THE EIGHT HOUR DAY

Short Paragraphs on the Eight Hour Day, Issued by the Transportation Brotherhoods' Publicity Bureau.

There are no regular hours for freight train crews. They work when they are needed. They must remain within calling distance even when off duty, and just when they will be called to go out it is difficult to determine.

Freight cars have grown in length from 28 to 40 and 50 feet in the past twenty years, and where formerly it took 24 loads to make a train, it now requires from 50 to 100. One crew is now doing the work that formerly was done by three or four crews, and this one crew does not receive pay commensurate with the increased work.

Seventy-eight per cent of the freight malage in the Western territory is now operated on the 12 1/2 miles per hour speed basis, according to the railroads' own figures. If the shorter work day becomes operative on all roads it will make no more difference to any of them than it has to the roads that have already adopted it by agreement or operation.

Twelve and one-half miles per hour would get your freight over a 100-mile division in eight hours, and even that, in comparison with transportation such as automobiles and auto trucks, is not very fast service.

All earnings of railway employees in the United States go to the farmer and the merchant instead of Wall Street.

The physical and mental strain on train service employees compelled to work long hours is beyond comprehension by the average mind. Virtually all the accident and old-line insurance companies classify railroading as extra hazardous, many of them refusing to insure railroad train employees.

Railway train service employees are not paid a monthly salary, but are paid by the mile—they are pieceworkers, and their earning capacity is based upon the number of miles they are able to make. For the time they are required to lay away from home at the other end of their runs they receive nothing. Completing a 100-mile run away from home, they are required to wait for a train to make the return trip, sometimes from 12 to 22 hours, which costs them money for meals and living, while the upkeep of the home goes on just the same.

Mr. Farmer and Mr. Merchant: Do you realize that from eighty to ninety per cent of the engineers and trainmen employed on the railways of the United States are the sons of farmers, and that they are dependent upon the producers for their sustenance? These same employees, engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and yardmen, are citizens of your cities, own homes, pay taxes, and in all other ways help to support the communities in which they live.

Hon. Frank B. Willis, Governor of Ohio, says: "The man who toils will do more work and better work in EIGHT HOURS than in fourteen; it will mean greater ability, greater energy and greater enthusiasm for his work. Let us not forget the men whose hands are on the throttle, and those who have actual charge of the trains hurrying through the night to their several destinations."

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble—Neutralizes acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. At least meat, drink lots of water; get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

MOTHER NATURE MAKES HER GIFT

Compounds in Her Laboratory Ingredients for the Master Medicine, Tanlac

Of all the ailments that afflict humanity, chronic dyspepsia probably is the most common. Its causes and characterizations are many. Skilled specialists have been unable to cope with this almost universal malady, but Mother Nature, who, after all, is the ideal physician, in combination with skill in chemistry, has compounded in her inexhaustible laboratory a marvelous remedy for this trouble.

A lecturer would use hours to describe the sufferings that dyspepsia brings. Dyspeptics become listless, then morbid, are melancholy over little things, have whimsical ideas, perhaps "grouchy" is a better word, aside from the nervous physical suffering, and, with appetite gone, sleep fitful, dizzy spells and nausea frequent, life hardly seems worth living.

Tanlac seems to almost instantly check this distressing condition, and to restore a healthy, normal appetite, bring good, restful sleep, and banish that tired, nervous feeling—in short, to restore the stomach to the habit of doing a full day's work and doing it well.

Tanlac is now being introduced in Alliance at the Harry Thiele store, where it is being explained daily to scores of men and women.

ATTENTION, DRUGGISTS
An exclusive Tanlac agent is wanted in every Nebraska town. For particulars address Agency Department, Cooper Medicine Co., Dayton, Ohio.
