Too Many Snakes

No, this is not a snake story, for real, live snakes are mighty scarce in this country just now. But there are some imaginary snakes, and Johnny Boyle caught a lot of them the other day and put them in his head. Mixed with the snakes were a few alligators, eels, craw-dads and other "animals". Johnny finally saw so many of them last week that he was put in the city bastille until the effects of his "fights of fancy" could wear off. Sunday most of the snakes had crawled into their holes and he was released, under the condition that he would abstain from the use of snake medicine for a few days.

It seems strange that the distillers have not yet begun to weep over the awful increase in the sales of vodka in Russia under prohibition.
