LEAVES TOWN BY REQUEST

Ben Jordan, Colored Man, Declared Nuisance—Killed Man at Chadron Ten Years Ago

When given his choice of leaving town in a hurry or suffering a nervous breakdown, or being hung up by the thumbs or something worse, last week, Ben Jordan, a negro, chose the first-named penalty, and he has not been seen or heard of since.

Jordan is about fifty years old, wears spectacles, and usually carries a cane. For some time past it has been known to the police that he had no visible means of support, and that he was a general nuisance, but not until last week was it decided to take the action that had been deferred on account of his seemingly poor health.

Jordan made a practice of accosting white women on the street and calling them endearing names, or making obscene suggestions to them. On several occasions he has been seen in the residence section at night, looking through windows. Several times he followed white women to their homes.

When he lived at Chadron about ten years ago, Jordan killed another negro whom he found with his wife one night. There was a hard-fought legal battle before he gained his liberty, the case being in the courts for about a year.

As the negro was too old to work, and as he had no money, the police were in a quandary as to what to do with him, and at last, when they became exasperated last week, Jordan was told to make himself scarce inside of the next twenty-four hours.

DEAN ELLER TRANSFERRED

Will Leave Alliance the Last of This Month

Dean A. T. Eller returned last week from his eastern trip with the news that he had been transferred from Alliance to Worcester, Mass., a city of 200,000 inhabitants, where he will be assistant pastor of St. Matthews Episcopal church, and he will also be rector at Rochdale. He will leave, accompanied by his family, the last of this month, for the new location, assuming his duties the first of August.

Change in Court House Walk

A slight deviation from the original plan was made in the walk from the street to the courthouse before it was laid this week. It had been planned to run the walk in a perfect semi-circle from corner to corner, past the courthouse door, but when the form-laying had been started, it was seen that the original plan would not look the best nor be the most suitable. Accordingly the plan was changed so the walks started a short distance from each corner, and instead of making a perfect semi-circle, two reverse curves were made on each side, and the walk runs straight in front of the courthouse the entire length of the building. Another change was made where the fountains will be located. The fountains will not be located in the center of large concrete stars, but each will be given just a small concrete base, and there will be no walk connecting them. This will afford a saving of nearly $150 in the construction work.

Now that the walks are completed, the yard is being seeded to blue grass and the grounds are being otherwise beautified. The trees set out this spring are doing exceptionally well.

WEDDED IN ALLIANCE

Young Couple from Scotts Bluff and Sioux Counties Have Nuptial Knot Tied in This City

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, 408 Sweetwater avenue, occurred one of the last June weddings in Alliance, when Mr. Earl Marcum and Miss Nell B. Lane, of Morrill, Nebr., were united in marriage, John W. Thomas, editor of The Alliance Herald, performing the ceremony.

It is a pleasure to chronicle the union of hearts and lives of worthy young people, such as are the contracting parties in this instance. The groom is an enterprising young farmer and has a homestead in Sioux county, north of Morrill. The bride is an accomplished and highly respected young lady of Scotts Bluff county. Her parents reside near Caldwell.

The Herald extends congratulations and an earnest wish for a long and happy married life.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

For an Outing

The faculty of the Alliance School of Music are just as human as other people when it comes to enjoying nature, and this week they started on a six weeks' outing at Camp Maryland, on Dismal creek, about 16 miles from Mullen. Miss Burnett departed for Mullen Tuesday, to visit with relatives and friends until the arrival of the other members. Ralph Uniacke accompanied her as far as Antioch, where he stopped off, and where a riding horse was in readiness, and he is making the remainder of the trip to Mullen on horseback. Mrs. Zediker will join them at Mullen Saturday, and they will then proceed to the camping grounds. The camp is only a short distance from the ranch of R. E. Mahaffy, and Miss Burnett informed a Herald reporter that they intended to eat dozens of eggs, lots of butter and oodles of fresh milk every day.

Special Train to Bridgeport

On account of the 4th of July celebration at Bridgeport next Monday, the 5th, the Burlington will run a special train from Alliance to that town. This special will leave Alliance Monday morning at 8 o'clock, and passengers will return on No. 302, getting here at 3:20 a. m. Tuesday morning. The special that goes from Alliance will go on to Mitchell late Monday night as the regular service from Mitchell to Bridgeport serves those going to the celebration, but not on the return. The service from Alliance will give everyone an opportunity to attend all day, and it is probable that quite a number will go.

Reception for Mr. and Mrs. Hill

A reception was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Watkins, 823 Laramie avenue, for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill, who returned Wednesday noon from their wedding trip. Mrs. Watkins is mother of the bridegroom. The reception was attended by the members of the Alliance Fire Department in a body.

Wanted Creamery Information

A party of Scottsbluff business men composed of Harry Bowen, C. McCreary, P. Knolls, and J. L. Roberts, was here from that city Monday securing information regarding the creamery business, as it is their intention to soon start a business of this nature at Scottsbluff. While here these men visited with a number of the business men, and they informed Secretary Fisher that they intended to soon re-organize their commercial club and secure the services of a high-priced secretary, using the same system as Alliance.

An Improved Paper

The first issue of the Bridgeport News-Blade under the editorship and management of Bruce Wilcox came out last Friday, greatly improved in appearance and news matter. Under the guidance of Mr. Wilcox (now Editor Wilcox) and with the help of his capable son, Max, the News-Blade will stand high among the newspapers of Nebraska. J. M. Lynch, in his farewell editorial, said: "He does well who does his best; He is weary, let him rest. Brothers, I have done my best. I am weary, let me rest."

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Jeanette Poole returned to her home at Crawford Saturday after a few days visit here the guest of Miss Thelma Fitzpatrick.

Mrs. Everett Bedford, of Minatare, came in Tuesday to visit with the W. S. Acheson family.

Mrs. S. C. McBride, of Casper, Wyo., stopped off in Alliance Tuesday on her way to Iowa to visit with friends. While here she was the guest of G. W. Johnson and family.

Mrs. Geo. A. Hellman departed Wednesday for Wellington, and other points in Colorado, for a few weeks visit with relatives and friends.

Along Laramie, Cheyenne and Big Horn, where the curbing and guttering has been completed, a majority of the property owners already have their packages down to the grade. In most cases the package has been entirely plowed up, harrowed and leveled from the sidewalk to the curbing, the slope being from 6 to 18 inches. Blue grass has been planted, and it will make a very pretty contrast with the old style packages, which were level from the walk to the curbing.

J. P. McClurken was here the latter part of last week from Spring Valley, Calif., looking after business matters and visiting with friends. Mr. McClurken is a former resident, and still retains some farm land in this section. From here he went to Omaha to attend to some business matters before returning to his home in California.

Since publishing the item regarding Roy Beckwith's strawberries last week, it has been found that there are other berry raisers in Alliance. Archie Gregory has on display in Secretary Fisher's office several fine specimens, which were grown by him on his city property. The Herald maintains that this part of the country will produce just as delicious strawberries as any other place, and these two berry growers have borne out the theory.

Miss Abbie Weibling and Charles E. Wilkinson, of Lakeside, were married at Hot Springs, S. D., Wednesday, June 23. They returned to Alliance Saturday, going from here to Lakeside, near which place they will make their home on his ranch. Both these young people are well known in the Lakeside neighborhood and they bear excellent reputations.

In last week's issue, in writing the article regarding the white slave case, the Herald stated that Mrs. Philip Nohe was of Italian birth.

This is a mistake, and Mrs. Nohe asks us to make the correction, which we gladly do. She states that she is of Swiss parentage.

All boys calling at the Harper department store tomorrow (Friday) morning will be presented with a "safe and sane" Fourth of July pistol. Mr. Harper has only a limited supply of these guns, and the boys who want one should call at the store early.

House Struck by Lightning

This morning, during the severe thunderstorm, M. D. Nichols' residence at 412 Yellowstone was struck by lightning, the extent of the damage not being known at this time. The electric fuse was burned out, and a hole about the size of a half dollar was torn through the wall just behind it. The only occupant of the house at the time was Mr. Nichols' little grandson, the others being outside watching the ominous-looking clouds. The little fellow was not hurt, but was badly scared and in tears when the others came into the house. It was a prank of fate that Mr. Nichols was not struck. He had been standing at the sink, washing, only two minutes before the bolt struck, and had he not been called out of the house when he was, this article would have a different heading. Examination of the damage will be made in the morning.

Bridge in Good Condition

Just before going to press this afternoon, a telegram was received from the Hot Springs Commercial club by President Guthrie of the Alliance Commercial club stating that the bridge over the Cheyenne river, which was recently washed out, is now in good condition and asking that the garage men and auto owners of Alliance be so informed, in order that all who desire can attend the celebration there on June 3, 4 and 5.

Postoffice Will Close

Next Monday, which is designated as the legal holiday by Uncle Sam, there will be but one mail delivery, which will be in the morning at the regular time. The general delivery will open from 10 till 11 a. m. The mails will be made up the same as on Sunday.

Bilious Attacks

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.
