Drake and Barb, who recently purchased the Buick garage from C. T. Pigman and who are establishing a Maxwell agency here, sold a 1916 model Maxwell car, fully equipped, Tuesday to John Pahlow, of near Alliance.

Alliance friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Beeson, formerly of Alliance and now living at Norfolk, were pleased the first of the week to learn of the arrival on January 23 of Thomas Hicks Beeson, Jr., weighing nine and one-half pounds.

Elmer Sly, a resident of Alliance several years ago but who has been living in Iowa for the past two years, arrived in Alliance the latter part of last week. He expects Mrs. Sly and son later and they will make their home in Alliance.

J. N. Johnston, local secretary, announces that a United States civil service examination will be held in Alliance February 24 to fill vacancies in the position of stenographer and typewriter, field service. Full information can be secured from Mr. Johnston.

Emil Webber, former well known citizen of Wayne, arrived here Tuesday from Alliance, Nebr., where he recently sold his variety store. He will spend some time with his brothers, W. H. and W. R. Weber, at this place while looking for a new location.—Wayne, Nebr., Herald.

W. L. Maulsby, traveler for the harness department of the Newberry Hardware Company, suffered a short attack of appendicitis the last of the week. He recovered quickly and is out on his trip this week. Mrs. Maulsby, who was taken seriously ill in Denver some time ago, is now better and able to be out.

HAY FOR SALE

Jim Morrison of Superior, Nebr., who purchased some Box Butte county land near Berea several years ago, will move here in February with his family. He has purchased a farm tractor and will commence farming the land, which was purchased through the Nebraska Land Company, on a large scale.

Clyde Shieler, who has been employed at Mounts' barber shop for nearly two years, resigned his position Saturday night and left Sunday night for his home at Raymond, Kansas. Clyde has been in poor health for some time and will take a rest in the hope of benefitting himself. He has many friends here who regret to see him leave and who hope to see him back again.

In a recent letter received by The Herald from Mrs. Amy L. Brown, who now resides at Ceres, Calif., but formerly was a well-known resident of Alliance, she states that the grass is very green and the flowers blooming on the lawns. Also, that the weather is spring-like, and gardens are being planted for green vegetables in March and April. This climate would be especially agreeable to some who are suffering from the cold spell that penetrates our section of the country. We are glad to hear that Mrs. Brown is enjoying good health and a warm locality.

A tax of 2 per cent or more on interstate mail order houses, as proposed by a congressional measure that has been indorsed this week in Denver by more than one local and national organization is just and without constitutional quibble. These houses pay practically no state or municipal taxes in any but one place out of the many in which they do business. They depend upon the federal government now to do much of their business for them and every year the public is called on to meet the postal deficiencies. They are in reality interstate peddlers. In a city a peddler is made to pay a comparatively high license to make up for the rents and taxes which he escapes. The interstate peddlers by mail should be taxed on the amount of their business and this can be done only by federal authority.—Denver News.

LEARN SCIENTIFIC FARMING

More money is wasted by not knowing HOW to farm than is lost by the ravages of fires and floods. EXPERIENCE is a GOOD TEACHER, but he charges a mighty stiff tuition fee.

If you are farming or thinking of farming, why not learn the farming game as you would any other business game? If you have not the time or think you are too old to spend two or three years in an agricultural college, take a course in the Campbell Correspondence School of Soil Culture and learn the principles and practices of SCIENTIFIC FARMING. You don't have to leave home—just use your SPARE TIME that otherwise would be frittered away.

The West is full of opportunities for the man who knows the farming game from a scientific standpoint.

You know all about BURBANK, and you have heard of CAMPBELL, the great soil wizard. You can learn what he has learned and in much less time.

Send for our CATALOG NUMBER FOUR and a copy of CAMPBELL'S SCIENTIFIC FARMER. If you are looking for AGRICULTURAL INFORMATION you will find what you want.

You May Own a Bible

A. A. Layton, district missionary for the American Baptist Publication Society for western Nebraska, who is making his headquarters here for the winter, is prepared to furnish a great variety of Bibles and other books at best prices, and will furnish Bibles and Testaments free to those who are unable to pay for them. He receives no commission on any book or Bible sold by him, his work being purely missionary. You can address him at 822 Cheyenne Ave., Alliance, or call phone 472.

Helped the Boys Out

The Alliance high school second basket ball team wanted to go to Sidney for the game tonight with the first team, but were short of funds for the expenses of the trip. Wednesday morning E. G. Laing and W. O. Barnes, two good-hearted citizens, learned of this and started a contribution between themselves to make up the deficit. It took only a few minutes for them to raise all that was necessary and the boys went to the game this afternoon.

Candidate for County Clerk

Robert A. Ball, a prominent farmer of Lawn precinct, has filed for the republican nomination for county clerk. Mr. Ball has been a resident of the county for a number of years and has a wide acquaintance. He will undoubtedly make the other candidates hustle some. This makes five now in the race, the other four being George Snyder, George Fleming, John Manion and W. C. Mounts.

Events in the Social Realm

Mrs. Robert Campbell entertained the Baptist Ladies' Aid Society yesterday afternoon, and the hours were enjoyed with the usual business and Kensington, with a "spicing" of social converse.

A masquerade dance was enjoyed by several couples in the Reddish hall last Thursday evening. Music was furnished by Mrs. Nation, and an enjoyable evening reported by all in attendance.

Mrs. W. E. Rousey was hostess yesterday afternoon to the members of the auxiliary of the Presbyterian church. After the pleasant hours lunch was served to which all of the ladies did justice.

Mrs. G. J. Deltlein entertained in compliment to her mother, Mrs. S. C. Reck, last Thursday afternoon. Kensington was enjoyed and at the close of the afternoon hours the hostess served a delicious luncheon. Beside the hostess, the following guests were in attendance: Mesdames M. M. and A. R. Reynolds, Fred Hill, A. B. Sturgeon, J. B. Irwin, M. E. Coleman, Jack Boyer, S. H. Cole, L. F. Smith and W. A. Wills.

The formal party and dance given by the members of the Elks, in their rooms last Thursday evening, was a success, judging from the many approving comments. The music furnished for the occasion was of the right sort to accompany the "merry gliders", and the tasteful and beautiful gowned ladies gave an added touch to the whole event. The gentlemen were splendid in dress suits, and all entered heartily into the gaiety of the evening.

About the first Leap Year affair which has come to our notice is that given last Thursday evening by a group of the young ladies of our city. They entertained at the Imperial in the early hours, and afterwards partook of a repast at the home of Miss Jeannette Haney. Beside the hostess at supper were the Misses Neva Howe, Clara Osborne, Thelma Fitzpatrick, Dolly Hagaman, and Messrs. Vernon Hamilton, Chester Beck, Lester Harvey, Otto Snyder and William Zollinger.

The members of the G. I. A. Kensington were entertained at the pleasant home of Mrs. J. L. Nicolai Thursday afternoon of last week, and the hours were much enjoyed by all present. The list of guests included are: Mesdames Guy Miller, A. J. Cole, Fred Allen, C. R. Witham, G. F. Wilson, C. O. Davenport, A. E. Nelson, C. R. Gibson, W. A. Bennett, John Edwards, H. A. Hamilton, H. E. Gordon, W. H. White, A. H. Robbins and L. E. Mark. After the Kensington, the hostess served a delicious luncheon.

The girls of the Baptist church have a very fine organized club and they have laid arrangements for entertaining their parents at the church tonight, one part of the program being the serving of a delicious lunch. Undoubtedly all will enjoy the unusual happening of having the younger folks hostess to their parents.

The ladies of the Episcopical Guild were entertained at the parish house yesterday afternoon, the hostess being Mrs. D. W. Butler. The "thimble party" was much enjoyed by a large attendance of the members and the lunch was delicious and tastefully served.

The Boys' Club of the Baptist church entertained the Girls' Club of the same church last Friday evening, at the Emerson building. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and jollity and the luncheon proved of the best kind and heartily appreciated by the young ladies.

The P. E. O. ladies were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. E. Cotant Monday afternoon of this week. The leader for the afternoon was Mrs. J. N. Andrews, and the subject discussed "The Madonnas". A delicate repast was served at the close of the pleasant hours.

The ladies of the Christian church enjoyed an afternoon at the church parlors, yesterday, and the hostesses of the occasion were Mrs. C. R. Witham, Mrs. M. M. Reynolds, Mrs. A. B. Reynolds, Mrs. Roy Gregg and Mrs. H. B. Alter. The elaborate banquet was a pleasing feature of the program for the afternoon, which also included Kensington.

The Woman's Club expected to follow out arrangements and be entertained at the Imperial Friday afternoon of this week, but owing to the fact that the recent improvements to the theatre are not yet completed, it has been decided to postpone the attraction until another early date. The study is to be one of art, including some of the world's famous pictures.

Mrs. Martha Patmore was hostess last Sunday to a number of her friends, presiding at an "old fashioned turkey dinner with all the trimmings", at the noon-tide hour. The affair was partly in commemoration of McKinley's birthday anniversary, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all the guests. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Tash, Mrs. M. J. Kelley, Mrs. Martha Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. William Davidson, and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Phelps.

Mrs. Charles Mosher, of Hemingford, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dow in this city this week.
