Henderson Corsets

We have an unusually complete and comprehensive showing of this season's styles in Henderson corsets. These designs prominently display all of the newest and most clever features known to the corset makers' art. Henderson corsets merit the consideration and approval of the best dressed women everywhere, as they are a distinct revelation in style and beauty; nor has comfort been sacrificed to attain such gratifying results. Figure effectiveness is assured and a style personality becomes a part of the wearer. This season's new designs have the medium and medium high bust, the waist line follows more closely the natural lines of the figure, the bust is somewhat higher and the skirt is just a trifle shorter than many of the models. Any figure is made fashionably eloquent when properly corseted with a Henderson corset. We extend you a most cordial invitation to call and inspect the season's new offerings.
