 "MODERN CLOTHES FOR MEN"
 308 BOX BUTTE AVE.

ALLIANCE, NEBR., Jan. 6th, 1916.

Dear Friends:-

I find that I still have in stock 6 Sheep lined Moleskin COATS full 36 inches long. Now these coats are good big sizes from 46 to 50, and are worth $8.50, and I do not want to carry them over, and offer them this week to anybody for the price of $6.00 each. Now this is a bargain.

I hope that you will watch this space again next Thursday, for I will have another bargain offer to make.

Yours very truly,

E. G. Laing

D. Hobbs and Mr. Rapp for carpenter work, to the Young Men's Bible Club for the use of their piano and other furniture, and to all who have helped get a mission thus far along in our city. It has been no small undertaking, but the ladies have been courageous and have worked willingly, feeling this is a much needed institution in our midst and that the good people of Alliance will stand behind them in their noble work.

Mrs. Sharp has freely given of her time and borne her own personal expense, as well as frequently using her private funds, for the welfare of our city and is deserving of the gratitude of the general public.

SEVEN STATES DRY

Seven States Closed Out Saloons and Breweries at Midnight Last Friday Night

Seven states were added to the dry list at midnight last Friday night. This makes a total of nineteen dry states in the United States. The new ones added to the list are as follows:

Colorado. In Colorado 1,615 saloons and twelve breweries were put out of business.

Washington. The statewide prohibition law, adopted at the election in November, 1914, went into effect. The law closed 2,612 saloons and hotel bars throughout the state, and many breweries.

Iowa. The remaining 483 saloons and sixteen breweries in the state closed because of the repeal of the Muley law by the state legislature a year ago. Breweries capitalized at $4,236,963 went out of business.

Oregon. 1,844 saloons were closed. The manufacture or sale of any kind of intoxicating liquor is absolutely prohibited. Drug stores are not permitted to sell liquor for any purpose.

Arkansas. 136 saloons went out of business under the most stringent prohibition law in the United States. This law provides one year in the penitentiary for violation.

Idaho. 200 saloons were closed under the new prohibition law. It makes the possession of any kind of malt or spirituous liquor a crime.

South Carolina. The dispensary system was put out of business. Under this system fifteen out of forty-four counties operated liquor dispensaries. Private individuals may now obtain a shipment of one gallon of liquor per month.

The Golden Rule store has inaugurated a bargain giving January Clearance Sale, announcement of which will be found in The Herald this issue. Mr. Barnett, the proprietor, is offering unusual bargains during the sale, as will be noted in the advertisement.
