

Exchange Gossip

Marsland Tribune—Ed Austin of Alliance spent Sunday at home. * * * Orville Hunsaker of Alliance was in town Friday. * * * Ed. Ollrok again broke his car last Monday and went to Alliance Tuesday for repairs. * * * W. H. White and W. J. Kaupp are the extra crew on the helper. They came up Tuesday from Alliance. * * * Owen Kelly of Alliance came up Saturday and took Mr. Ellis' place as freeman on the helper. He returned to Alliance Tuesday. * * * Mr. Ellis and family left Saturday on 44 for Alliance. From there they intend to go to Tennessee for an extended visit.

Ashby Argus—Mrs. J. C. Noah was called to Alliance Tuesday by the death of her niece, Grace Parks, the little nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parks of that city. The little one passed away Monday evening following an operation for appendicitis.

Bridgeport News-Blade—Tom Spencer of Alliance was in the city Tuesday looking after business interests. * * * P. V. Gleason, manager of the telephone company at Alliance, was in the city the first of the week looking after company matters. * * * Receiver Morrow of the Alliance land office was in the city Tuesday returning from Scottsbluff, where he had been taking a short vacation. * * * Mrs. Dwyne, manager of the Downs cafe, who has been ill for some weeks past, was taken to the hospital at Alliance Tuesday morning. Her friends are earnestly hoping that her health may readily improve and that she may soon return to Bridgeport in the best of spirits. * * * H. C. Strohm, traveling passenger agent for the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, was in the city yesterday accompanying H. P. Kauffman, traveling passenger agent for the C. B. & Q. railroad, on a business trip in regard to company matters. Mr. Kauffman stated that no definite arrangement had yet been made in regard to the schedule of the new passenger trains which would be run on the Guernsey line after the first of December. Trains will be run through the tunnel near Guernsey after this date but no arrangement has yet been made for passenger service from that point down the river.

Hemingford Ledger—Mrs. W. E. McClung was an Alliance passenger on the Sunday train, going down to spend a few hours with her husband. * * * Rev. Normal G. Palmer left for Omaha Sunday night, going as a delegate to the Grand Lodge from the I. O. O. F. chapter at this place. * * * Miss Hettie Partridge, who has been visiting relatives here for the past two or three weeks, returned to her home at Frances town, N. H., Tuesday. Per Cousin, Mrs. Geo. F. Baker, accompanied her as far as Alliance.

Zehevillie Standard—Dell Britt of DeBoa, Pawnee county, and his sister, Mrs. C. E. Clinton of Alliance, came over to Rushville Saturday evening and are visiting their brother, J. H. Britt, and family, who live on the Cummins place. * * * A. M. Modisett and J. W. Grubb made an auto trip over to Alliance last Friday. Saturday they started on their return trip home and when twenty miles south of Hay Springs the darn little Ford went wrong. Failing to coax it into a running humor, they made their way to a ranch house and phoned to Rushville for Jess Veach to come and get them. They managed to get as far as W. F. Strotheide's place when the car was abandoned, and they all came on in the Dodge.

Hyannis Tribune—Misses Beesle and Hazel Meeker, who, with their father, arrived about two weeks ago from Muskegon, Mich., left on 43 yesterday for their new home in Alliance, after visiting their sister, Mrs. Gillard. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Preston went to Alliance last Friday where Mrs. Preston suffered a surgical operation, at the hospital, Saturday. Her mother, Mrs. M. L. Rock, went to Alliance, Tuesday, to see her, returning home yesterday and reporting her as getting along nicely.

Crawford Tribune—Mrs. Walter Miller and baby, of Horn, left Tuesday for Alliance for a visit with her parents. * * * The lot sale at Alliance under the management of Mayor Hungerford of this city on Tuesday was a grand success. All the property advertised was sold at satisfactory prices, and in addition there were other properties disposed of.

Crawford Courier—The editor had desired to attend the big sale of Fairview addition lots and big time at Alliance Wednesday, but Foreman Elswick had to consult an ear specialist there on that date, his appointment took precedence, and we were unable to go. However, our booster spirit was there blood warm. * * * We learn that at the big sale of the Fairview addition at Alliance Wednesday every lot was sold and everything passed off in the most satisfactory manner. In fact so greedy were buyers that lots in other additions were desired and sold. Moral: If you want something done speedily, wisely and well, come to Crawford and get one of the biggest land boosters in the West to get hold of the lead string, and we do not need to individualize who, either.

Ashby Argus—Attorney F. T. Nichols was a business visitor in Alliance between trains Tuesday. He was also looking after legal matters in Scottsbluff, Mitchell and Gerins Wednesday.

TEN YEARS AGO

Herald of October 20, 1905

After two and a half years' negotiation after repeatedly advertising for and rejecting proposals, on Monday, October 23, the contract was signed between the Alliance National Bank and the Postoffice department whereby the bank agrees to erect a two-story brick building, 25x90 feet, on the unoccupied part of its lot facing north on Wyoming avenue which will in reality be an extension to the present bank building. The expenditure by the bank will amount to upwards of $10,000.

Mr. Bert Van Nice, the popular clerk in McCluer's store, was married at Hastings to Miss Minnie C. Kohlby.

Monday evening occurred the marriage of Mr. Charles Brown and Miss Eliza Serena Bell, Rev. J. M. McConnell, of the United Presbyterian church, officiating.

Herman T. Lund was united in marriage to Miss Laura May Curry in the Fairview neighborhood last Monday.

The sudden cold snap, which occurred during the latter part of last week, played havoc with the potato crop in a great many localities. It is estimated that at least a third of the crop was destroyed by frost.

The eighteenth anniversary sale of W. W. Norton which closed last evening was one of the most successful ever held in the history of Mr. Norton's business career.

Dr. F. M. Knight left Tuesday morning for Chicago to represent the Business Men's Club at the National Interstate Law convention. Railway rates is the principal subject for discussion.

No one can know everything, of course, but the very young doctor is unremitting in his efforts to make us think he does.
