

The WEEK'S DOINGS

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
Made from Cream of Tartar
NO ALUM—NO PHOSPHATE

Mr. Miller of Berea visited in the city Saturday.

Glen Gentle and family were up from the ranch Monday.

Miss Doris Young returned Monday noon from a trip east.

If you want to build a home see J. C. McCorkle and get the money.

Mrs. Wm. Sauers went to Hyannis Saturday to stay on the homestead.

Mrs. John McDonald went to Ravenna Saturday, returning Sunday.

Fred Mollring and D. G. Bates made a trip east Monday on business.

Two good rooms for light house-keeping. Phone 31. H. J. YOUNG

Mrs. Charles Evans of Hemingford was an Alliance visitor the first of the week.

Rev. H. J. Young went to Chadron Monday on business, returning Tuesday noon.

Tom Banning, the insurance man, went east Saturday on a trip over his territory.

Mrs. Samuel Tillet and Mrs. J. Kridelbaugh returned Saturday from a short trip to Denver.

Bruce Mallery, the stock inspector, made a trip to Northport Monday, returning Tuesday noon.

Henry Brenneman went to Morrill Monday for a couple of days to visit his son, who is sick.

Mrs. Robert Morgan and children returned Monday from a visit with relatives at Moorcroft, Wyo.

Mrs. Wilmet Joder and daughter came up from North Platte Monday to visit the B. I. Joder family.

Mrs. Bruce McDowell and daughter left Tuesday noon for Hemingford for a visit with relatives.

Miss Helen Jones of Ardmore returned home Monday after visiting in Alliance with friends for a week.

INSURE your crops in the Old Reliable Phoenix Insurance Company, 28-4t-7340. F. E. REDDISH, Agent.

Miss Mayme Hagerty of Bridgeport visited over Sunday with her sister Mrs. Jack Riordan.

INSURE your crops in the Old Reliable Phoenix Insurance Company, 28-4t-7340. F. E. REDDISH, Agent.

Miss Blanche Kibble left Wednesday night for Denver, going on business for the Nebraska Potash Company.

Mrs. R. M. Hampton and daughter Dorothy returned Monday from Colorado Springs, Denver and other Colorado points where they have been visiting for the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Whitehead autoed over from Mitchell Sunday to visit the F. W. Harris family. Mr. Whitehead returned Sunday night and Mrs. Whitehead remained for a longer visit.

V. F. Ku-cera the Bohemian Spine Adjuster and Spine Masseuse, at the Alliance Hotel Tuesday and Wednesday, and Friday and Saturday of each week. Children a specialty. 28-4t-7342

Mrs. W. A. Miller and daughter of Crawford, formerly of Alliance, arrived Monday noon to attend the P. E. O. convention and to visit friends. Mrs. Elliott is the P. E. O. delegate from Crawford.

We will furnish the money to build homes in Alliance. We inspect the property ourselves and furnish money quickly at a low rate of interest. Nebraska Land Company, Alliance, Nebr.

Miss Fern Axtell, of Great Falls, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Basye, stopping over while on her way to Lincoln. She arrived Tuesday. She is a former schoolmate of Mrs. Basye.

Mrs. Bruce Wilcox and son Max invited with friends in Alliance last Saturday and Sunday and took in the carnival. Max is city editor of the Bridgeport News-Blade, of which his father is the proprietor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Smith returned Sunday morning from their trip to Illinois, caused by the serious illness of Mr. Smith's mother, who was operated on. She is now improving, following the operation.

Robert Copey came up Saturday from Lincoln where he has been attending the State University, to spend a few days with his brothers Doctor H. A. Copey and Verne Copey of the First State Bank.

Mrs. Oscar O'Bannon, accompanied by her son Charles, left Monday for Atkinson, Neb., where she will attend the wedding of her sister. She will also visit other Nebraska points before returning in a couple of weeks.

Misses Margaret Harris, Hannah Cotant and Louise Thatcher, who have been visiting for a week over on the river, returned Tuesday noon accompanied by Misses Mildred and Dorothy Whitehead of Mitchell, cousins of Margaret Harris.

Mrs. C. E. Amsberry, wife of The Herald's forman of the mechanical department, departed Monday for Hyannis with Mrs. Bertha Selvidge, who has been visiting them here for a short time. Mrs. Amsberry will remain at Hyannis for a visit.

Ward Rubendall arrived last week for a stay in Alliance on business until Friday, when he expects to go on to Omaha for a visit with relatives. Ward and his mother are now making their home at Long Beach, Calif., where they went from Alliance last year. Ward is now engaged in the banking business in Los Angeles.

Dan Watson went to Crawford Tuesday on a business trip.

Miss Susie Hopkins of Hemingford was an Alliance visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Earl Reid is quite ill at her residence with an attack of appendicitis.

J. P. Barger went to Belmont on business Wednesday, returning this noon.

There will be another men's meeting at the City Mission next Sunday afternoon.

Thomas Mark, Jr., weighing eight and one-half pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Tully.

Mrs. Nellie Wilson is out on the street again, the quarantine being lifted Tuesday of this week.

T. J. O'Keefe, register of the Alliance land office, returned Tuesday from a trip to North Platte.

Mrs. Bruce Wilcox and son Max came over from Bridgeport the last of the week to visit friends.

The fore part of last week an eight and one-half pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vern Adress.

Frank Abegg returned the latter part of last week from a two weeks visit with his parents, in Blakesburg, Ia.

Miss Alice Wright, little granddaughter of J. H. Carlson, came to spend a month with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Johnson and son are visiting with the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Johnson.

Ray Westover returned to his home near Lakeside Monday after a stay of a few days in Alliance on business.

Miss Eva Sledow of the Fashion Shop left Saturday night for her home in Sidney, returning Wednesday morning.

John W. Thomas, editor of The Herald, is back at his desk this week, after an absence of several weeks in eastern points.

Miss Josephine Hoag and Elizabeth Wilson, the former's niece, left Thursday noon for a visit with relatives at St. Joe.

F. G. Stevens of Denver was in the city the last of the week with W. W. Buchanan of Hyannis, the well known stockman.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Witham are the proud parents of a baby boy, Cecil Edwin, weight 6 1/2 pounds. Mother and baby doing fine.

Miss Myrtle Kaufman and cousin Charles Kaufman of St. Louis are visiting the former's brother Dave Kaufman of this city.

Mrs. Victor Wilson and children, who have been visiting at the Brice home, left Friday night for their home at Stromsburg.

Miss Helen Hewett returned from the State University Saturday morning where she has been attending school for the past year.

Jack Hawes, traveling representative for Harpham Brothers, Lincoln harness manufacturers, left Monday for headquarters on business.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Wright of Custer, So. Dak., a baby boy weighing ten pounds. Mrs. Wright was formerly Myrtle Carlson.

Bob Bruce, of Rushville, sheriff of Sheridan county, was in town the first of the week on business and for a visit with Dr. Geo. J. Hand.

Misses Edna and Bess Bullock returned Sunday night from a two weeks visit with her sister at Ravenna, also visiting Lincoln and Omaha.

George Davis returned Sunday from Omaha, where he attended the Masonic grand lodge. He also visited Hastings and Lincoln on the trip.

Roy Moffatt of Lincoln who has been visiting with his sister Mrs. Harry Cleveland left last Thursday to visit another sister in South Dakota.

Mrs. George Davis went to Oshkosh Monday to constitute a chapter of the Eastern Star lodge, as deputy grand matron. She returned Wednesday morning.

"Dusty" Rhodes of Broadwater stopped over in Alliance Wednesday on his way home from Gordon, where he pitched a baseball game Sunday for the Ardmore team.

Mrs. P. E. Romig and children, Mayor Romig's family, left Saturday for Long Pine, Nebr., where they expect to spend the summer camping in the park at that place.

Edward and Helen, children of F. W. Blair of The Herald force, left last week for Torrington, Wyo., where they will visit with their aunt, Mrs. George Anderson.

Mrs. George Duncan and daughter, Miss Goldie Leith, left Wednesday for Greensboro, Penn., where they will visit with friends and relatives during the summer months.

Louis Griffin is now driving a spick and span Dodge car. The other traveling men claim that Louis is not yet an expert as they found it necessary to stop him Wednesday noon on a main street and inform him that he was driving with all lights on, and as the city ordinances do not require the having of lights "on" in the daytime they felt that he should save the "juice" being used in that way. Louis says that it was a mistake and that he turned the wrong button.

Skinner's Macaroni Products, made in Nebraska. Ask your grocer.—Adv

John and Ferdinand Nikont of Hemingford were Alliance callers today.

FOR SALE—A few choice seed potatoes. Phone 548. A. R. Wilson. 6-15-7352-1f

Mrs. Rose Reardon returned Saturday from O'Neil where she was visiting her son Harry, who has a drug store at that place.

Miss Bertha Jelinek, daughter of John Jelinek, county assessor, returned to her home near Hemingford Monday after a few days spent in Alliance assisting her father.

FOR RENT—Six-room house for rent, across street east of Central School building. Inquire of E. G. Laing. 27-tf-7336

Miss Robertson, of Atkinson, Nebraska, stopped over Wednesday for a visit with Miss Opal Russell, county superintendent, on her way from Boise, Idaho, where she teaches.

BARN FOR RENT—J. W. Thomas, 408 Sweetwater Ave. 22-tf-7332

Edward Woodhouse, of Slarks, Nebraska, who has a fine half-section of land ten miles north of Alliance, was in the city the last of the week looking after his property interests.

WANTED—Work by day. Phone 518 after 5 P. M. Mrs. J. H. Carroll. 27-tf-7332.

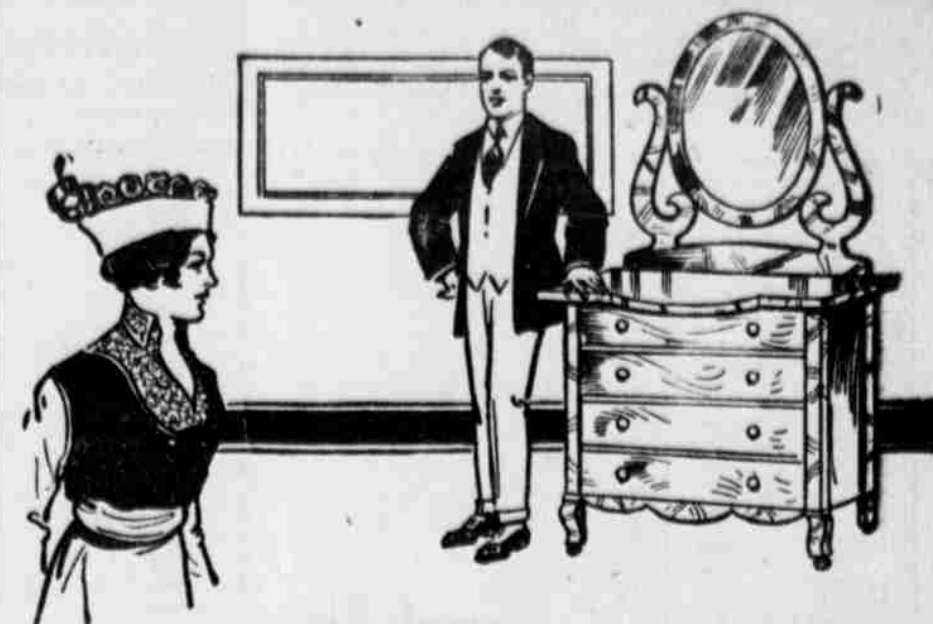

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thatcher and children, of Berkley, Calif., arrived Sunday for a visit with the F. W. Harris family. Mr. Thatcher returned Wednesday and Mrs. Thatcher and children will remain for two weeks.

FOR SALE—7-room house and 6 lots in Duncanson addition. Price $900 cash. A. E. Judson, Hall hotel, Denver.

Mrs. A. G. Isaacs departed Wednesday night for about two weeks visit in Omaha and other eastern points. She will attend three weddings of relatives, and will also purchase some goods for the Fashion Shop before returning.

See Seymore before you insure. State agent for Omaha Health and Accident. Only blanket insurance written in the state. At Fleming's Cigar Store. 18-tf-6851

Ralph Watson returned Monday noon from Washington, where he and Mrs. Watson went some time ago, after selling out their grocery business in this city. Mrs. Watson is now at Winlock, Wash., and is enjoying the trip greatly. Mr. Watson will probably return there after attending to business matters in Alliance.

Everything in Its Place

A big, roomy dresser or chiffonier, in which you can keep ample supplies of clothing and toilet accessories for immediate needs, will contribute much to your comfort and convenience and save oodles of time and temper.

Our Bedroom Pieces

are the latest in design, color and finish, and they are made so carefully they will serve a lifetime. Come and see them and get prices.

Our Word Is a Guaranty of Honest Values

MILLER BROS.

HOUSE FURNISHINGS

Mrs. W. A. Hampton of Denver came in Wednesday to the P. E. O. convention, and is visiting with Mrs. Rose Reardon.

Dwight Zediker, champion relay rider, left Wednesday night for Cheyenne to join the famous Irwin Brothers wild west shows, with which he will travel during the summer.

Mrs. G. G. Hampton, of Gothenburg, formerly of Alliance, arrived Tuesday and is visiting with friends as well as attending the P. E. O. convention. Mr. Hampton is expected the latter part of the week to join Mrs. Hampton. While here they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mitchell.

Miss Josephine Hampton returned Thursday noon from California where she has been attending the Cummoek School of Expression for the past year. Miss Hampton will visit her parents during her summer vacation, returning this fall to the west.

Mrs. Roy Reed, who was quite seriously burned in a gasoline stove explosion last Thursday, is getting along nicely. Mr. Reed's mother, of Denver, is here with her, Miss Reed, of Denver, a sister of Mr. Reed, took the four youngest children to Denver with her Tuesday of this week to keep them until the mother recovers sufficiently to care for them.

Palm Beach Suits

This is the largest and most complete early showing of these cool and comfortable summer suits in the city. More styles and a very complete range of sizes.

Every Palm Beach Suit we show is made of genuine Palm Beach Cloth. We mention this because there are a number of inferior imitations on the market.

We have them in the natural Palm Beach color, in Tans, Grays and in Stripes, Plain tailored models—belted and flared in the most approved fashions—some with large collars and cuffs of contrasting materials. Sport stripes are used in combination with plain materials and often for entire suits.

Full ranges of sizes. Exceptional suits priced at $6.98 $7.98 $9.50

Ladies' Silk Underwear

The comfortable kind of underwear. A full line of ladies' underwear in silk. Now selling at

One-Third Off Regular Price

Visit Us During Stockmen's Week

Visiting ladies during Stockmen's Convention are invited to visit us and make this store their headquarters while in the city. Our special ladies' rest room, arranged for your convenience, is at your disposal.

Remember that we can furnish you with complete ready-to-wear outfits. You can purchase as cheaply as you could at any of the big city stores. Call and let us show you.

THE old Egyptians were famous bread bakers of their time, but their baking ability was confined almost exclusively to bread. It is different with us for we specialize in all the good things a modern bakery produces.

Our Pies

are particularly appetizing and in such variety as will suit any taste. Even if we do say it ourselves, the best of home cooks can't beat them. They are an ideal dessert to place on any table.

Quality and cleanliness are the twin mottoes of this bakery at all times.

F. F. Stephens
Successors to Nohe Bakery and Cafe

THE Fashion Shop
THE STYLE CENTER