

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

ing anything belonging to members of the N. S. G. A. He might steal a steer belonging to a member and get away with it by skinning it and burning the hide, but he can't ship it to an open market without getting caught.

Other Reasons for

Joining Association

There are other splendid reasons why all Nebraska ranchmen and others interested in the live stock industry in this state should join the association, all of which cannot be mentioned in one issue of the paper. Brand inspection is a matter of great importance to all who are in danger at any time of losing their cattle by being stolen or straying. Some of the good work of the association benefits stockmen who are not members as well as those who are, by making it dangerous for cattle thieves to try to operate in this state, but no one has a right to expect the benefit of brand inspection provided and paid for by the association unless he is a member.

Many other benefits of membership in the N. S. G. A. might be enumerated, but they can all be included, in a general way, in the good that comes to any line of industry or business when those engaged in it are in touch with each other. They are ready then to act conjunctively on short notice when occasion requires, which would be practically impossible without organization.

We refer our readers to another article in this issue under the head, "Necessity of Union Among Stockmen."

PRIDE OF THE SAND HILLS

Our frontispiece this month is a view on the ranch of Huffman Bros., well known stockmen of McPherson county. We have been claiming that the best stocker and feeder stuff on earth, or as good as the best, is found in the ranch country of western Nebraska. The picture tells the same story, and the prices paid at the live stock markets prove it.

He is preaching two or three times daily to thousands of people who crowd the big tabernacle on the same ground where he used to play league base ball.

All the news about it; his sermons in full, pictures and descriptions will appear in
