Below is a style announcement from the October Ladies' Home Journal and the current issue of Vogue.

In this city, ours is
The Store That Sells
Wooltex

Here's what Paris says about your new fall suit

Slightly fitted jacket, flare skirt, high rolling collar, novel belt and pocket effects and precise attention to the outline of the garment—that's the commandment on suit styles from Paris for this season.

See how this Wooltex Winingham suit follows the mode in its exquisite and classic simplicity. Remember that it is only one of six in the Winingham group, and but one of many others in the new offerings of Wooltex tailored coats, suits and skirts.

If you are looking for a way to make your clothes money go further—to make it buy style that is correct and refined, and material and workmanship that are equal to those of the custom tailors—you will find it both pleasant and profitable to choose from the many attractive models that carry the Wooltex label.

Wooltex coats are priced at $16.50 to $55.00; suits at $25.00 to $75.00; skirts at $5.00 to $15.00. To get the full benefit of the new styles, you should see them now, in your city, at

Events in the Social Realm

The members and friends of the Elks Club enjoyed a pleasant evening at the Elks rooms last Thursday evening. The music furnished for the occasion was of the very best and a large number of couples heartily joined in the efforts to make the hours pleasant ones. Punch was served the merry-makers and the participants kept time to music in graceful strides and steps until the wee hours of the morning. It is hoped that there will be many more such enjoyable evenings, and the guests report the hosts on this occasion especially entertaining.

Mrs. Claudia Dole will act as hostess for the Woman's Club Friday afternoon of this week, at her home on 211 W. 7th street. A very interesting program will be carried out, this to include roll call of members, response to the current events; report from the state federation meeting recently held; a book review by Miss Wilson, and music. Another pleasant and profitable afternoon is anticipated by the ladies.

The ladies of the Baptist church who so royally entertained the public at a chicken pie supper Tuesday evening fared well from a financial standpoint as well as making an enjoyable place for the participants to meet and greet their neighbors. The bounteous supper more than repaid everyone for attending and it is hoped that there will be other similar events in the near future.

Miss Mary O'Keefe was hostess to a company of friends at a very pleasant dinner party last Thursday evening, at 6 o'clock. The event was one among the many other social times which some ladies of the town enjoyed, when gathering together to visit with their old friend Mrs. Cunningham. The hours on this occasion, spent in a very informal way, were delightful, and the dinner served proved to be of the best and was thoroughly enjoyed by all in attendance.

Mrs. W. D. Rumer very pleasantly entertained at her home Friday afternoon of last week, a company of ladies in honor of Mrs. Walter Adams, and Mrs. Agnes Cunningham, the latter being here visiting old acquaintances of twenty-three years ago, and renewing the old friendships. It is easily guessed that no time was lost in exchanging memories of the olden days and after a most social afternoon the guests were served with a very elaborate dinner at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Rumer was assisted in serving by Miss Virginia Broome, and the former's daughter Mrs. Hively. The guests report the hostess and her helpers royal entertainers, and the enjoyable time spent will not soon be forgotten.

Mrs. John O'Keefe invited a company of ladies to go with her to the theatre Friday evening, and among her guests was her friend Mrs. Cunningham. After a pleasant time at the show, the hostess escorted her guests to her home and there served them with a delicious luncheon, which all duly participated in and enjoyed.

The Daughters of Isabella were entertained at their rooms in the basement of the Holy Rosary church last Thursday afternoon. The hours were spent in a very social manner, and the lunch served at the proper time added to the pleasant meeting. Mesdames Nolan, Gleran, Burns and Phelan were the hostesses, and a very enjoyable time is reported by all those in attendance.

Mrs. C. A. Newberry very delightfully entertained a company of lady friends in compliment to Mrs. Cunningham, on Saturday afternoon of last week. A very social time was had, and the dinner served at 6 o'clock more than satisfied the appetites of all the guests, and all voted Mrs. Newberry an ideal hostess.

The members of the Eastern Star chapter met in their rooms Tuesday evening of this week and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Regular business was dispensed with and two candidates were initiated into the order. There was a large attendance and everyone had a delightful time.

Mrs. J. N. Andrews entertained in honor of Mrs. Walter Adams, of Milwaukee, one afternoon last week and the party of ladies enjoyed a very pleasant time. Refreshments added to the enjoyment of the occasion, and the company in attendance surely appreciated the social time so afforded.

The party held at the home of Mrs. James Hunter at 724 Box Butte avenue, Tuesday evening, was one which carried with it much pleasure to the invited guests, who were the lady teachers in the city schools, and the supply teachers. Twenty-seven invitations were issued for the event, and everyone who attended truly enjoyed every minute of the evening hours. The rooms were prettily decorated in the Hallowe'en designs and there was great merriment for the guests heartily entered into the pleasurable stunts which they were supposed to indulge in. After the guests had arrived and were seated, the important personage who is always in attendance at such occasions—the witch with her suit of black set off with a bright red shawl and carrying her broom—appeared and immediately took up her abode in the booth prepared for her and then everyone had the extreme pleasure of having their future foretold in the most graphic terms possible, and we are sure that the services of the person employed were appreciated. During this form of entertainment and fitting in with the program was the arrival of an Italian dressed in the glowing colors so dear to the heart of this nationality, carrying an accordion, and accompanied by a monkey. The usual tin cup was presented for alms, and this all added to the pleasant features of the event. After other pleasing games, the guests were seated to a four-course luncheon, to which all did able justice. The hostess, who so royally entertained these deserving people, was assisted in serving by the Misses Kibble, Fink and Smith.

The members of Chapter A. H. P. E. O., were entertained Monday at the home of Mrs. W. M. Weidenhammer. The program was one of music which was furnished by an Edison phonograph, under the direction of Mr. Geo. Darling, who had been invited to the home with some of the new and latest records, for the purpose of entertaining the company. Responses to the roll call were given by quotations from Emerson, and the leader for the afternoon was Mrs. Tillett. At the close of the very pleasant afternoon hours the guests were served to a four-course luncheon which was delicious, and reports grant the time spent profitable in every respect.

Mrs. B. J. Sallows entertained the 1914 club at her home Monday afternoon of this week. A very social time was enjoyed in addition to the needlecraft and other work indulged in by the ladies. A delicious luncheon was served and the participants report Mrs. Sallows a charming hostess.

What promises to be one of the most entertaining and profitable events in a musical way will take place at the Christian church, Saturday evening of this week, October 23, when the Royal Welsh Singers will appear. The program, which is given below, is one which will include a diversity of numbers proving itself adapted to all music lovers. Part one will consist of a chorus—"Song of the Jolly Roger"—Candish, Ensemble; bass solo—(a) "Melisande in the Wood"—Goetz, (b) "Little Grey Home in the West"—Lohr, by Geo. B. Lane; chorus—"Medley from the South"—Pike, Ensemble; tenor solo—"Dear Love, Remember Me"—Marshall, Ben Davies; piano number—"15th Rhapsody"—Liszt, Arthur S. Smith; chorus—"Polka Serenade"—Schoeffer, Ensemble. Following an intermission at this point, part two will be as follows: Chorus—"Sextette from Lucia"—Donizetti, Ensemble; duet—"Love and War"—Cooke, B. Davies and Geo. Lane; part song—"Sleep Kentucky Babe"—Geibel, Ensemble; tenor solo—"Mountain Lovers"—Squire, J. Preston Smith; The "Lusitania Disaster"—Risca Williams; vocal waltz—"Blue Danube"—Strauss, Ensemble; (a) Welsh National Anthem (Hen Slad Fy Nhadau), (b) American National Anthem—"The Star Spangled Banner"—Ensemble.

The Methodist ladies' aid met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Bennett Wednesday afternoon of this week and altho the session was a regular one, the large number who attended enjoyed the afternoon hours spent in a social way, after the business had been attended to.

The ladies of the Episcopal guild gathered at the parish house Wednesday afternoon and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon with their fancy work, and other interesting entertainment. Mesdames Johnson and Reid were hostesses to the company and the delicate refreshments served by the ladies were fully appreciated.

On Friday evening of this week, at the parish house of St. Matthews church, will occur a very enjoyable event, when members and friends of the congregation will unite in giving Dean and Mrs. Shaw and family a welcome to the Alliance Deanery and the community. We are sure from the arrangements being made that the social good time will be fully entered into and everyone should be there to express a warm hearted welcome to the strangers.

An interesting missionary program is being prepared for next Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. C. B. Gibson. The ladies of the M. E. Aid society are planning it for 3 o'clock, and all will be eager to attend and be instructed in this line of thought.

The Elks club are planning a hard-time harvest social and dance for Friday evening, the 29th, and a pleasant time is looked forward to. The event is to take the form suggestive of Hallowe'en, and besides an elaborate supper, which is being planned for that occasion, an orchestra from Denver will be present to furnish high-class music, and the members of the club, with their friends, are anticipating a delightful time.
