning, and are working out the fine on the streets.

Mrs. T. F. Wisner and daughters, Grace and Laura, came last Friday from Chadron, for a short visit with relatives and friends. Their home is at Sidney, but they had been visiting at Chadron before coming here.

Mrs. W. R. Pate and children departed the latter part of last week for Denver and other points where they will visit with relatives and friends during the summer months.

Miss Grace Wyatt came in last Friday night from Lincoln, stopping off here for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Finch. Miss Wyatt's home is at Edgemont, to which town she was enroute, but she has been attending the University at Lincoln during the past year.

Miss Gladys Gillette came in last Friday from Scottsbluff to take the summer musical course at St. Agnes academy.

Miss Belle Mullins, teacher at the academy, departed last Friday for Paris, Ill., where she will spend the vacation with home folks. She will return to Alliance in the fall to resume her duties, having been re-engaged.

Sam Kline returned to his duties as cook at the Drake last Thursday, after a week's vacation during which he visited with relatives and friends in Marsland.

H. A. Seidell was here the latter part of last week visiting with his brother, F. M. Seidell, the county agent. H. A. had been attending the veterinary college at Ames, and was on his way to his home at Chadron.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Burns and daughter, Jessie, are enjoying a week's vacation in a splendid manner. They departed last Friday for Crawford, near which place they will camp for a week. They did not take much of an outfit from Alliance, but will hire a tent and other equipment at Crawford.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. Amelia Johnson came in last week from Canton for a two weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Bruce McDowell, and family.

H. I. Krause, representing the Pathe Film Company, of New York, was here the latter part of last week. While here he booked a couple of good serials for Alliance's picture houses.

Charles Shafer went to Broken Bow Sunday to attend to business matters.

J. J. Planansky was down from Hemingford Friday attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rokk departed last Saturday for Council Bluffs, Ia., where they will visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Millicent Smalley, who taught here during the past term, went to Theford to spend the vacation with her parents.

Dean A. T. Eller went to Mullen Saturday to conduct Sunday services.

Dr. Durrie, of Boulder, Colo., passed through Alliance last Friday on her way to Crawford to attend the camp meeting which was in progress at that town. She visited between trains with Miss Mabel Weidenhamer.

Sheriff Cal Cox and Night Marshal Kish returned last Friday from Lancaster county, where they had taken the four prisoners that were sentenced at the last term of court. They went to Lancaster Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Townley and daughter, Miss Lillie, are expected to arrive the first of next week from the east to spend the summer with their daughter, Mrs. Cal Cox.

R. B. Logan departed Saturday for San Francisco, to attend the exposition. He expects to return about the first of August.

Rev. Grant Kirby, pastor of the colored church, went to Crawford last Saturday where he will conduct services for two weeks.

Mrs. Lucy J. Sisco was over from Ellsworth the latter part of last week attending to business matters.

Mrs. A. J. Cole and children departed Sunday for Luther, Okla., for an extended visit with her parents, who live at that place.

R. B. Burns went to Scottsbluff last Friday to join his wife, who had been visiting there with relatives and friends, and on Monday they went to Crawford to join his parents in their camping expedition on the river, which occurs this week.

H. J. Wisner, editor of the Star-Herald at Scottsbluff, was here last Saturday attending to business matters.

Mrs. W. A. Luce, of Sheridan, Wyo., came in last Saturday and remained until Monday visiting with Mrs. A. V. Gavin.

Mrs. L. C. Moore, a national lecturer for the W. C. T. U., and daughter Miss Eugenia Moore, were in Alliance the first of last week, and occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church Sunday night, Mrs. Moore delivering a lecture and Miss Moore a solo.

Phillip Nohe returned home Monday morning from an extended business trip to Galveston, Houston and Alvin, Texas. He said that he was taking surf baths in the gulf a week ago Sunday, and furthermore he exhibited some raw places on his arm to show that there had been plenty of sunshine in the south. The same weather conditions existed there during Mr. Nohe's stay as have been here, in regard to the rainy weather, and Mr. Nohe says that business conditions in that part of the country are similar to what they are here.

Crother & Reed, at Lakeside, are making a number of improvements, among which are a two-story building and several lumber sheds.

J. C. Johnson and family went to Bingham Sunday for a two weeks visit with his brother and family, who live on their ranch near Bingham.

Mrs. Laura Cox came over from Minatare Monday for a few days visit with Miss Ina Bellwood.

Mrs. J. N. Andrews entertained at 6 o'clock dinner last Friday evening in honor of the H. H. Bellwood and B. F. Gilman families. In the evening a number of friends gathered in the home and enjoyed an excellent time.

P. D. Roberts went to his ranch near Ellsworth Monday, taking with him his little daughter Charlotte, who will visit there a few days.

Mesdames M. L. and R. E. Kincaid returned to Bingham Monday after being here for several days with their brother-in-law, Guy Kincaid, who has been ill at the Alliance hotel.

We have just received a new line of Midsummer Hats, in Panamas and Wash Hats. Come in and see them. Mrs. Sanquist and Daughters.

Children's Day services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Baptism of children will occur at the beginning of the service. Regular service at 8 p. m. Everyone welcome.

A ten-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Wagner, of Kewanee, Ind., on Sunday, June 6. Mr. Wagner occupied a position with the Burlington here before moving to Kewanee. Mrs. Wagner and Mrs. Guy Allen of Alliance are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy V. Allen departed today for Kewanee, Ind., for an extended visit with relatives and friends. They will visit with relatives and friends in Denver and Bridgeport on the way.

Irene and Gilbert Ward, the little children whose mother died at the hospital here about a month ago, were sent to the home of their grandparents at Big Sandy, Mont., last Sunday, to make that their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stearns and little son went to Lincoln last Thursday to be present at the wedding of his sister. Mr. Stearns returned to Alliance Monday, but Mrs. Stearns and son will visit in Lincoln and Omaha before returning.

Special reduction on all trimmed hats during the Stockmen's Convention. Mrs. Sanquist and Daughters.

Carl Stearns went to Omaha Wednesday to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge.

Mrs. Anna Chaffee has sold her property at 520 Big Horn to Harry DuBuque.

Special Officer Phillips went to Broken Bow yesterday to look after business matters.

Katie Johnson, night cook in Nohe's cafe, appeared at the Catholic church Sunday morning saying that she was "hungry and cold", and she appeared to be in a dazed condition. An officer was sent for and took the demented woman to the woman's ward in the court house. While there she turned on the hydrant, and considerable water escaped before it was discovered. Word was sent to her daughter in Denver, who came here Tuesday and returned with Mrs. Johnson. It seems that Mrs. Johnson is subject to spells of dementia, and while under them acts very childish. She was a valued worker in the Nohe cafe, and this was the first time during her employment that she had not been perfectly rational.

W. A. Field spent Sunday in Denver.

Mrs. George Davis, accompanied by several other members of Aloya Chapter Easter Star, will depart Friday night for Seneca, where on Saturday evening they will constitute a chapter.

Mrs. H. J. Young and children returned Monday from Lincoln where they had been for an extended visit with her parents.

The Christian Endeavorers of the Christian church enjoyed a hay ride to the Beal farm last Friday night. There were about twenty-five in the bunch, and all had a fine time.

Mrs. Ralph Worley received a telegram Tuesday stating that her mother, Mrs. Vol Wright, at Downs, Kansas, was not expected to live, and Mrs. Worley departed Tuesday for Downs. Mrs. Wright was taken down with measles some time ago and her health has steadily failed since. Her present condition is very critical.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Schorr came in Sunday from La Junta, Colo., to attend the Elks' fair this week. They returned to La Junta Wednesday night.

Mrs. Fred Fancher and daughters departed Wednesday for Anita, Ia., for an extended visit with her parents, and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. L. D. Blair and children went to Antioch Wednesday for a few days visit with her mother, Mrs. N. B. Berry.

A. Matthews came over from Whitman Monday and remained until Wednesday noon visiting with friends and looking after business matters.

Phillips Woboda received a telegram Wednesday announcing the death of his father, at Lincoln Tuesday evening—Phillips has been working in the Keeler-Coursey garage for some time. He has secured a position in a Lincoln garage and will remain there for the present.

Nick aKtuoll came up from Ellsworth Wednesday and returned today accompanied by Judge Bullock, who will represent him in an assault case that is pending. On Tuesday aKtuoll was working with several other men when they began to fight him. He says he backed away and turned his head to avoid their blows, and in doing so his left eye came in contact with a large wrench. Kattuoll swore out a complaint and then came to Alliance to secure counsel for his side.

FRESH MEATS—All kinds, mutton, pork, beef, and chickens. Rodgers' Grocery, Phone 54. 27-11-5660

WANTED—300 rooms for Stockmen's Convention. Phone 74, Alliance Commercial Club. 27-11-5661

Special train service will be rendered during the convention next week for trains east of Alliance on June 17 and 18. Train number 42, which leaves Alliance at 12:40 a. m., will stop at the following stations: Lakeside, Ellsworth, Ashby, Bingham, Hyannis, Whitman and Mullen. This will give everyone an opportunity to attend the big celebration at the fair grounds.

C. E. Carpenter returned home Sunday from Creston, to which place he had accompanied Edgar Wilson, who has been an invalid for some time. Mr. Wilson going to the home of his brother near Creston. Mr. Carpenter said that the sick man stood the trip well, and if there was any change in his condition it was that he was feeling better at the end of his destination. Mr. Carpenter said also that they had "some" weather in Iowa during the past week, nine inches of rain having fallen in three days. Nearly all the rivers overflowed and the crops in the bottom land have all been ruined. However, the high land crops look excellent, according to Mr. Carpenter, and the farmers are now cutting their first crop of alfalfa.

On account of the bad weather on last Sunday the annual I. O. O. F. memorial day services were postponed until next Sunday, June 13. Members and their families are requested to meet at the hall in accordance with former announcement.

Low Wallace Court No. 148, Tribe of Ben Hur, held its regular meeting in the Nation hall Monday evening. Six new members were initiated. The new order in Alliance is growing rapidly. The next meeting will be held at 8 o'clock next Monday evening.

FRESH MEATS—All kinds, mutton, pork, beef, and chickens. Rodgers' Grocery, Phone 54. 27-11-5660

400 HEAD of cows and heifers for sale. In Alliance Saturday, June 12. See W. L. Clark and E. T. Kibble. 27-11-5645

Ranchmen near Alliance report that from 4 to 4:30 o'clock Sunday morning, June 6, there was a heavy snowfall. The snow was all melted very soon after. The weather today is very warm.

400 HEAD of cows and heifers for sale. In Alliance Saturday, June 12. See W. L. Clark and E. T. Kibble. 27-11-5645

FRESH MEATS—All kinds, mutton, pork, beef, and chickens. Rodgers' Grocery, Phone 54. 27-11-5660

400 HEAD of cows and heifers for sale. In Alliance Saturday, June 12. See W. L. Clark and E. T. Kibble. 27-11-5645

A. D. Schorr, of La Junta, Colo., a former Alliance railroad man, better known as "Nigger", is in Alliance this week visiting during the Elks' celebration.

J. F. Dineen and John Burke, both of Columbus, Nebraska, were in the city Monday attending to business matters. Both are owners of large tracts of Box Butte county land and left goodly sums with the county treasurer in the form of taxes. They were well pleased with the prospects of a bountiful crop this season.

Ira Blaine of Grand Island, a prominent horseman, was in Alliance during the horse sale last week. He purchased several carloads of horses for the English army. Several were purchased from C. L. Lester, he paying the sum of $200 as the price for one. This is a record price.

Fred Mollring left Wednesday noon for business at Oshkosh and other points.

T. B. Stough returned today from Grand Junction, Colo., where he had accompanied the body of his father, which was taken there for interment.

Mrs. Joe Comba came in today from Livingston, Mont., for a few days visit with her niece, Mrs. Dany Lyons.

Mrs. R. A. Westover and daughters returned to their home at Lakeside today after attending the Elks fair here.

Otto Smith, of Hay Springs, brother-in-law of Dr. Geo. J. Hand, was an Alliance visitor the first of the week.

Jacob Kaper was in from Lawn precinct Wednesday looking after business matters.

Dean Cross and wife, of the Episcopal church at Sheridan, passed through Alliance today en route to Cheyenne, Wyo., to attend the Convocation of the Wyoming Episcopal church. During their short stay they visited with many friends. Mrs.

Cross was a former Alliance young lady, Miss Angela Ware.

Miss Katherine Harris returned today from Mitchell, where she and her sister Margaret had been visiting. Miss Margaret will remain at Mitchell for a few more days.

Mrs. H. H. Bellwood and daughter, Ina, departed Tuesday evening for Long Beach, Calif., where they will make their future home. As soon as they are settled, Dr. Bellwood will follow, which will probably be by the first of next month.

True Miller was down from Hemingford Monday attending to business matters.

Ray Stansberry spent Sunday in Whitman looking after the interests of the Newberry Hardware Co.

L. G. Sampson returned to his home at Ellsworth Tuesday after being in St. Joseph's hospital for the past fifteen days, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Guy Kincaid died at the Alliance hotel Tuesday following an extended illness with stomach trouble. He was a son of R. R. Kincaid, at Bingham. The remains were taken to Bingham Tuesday and the funeral occurred at that place Wednesday.

Secretary Fisher the first of this week went to Gordon and Hay Springs in his Ford and put out a bunch of advertising for the convention.

Miss Alice Smithson was here from North Platte last Thursday visiting with her uncle, L. E. Johnson.

F. H. Nagelschneider, N. S. Schneider and S. L. Becker were here from Angora last Thursday attending to business matters.

J. M. Fletcher was here last Thursday from Broadwater, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hooper were here from near Lulu the latter part of last week attending to business matters and visiting with friends.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Gustaf Sandoz, at the A. Buckle Bar ranch, a fine baby girl, born Saturday, May 29. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Among those from out of town who attended the horse sale last week were F. W. Melick, J. J. Planansky, A. S. Enyeart, George Hedgecock and L. H. Neeland of Hemingford. W. C. Phillips and Jason Shelton of Canton were here. Also True Miller, Wade Curry, Elbridge Wells of Marsland.

Miss Grace Dodd came in Sunday from Halsey for a few days visit with the A. D. Rodgers and Charles Murphy families. She will remain until after the convention next week.

C. P. Wakeman returned to his ranch near Antioch Tuesday after spending the week-end with home folks. He has secured a teaming contract near Hemingford, and will have charge of this for the next few weeks.

Mrs. Harry Plumber was here between trains Sunday enroute from Chadron, visiting with her aunt, Mrs. A. S. Mote.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Thompson were over from Lakeside Monday looking after business matters and visiting with friends. They returned to Lakeside Tuesday.

A Burlington special bearing A. T. Byran, vice president, of Chicago; G. W. Holdrege, general manager, of Omaha; B. B. Greer, assistant general manager, of Omaha, and Superintendent W. M. Weidenhamer, of the Alliance division, passed through here last Saturday on a complete inspection tour of the system. They left here Saturday afternoon for the Black Hills, and expected to be in Sheridan Sunday.

J. A. Roche departed Wednesday for Atkinson, Nebr., for a two weeks visit with his parents. His father has been in very poor health lately, and his visit was hastened on that account.

Combination Children's Day and Mothers' Day exercises were held at Fairview last Sunday. Rev. J. L. Kendall, of Lakeside, who occupies the pulpit there every two weeks, was unable to be present at these observances separately, and it was decided to hold them jointly. A basket dinner was the feature of the day.