Events in the Social Realm

Miss Marie Buechsenstein gave a miscellaneous shower in compliment to Miss Lucille O'Brien last evening.

Miss Young Gives Pupils' Recital.
On Monday evening of this week, Miss Alta Young presented her pupils in recital at her studio on Emerson avenue. Some of the friends were invited and the evening was one of rare musical treat.

Students' Recital.
On next Thursday evening the pupils of the Alliance School of Music will give a recital in the Reddick Hall, to which the public is invited. No admission will be charged. These programs are worthy of a large attendance.

Ozman-Brown Nuptials.
On Friday, May 19, 1916, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ozman, Miss Eva Ozman and Archie D. Brown were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. B. Carns, and witnessed by a number of immediate friends. The young people are well known in Alliance, but will make their future home on a ranch near Edgemoor, where their many friends will hope they will succeed in whatever they undertake, and at the same time enjoy life.

Engagement Announced Informally.
The engagement of Miss Lucille O'Brien and Mr. Willard Myers was announced at an informal gathering of friends at the home of Mrs. Rose Reardon, the Misses Kate, Arnes and Hannah Knist acting as hostesses. The marriage is to take place the early part of June. Pink roses and ribbons were tastefully used in the decorations, while hearts and cupids were used in the arrangements for the delicious three-course luncheon. The guest list included the Misses May Newberry, Hannah Cotant, Marie Buechsenstein, Ruth Morris, Thresa O'Donnell, Kate Hagerty, Mary Carey, Marie Reardon, Mrs. Reardon, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. W. J. Hamilton, Mrs. C. A. Newberry, and the honored one, Miss O'Brien.

Honor Early June Bride.
The Misses May Newberry and Ruth Morris gave a shower in honor of Miss Lucille O'Brien at the former's home last Friday evening and presided at a four course dinner, the colors used in the decorations being yellow and white, and the daisy being the flower used. The appointments conformed to the color scheme. The guest list included Kate Hagerty, Kate, Hannah and Agnes Knist, Hannah and Etta Keane, Teresa O'Donnell, Marie Buechsenstein, Marie and Mable Carey, Mary Carey, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. John Wiker. The honored one was given a shower of towels, all of which will be put to a useful purpose. Entertainment was arranged in the form of a "mock wedding", which delighted those in attendance.

Purely Musical Festival.
Altho inclement weather and other unavoidable conditions prevented many from attending the May Festival, the first of its kind in Alliance, which was held in the Presbyterian church, the audience who braved the wind and sand were well repaid. Aside from the pleasing choruses by the Women's Choral Club, and the Men's Sextet, a duet by Miss Burnett and Mrs. Hershman was artistically rendered, and the rendition by Mrs. Rhein of "Old Kentucky Home" accompanied by the men's voices certainly received favorable applause. Eight little girls of the physical culture daintily and gracefully gave "Happy Days", and when they had finished all the older listeners would have been quite willing to be young again, so well did the young folks cater to the spirit of their selection and light steps.

Showing of New Liberty Hat.
One of the millinery concerns of Omaha is in receipt of a large consignment of "Liberty" hats, the official head-gear and same design as will be worn by thousands of suffragists who will march in the parade at Chicago when the national republican convention is held. It is said that similar hats are to be sold in every city of the country and are to be worn as a token of expression. The "Liberty" hat is described as large flat sailor, the outside of straw and silk, with a straw facing. It is trimmed with a nine-inch yellow band of ribbon, through which a purple thread is run, these being the suffrage colors. Have you seen any similar hats in Alliance, or are they new residents interested in the new "fad"?

Happily Wedded.
The marriage of Miss Eleanor Mitchell and Everett Johnson took place Wednesday morning at the Old Center ranch near Alliance, the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Robert H. Mitchell. Mr. Mitchell, now deceased, was one of the pioneer settlers of Lincoln, and his daughter's entire life with the exception of the last year was spent here. A year ago Mrs. Mitchell with her son and daughter moved to the ranch in Box Butte county. The home was decorated with smilax and white roses for the wedding. The bride's gown was white and she carried a big bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The ring ceremony was used, only relatives of the two families witnessing the service. Mr. and Mrs. James Rivett, aunt and uncle of the bride, were the only guests from a distance. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left in the afternoon for a short trip and after their return will be at home to their friends on a ranch about three miles from that of the bride's mother.—Lincoln State Journal.

Installation of Officers.
At a special meeting of the local chapter of the Order of Eastern Star Monday evening the following officers were installed: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Helene Ponath; Worthy Patron, E. G. Laing; Associate Matron, Mrs.

Miss Sena Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Jensen, was married Tuesday, May 23, to Hans C. Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hansen of Canton. The young couple will make their home near Canton after the honeymoon. They are both popular young people and well liked in the communities in which they have resided.

Mrs. John Boyer, who has been seriously ill, is reported as improving at this time.

PURE, SWEET AND MELLOW IS "OLD KENTUCKY"

Has the Luscious Flavor of Ripe Fruit—A Wonderful Chew

BEST PLUG TOBACCO MADE

The natural juices of choice tobacco leaf have an appetizing, wholesome relish—and the only way you can get their full benefit is to chew good plug tobacco.

The choicest Burley leaf pressed into golden-brown plugs of Old Kentucky makes a chew that has never been equalled for mellow quality and pleasing taste.

The pressing of Old Kentucky is done so slowly that not a particle of the juice escapes, so that every chew of Old Kentucky is full of the wonderful fruity flavor and wholesome quality that nature put into the leaf.

You simply can't get so much delicious appetizing flavor out of any other chew.

Try a 10c plug of Old Kentucky and you'll get more solid tobacco enjoyment out of it than you ever had before. Ask your dealer for Old Kentucky.

CASE TO WASHINGTON

Walters-Peterson Homestead Filing Contest Sent to Government for Decision

The much discussed contest case of Charles O. Walters vs. Wm. F. Peterson, which was heard before the local land office on May 8, has been sent to headquarters at Washington for a decision. Peterson won out in the Alliance land drawing and Walters filed and settled on the land at 9 o'clock on the morning of March 24, the day of the drawing.

The government notice regarding the filing is not exactly clear, and the local officials deemed it the most expedient method to send the papers in the case to Washington for a decision on the matter. Paragraph four of the public notice regarding the opening stated: "Warning is hereby expressly given that no person will be permitted to gain or exercise any right whatever under any settlement or occupation begun prior to 9 o'clock a. m., March 24, 1916."

Walters was represented before the local land office by Attorney William Mitchell of Alliance. Peterson was represented by Attorneys C. G. Perry and Bruce Wilcox of Bridgeport.

OBITUARY

Redmond Hand was born January 31, 1849, and died Tuesday morning, May 16, 1916, after a protracted illness of about two months duration. He came from County Roscommon, Ireland, to the United States in 1859. On November 5, 1869, he was married to Mary Ann Keogh in Dubuque, Iowa, and moved to Vermillion, South Dakota, in 1861.

Mr. Hand and family were in the Missouri river flood at Vermillion, March 27, 1881, where they lost everything and were compelled to start life anew. They located on the present farm home a government pre-emption claim, where he was living at the time of his death, March 10, 1885, before there were any buildings where the town of Hay Springs now stands, residing there to the time of his death, a total of thirty-one years and six days.

Two of the children born to Mr. and Mrs. Hand died in infancy. Helena and Aggie died in 1881. Redmond died in 1911. Those living and present at the time of Mr. Hand's funeral were Jos Hand of Crawford, Mrs. Otto C. Smith, Mrs. Dan Green of Gordon and Dr. Geo. J. Hand of Alliance. Mrs. Redmond Hand was two days younger than her husband.

The funeral services were held from the Catholic church in Hay Springs, at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning, May 18. Father Nepper, of Rushville, had charge of the services. Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery at Hay Springs.

Deferred Civil Service Examination

Because there were not a sufficient number of applicants, the examination to have been held in Alliance for a post office clerk and carrier has been postponed until Saturday, May 27. Applications will be accepted from any male becoming eighteen years of age within thirty days of the examinations. A photograph taken within two years must be presented to the examiner on the day of examination.

The commission advises that it is not probable that the railway mail clerk, the departmental clerk, or the bookkeeper examinations will be held before the spring of 1917. If the needs of the service require such examinations to be held before that time they will be duly announced in the press.

F. W. HICKS,
Secretary local Board.

Maynard Goes to Sterling

C. E. Maynard, for several months past city editor of The Herald, left Sunday for Sterling, Colo., where he became manager of the Sterling Enterprise. Mr. Maynard is a thorough newspaper man and should make a success of the newspaper of which he takes charge and which was recently taken over by Dr. Fisher, who spoke in Alliance this spring.
