A FIREMEN'S SMOKER

Alliance Volunteer Fire Department Planning on Entertainment for Members and Business Men

At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Alliance Volunteer Fire Department, held Wednesday evening, it was decided to hold a smoker and wrestling and boxing tournament at the department club rooms Friday evening, May 12, which will be attended by members and business men.

New officers of the department installed for the coming year were: F. D. McCormick, president; P. T. Rolfsen, secretary; George Hellman, chaplain; Leonard Pilkington, chief; Lloyd Thomas, assistant chief; George Keiser, trustee; Vivian Hall, conductor; Charles Weaver, inside guard; George Waldron, outside guard; R. C. Gladson, treasurer.

The department voted to purchase a new boiler for heating the plunge, and the committee was instructed to do so at once, in order that the plunge may be ready for opening for the T. P. A. convention, April 28 and 29.
