Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Nebraska, July 4th, 1916.—The week opened with a very small run of cattle, only 60 loads or about 1,500 head. Owing to the light receipts, and the good demand from the dressed beef men, the cattle market was about 10c higher than at the close of last week, except on the less desirable and more or less grassy cattle there was some uncertainty and unevenness in the trade, although in many cases prices looked better than the close of last week. Good yearlings sold around $9.60@10.15. There was only a few bunches of cows and heifers here and they found a ready sale at strong to higher prices, everything going in good season. Prices ranging from $3.75@8.75.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice heaves $10.00@10.60; fair to good heaves $9.35@9.85; common to fair heaves, $8.25@9.25; good to choice yearlings, $9.50@10.25; fair to good yearlings, $8.50@9.25; common to fair yearlings, $7.25@8.50; good to choice heifers, $7.50@8.50; good to choice cows, $7.00@8.00; fair to good cows, $6.00@7.00; canners and cutters, $3.75@5.75; veal calves, $9.00@11.50; grass bulls, $5.50@6.50; beef bulls, $6.75@7.50.

Shippers bought moderately, paying about steady prices for their hogs on Monday's market. The packers also came out at the start of the market with bids that were as much as 5c lower. Before the bulk of the hogs began to sell, however, values got up to a steady basis, and in some instances stronger. The general market was fully steady, average cost being a little stronger. Bulk of the sales were made at $9.60@9.65, the top reaching $9.80, also the top for Saturday.

Monday's sheep and lamb run was moderate, arrivals amounting to 25 cars, or about 6,800 head. The demand was good and trade opened in good season on a fully steady basis. The bulk of the good lambs sold at $10.50, while one two-car bunch of Idaho reached a top of $10.55. The old mutton supply was light, and with a good demand for anything in the ewe, wether or yearling line trade was active at steady prices. A pretty good kind of ewes sold for $7. plain wethers were bought at $5 and mixed yearlings and wethers sold for $7.75.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, good to choice, $10.25@10.55; lambs, fair to good, $9.75@10.25; lambs, feeders, $8.00@8.50; yearlings, good to choice, $7.50@8.00; yearlings, fair to good, $6.75@7.50; wethers, fair to choice, $6.50@7.50; ewes, good to choice, $6.50@7.00; ewes, fair to good, $5.50@6.50.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JULY 9

THE THESSALONIAN CHRISTIANS

LESSON TEXT—1 Thess. 2:17-20, 4:13-18, 5:14-24.

GOLDEN TEXT—If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with him.—1 Thess. 4:14 R. V.

This epistle is probably one of the earliest of Paul's letters (A. D. 50-53?). It links itself closely with the sixteenth chapter of the Book of Acts. Driven from Berea, Paul goes to Athens and later to Corinth, while Timothy returns to Thessalonica and carries a report to Paul at Corinth. Whereupon, perhaps within six months, Paul writes his epistle. A study of the two letters addressed to this church teaches us how Paul advised and instructed his Gentile converts. The first is a particularly cheerful, positive and helpful exhortation.

I. Thanksgiving and Exhortation (1:1-90; 2:17-20). (1) Salutation (1:1-18); (2) Thanksgiving (1:3-10); (3) Knowledge in Paul's mind (v. 4). They were "elected" to salvation, holiness and likeness to Jesus (vv. 5-9; 1 Pet 1:2; Eph. 1:4, 5; Rom. 8:29).

(4) Testimony (vv. 6-10). Paul could appeal to the known conduct of himself and his friends to substantiate, to prove, the standing of those candidates for holiness who had been "elected." His words had not come to them in mere exhortation and eloquence but "also in power," which governed their conduct. This was not to win applause, but in his own case he labored for their sakes (v. 5) and in their case they had received the word "with joy" in the midst of affliction to the end that they became examples (patterns or types; literally, like the far echoing notes of a trumpet) (v. 7) to all that dwell in the regions thereabout. Their obedience, consistency and missionary spirit (vv. 8-10) sounded forth everywhere and all that needed to be done was to say, "Behold the church of Thessalonica!" (5) Paul's glory and joy (2:17-20). Paul sets forth his character as a Christian worker (2:1-18). (a) His physical boldness (vv. 1, 2); (b) his faithful, impartial teaching (vv. 3-6), affectionately kind (7, 8), unselfish, working for his own support (v. 9), holy and consistent (13-16). No one "had anything on him," and such a life dares to be bold, though it is not free from persecution (v. 15). (6) Paul's desire (2:17-20). He here sets forth why this letter was written. Separated from them by persecution, he desires to return and supply the things they were yet lacking and to see face to face those whom he loved. Satan prevented (v. 18) the doubling using the bitter persecution stirred up against him. He had therefore sent Timothy from Berea to comfort them (3:15), who had made such a good report (3:1-10) that it urged Paul to greater prayer (vv. 11-13) on their behalf.

II. Ignorance Illumined (4:13-18). Paul rebukes certain sins (4:1-12), exhorting them to godliness and to love one another. He then touches upon a doctrine which was one of the strongest reasons for writing to these Thessalonians. The imminent return of Christ had been strongly emphasized, but in the months of Paul's absence some of their number had died, without seeing Christ's promised glory. Would those who remained have any advantage over the dead saints when Christ should come? It is to set their thinking aright that Paul writes. This he does by outlining the great and blessed hope of the church in its "rapture" at Christ's coming. This is more clearly set forth here than anywhere else in the New Testament. Those who mourned over departed loved ones are not to "sorrow as those who had no hope." Jesus, the risen, everlasting Savior and King, is certainly coming again in his kingdom of glory, "with a shout, with the voice of the archangel." Their sorrow is not that of the world, for those departed are but "sleeping" and will come back with Jesus when he comes. Together they who sleep and we who are alive shall be caught up "to meet the Lord in the air," all to dwell together forevermore with the Lord.

Paul's description of the events of this second coming, this rapture of the church, has not yet been fulfilled, but he and the disciples were not mistaken as to its nearness, its imminence.

III. The Hope of Church and State (5:14-24). The letter closes with moral exhortations with reference to spiritual leaders, care of one another, the spirit of prayer; and he exhorts them not to "quench the Spirit" by despising prophesying, that preaching and testifying which can be exercised by the weakest, feeblest member of the church if he be Spirit-endued.
