THREE HUNDRED LECTURES TO CROWDED HOUSES

Three hundred lectures to crowded houses is the record of Clinton N. Howard in his home town of Rochester, N. Y., in the past ten years. His lectures have been recognized for more than twenty years as Chautauqua classics. He has appeared at all the big independent assemblies east, west, north and south and everywhere acknowledged "great as an orator, great as an entertainer, great as an instructor and sincere as the prophets of old."

His subjects are "Adam and Eve and the Baby," "Why God Made a Woman," "Well Balanced Folks." His Sunday address in the afternoon is "Why Men Should Marry;" at night is "Why Women Should Wed."

"Howard day" will be the first day of the Chautauqua.

DR. L. B. WICKERSHAM, THE "RETURN DATE" MAN, COMING

His success as a Chautauqua lecturer for more than twenty-five years has been uninterrupted, and we believe his record is unparalleled. He has delivered over 2,000 paid lectures and special addresses in his home state. What is the meaning of such a record? Simply that the people like to hear him and call for him again and again. This is true of his work from Winnipeg to New Orleans and from New York to San Francisco. He has filled the largest number of return engagements in a limited time and territory of any man who is now or ever has been upon the platform.
