Events in the Social Realm

On Monday afternoon, at Wood's hall, after the regular physical culture class, the members of that class and of two musical organizations enjoyed a Halloween party at which the Misses Burnett and Gifford were hostesses for the young folks. Each one was requested to bring a guest, and the company numbered about forty-five. Games were played such as "Button, button, who's got the button," "London bridge is falling down," "tug of war"; after which the children were seated in a circle to partake of light refreshments. The large delicious doughnuts, big round pop corn balls, wrapped in Halloween napkins, and bright rosy apples were among the "goodies" which the young folks truly enjoyed. Then while the party were eating, two "ghosts" were escorted into the darkened hall by the light of two jack-o-lanterns, and they proved to be friendly as they shook hands with each guest. The ghost story told about this time and in the weird tones served as a feature of amusement for the children and another ghost announced that they would appear again on Halloween but not for the purpose of harming any "good child." The effort extended by the two ladies most interested in delighting the hearts of the young were surely appreciated as was told by the happy faces of their young friends.

Very pretty were the decorations at the parish house last Friday, which the ladies of St. Matthews church had arranged in order that the spacious room might put on a gala appearance in the evening. The members of the church and friends gathered in a merry company to show their welcome for Dean and Mrs. Shaw, and family, and everyone enjoyed a very pleasant time. The autumn colors and leaves were used in profusion and "fruits of the harvest" also added their beauty to the scene. The reception committee, which consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Holsten, Mr. and Mrs. Gavin, and Mrs. Bennett, were ideal entertainers and the honored ones surely felt, if never before, that truly they were among friends. Refreshments consisting of coffee and sandwiches, punch and wafers were served, and music furnished by a Victrola added gaiety to the occasion along with dancing, which took up the latter part of the evening. It is certain that the members and friends of the congregation are endeavoring to help the "new-comers" feel at home.

The apron sale and public supper which the ladies of the Presbyterian church directed and served on last Thursday evening in the church basement was a grand success. The delicious eatables from the start to finish were more than one could wish for, and at the small sum asked, the ladies certainly proved themselves masters in the culinary line, and such value for the money has never been heard of before. Participants report a fine feed and hope that another one will be soon coming.

George Darling and assistants went to quite a little extra labor Saturday when they prepared to entertain on that evening. They cleared a large space in their store and made the floor such as would delight the company of young folks who gathered in the evening to enjoy a delightful time dancing to the music of a diamond disc Edison. Punch and wafers were served and the party proved a pleasant one to all. The music rendered proved that it would not be a bad investment for every home, as it was of high quality and entertaining.

The Royal Welsh Male Quartette were enthusiastically received at the Christian church on Saturday evening. The music and rendition was all that was anticipated, and all of the five in the company proved themselves persons of talent and willing to give of their best. From the first number, Ensemble chorus, through to the last number, the program including vocal solos, piano solo, duets, choruses and a description of the "Lusitania Disaster", was one of enjoyment, instruction and interest and showed the singers to be those of rare merit. The audience could have been larger, but we are sure if the gentlemen ever return to this city they will be made heartily welcome. Parents of children wishing to join this helpful club will endeavor to have them there promptly. Let the interested teachers of music see that you are standing back of them in pushing every effort.

This evening there will be held a music recital at the Haddorf Music House at 8 o'clock, under the direction of the School of Music. The pupils who are studying music will be on the program, and the parents should and will be present to encourage them by their interest and presence.

There is a jolly good time anticipated by the members of the Elks club and their invited guests tomorrow, Friday, evening. It is given out that the ladies will not be excused from attending in hardtime costume, and everyone who does not go with the appearance of being "tacky" will be fined for such disobedience of rules. By the arrangements which have been made, we are sure that the evening will be one full of enjoyment and pleasure.

Mr. Cook of Lakeside entertained at a sumptuous chicken dinner at 6 o'clock Sunday evening. Most of the party were from Alliance, and went over by auto to the home of their host. The party included the Misses Bennett, Dowd, Davenport, Morris and Osborne, and Messrs. Drews, Carmine, Newberry, Abbe. The guests report a delightful time, and ride, and that Mr. Cook was very proficient in his role of host to the company.

The regular dance held at the opera house on Saturday evening last, under the supervision of Mrs. Wiker, was much enjoyed by those in attendance. The music was of the best, and everyone seemed to thoroughly appreciate the good time provided.

On next Monday evening there will be held at the parish house a social good time and dancing will be also enjoyed. The members of St. Matthews church and the friends are invited to attend, and a delightful evening is anticipated and assured. The ladies of the congregation are planning to serve light refreshments, and as heretofore, the hours will be pleasantly spent.

The members of each class in the high school are planning for a frolic on Friday night of this week, which will take the form of a Halloween festival, and the faculty are included in the company. Committees from each class are pushing the entertainment, and other things pertaining to the event, and we are sure that these young people will be in full dress to entertain any "ghosts" who might put in an appearance. A fuller description will be given in our next issue, but let every one permissible enter into the jollities of the occasion.

Mrs. Wm. Mitchell and Mrs. Harry Gantz have issued invitations to a 1 o'clock luncheon for this afternoon, to be given at their home, 814 Laramie. The decorations are to be suggestive of Halloween and the appointments daintily arranged. The hostesses will be assisted by the Misses Doris Young, Margaret Shaw, Mrs. W. T. Schlupp and Mrs. J. O. Kerns. Bridge and kinsington will be indulged in. The list of guests include Mesdames W. W. Norton, Ward Norton, D. W. Butler, Reuben Knight, J. A. Hunter, Claude Vaughan, Marcus Frankie, A. V. Gavin, Bruce Wilcox, Fred Helpringer, Nellie Wilson, C. E. Hershman, Roy Beckwith, M. E. Grebe, C. A. Newberry, Wm. Bignell, Robt. Reddish, Wm. Barnett, Wm. Eubanks, Fred Holsten, Arthur Nelson, Carson Shaw, J. C. Morrow, Oje Westover, Jack Boyer, and Mrs. Culver of Denver, Colo.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood are to be entertained at the home of Mrs. C. E. Marks next Monday afternoon and a pleasant afternoon is anticipated. The regular business will be dispensed with and the remaining time given over to a social time. During the afternoon the hostess will serve a delicious repast, and all members should be present to enjoy the hour. The main number on the afternoon's program will be a "Constitutional Quiz" to be conducted by Mrs. Harriet Vance. Mrs. Tully, an active member of the Alliance P. E. O. who is now in Los Angeles, was a delegate from Nebraska to the Supreme Grand Chapter held in that city October 13. The ladies of the sisterhood in Alliance are planning on entertaining the Nebraska P. E. O. next June, and this means a big boost for Alliance, as this is the first gathering of its kind held in western Nebraska, and members will come from all over the state to attend this state meeting. The citizens of Alliance should heartily co-operate in entertaining this company, or assist in any way possible.

Mrs. H. P. Toohy has issued invitations to a luncheon at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Bridge and kinsington will occupy the afternoon hours.

Dr. and Mrs. Jeffery entertained Rev. and Mrs. McIntyre at dinner on Monday evening, at the Drake. The evening proved to be a very enjoyable one.

The Rebekahs are planning a Halloween social for Friday night and arranging a good supper and "good time" for all. Surely the "weird spirits" and plenty of gatherings to attend and undoubtedly they will make themselves seen as well as heard.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pearson are planning to entertain the Christian Endeavorers of the Presbyterian church next Monday night. The event will be a Halloween social and a delightful time is assured.

The Y. M. B. C.'s will hold their regular meeting in the room in the basement of the M. E. church this evening. Beside the study hour, there will be a business meeting and some time devoted to a social time. Undoubtedly the hours will be profitably spent.

The Baptist Ladies' Society met with Mrs. J. S. Corps on yesterday afternoon and a very profitable program was carried out. The topic was "Home Missions", the talk being on American situation and also Alliance in particular, the leader of the subject being Mrs. A. H. Robbins. The remaining time of the afternoon was spent in a social manner, and the hostess to the company served a very delicious and elaborate lunch, which was a very pleasant feature of the meeting.

Mrs. C. B. Gibson entertained the ladies of the Methodist Aid on Wednesday afternoon of this week and report grant the time pleasantly spent. The topic for the afternoon's meeting was "Home Missions", and dealt with the country wherever the American flag floats. We are sure that the subject was an interesting and instructive one and Mrs. A. P. Brown proved herself a capable leader of the discussion. A social time was also spent and a fine "get-together" spirit was manifested.

A goodly number of ladies are enjoying pleasant times while attending Miss Gifford's physical culture classes which are held on Monday and Thursday evenings. There is room and an opportunity for more to enter and we are sure that everyone will receive a welcome and a great deal of pleasure.

An event that promises to be interesting and entertaining to many Alliance people is the appearance of David V. Bush at the Methodist church next Monday evening, November 1st. Judging from reports of the people and the press where he has appeared, Mr. Bush is one of the best of his kind on the platform. Included in his evening program will be the impersonated lecture, "Pike's Peak or Bust." The entertainment will be in charge of the Epworth League.

A junior musical club is to be organized at the School of Music at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. This will be free for the young folks who are now taking physical culture, and there will be but a small charge for outside pupils.

Prof. Condra Here
Prof. Condra, of the state university, is in Alliance this morning enroute to Crawford to attend to some research business. He has been in this section for some time observing sugar beet conditions, and said this section is blessed with an abundant crop, and that the quality of the product is excellent. In addition to the researches and observations, Prof. Condra, with a corps of assistants, is taking moving pictures of different scenes of interest over this part of the state. While here he is the guest of F. M. Broome and other friends.
