

The WEEK'S DOINGS

Miss Lucy Bond of Elva was in Alliance Sunday.

Ed Ollrog was in Alliance several days this week.

Mrs. Charles Evans arrived in Alliance Saturday.

Mrs. Guy Allen came in Friday from Bridgeport.

Ralph Antrim of Crawford was in Alliance Thursday.

Bernard Phelan was in Bridgeport, Tuesday, on business.

Thos. Spencer was in Bridgeport Thursday on business.

Jack Mann of Bridgeport was an Alliance visitor Monday.

H. B. Austin of Chadron was in Alliance Sunday on business.

Ed Marks returned Monday noon from a brief visit at Lakeside.

Clarence Davis of Lakeside was an Alliance visitor Friday of last week.

Rev. Haislip preached at the Marsland Methodist church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Austin of Marsland were in Alliance between trains.

Skinner's Macaroni Products, made in Nebraska. Ask your grocer.—Adv

Mrs. R. C. Strong and family left Monday noon for a trip to Bridgeport.

W. L. Marcy of Lakeside was in Alliance on business the last of the week.

Lloyd Antrim spent several days last week with his parents, in Crawford.

D. J. Nelson went to Ravenna Saturday noon to take charge of the circus train.

Carl Spacht arrived from Hemingford Saturday to spend Sunday with his family.

Prof. G. M. Burns was in Hemingford the first of the week, looking after business.

D. L. Shull and wife of Minatare were in the city Friday on their honeymoon trip.

Dean Shaw of the Episcopal church went to Hyannis Monday, returning Wednesday.

John McCoy, M. D. Offices and Hospital Reddish Block Telephone 81

Yankee Robinson circus and menagerie will be in Hemingford the 21st of this month.

Miss Esther Wilson, who had been visiting Miss Alta Young, left Friday noon for Montana.

Miss Irma Lotspeich was in Marsland Sunday visiting her cousin, Miss Alice Enyeart.

C. Powell of near Alliance was visiting his father, Wm. Powell, of Bridgeport last Sunday.

Frank Hunsaker and wife visited over Sunday with his uncle, Tom Hunsaker, of Marsland.

Real Estate, Loans and Insurance. F. E. REDDISH, Reddish Block. 15-16-6727

Harry Beans, wife and two sons spent a very enjoyable vacation with Mrs. J. Arner of Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Thompson of Antioch were in Alliance Friday of last week with their family.

John Snoddy of the insurance firm of Snoddy & Mollring left Monday for a business trip to Hemingford.

J. M. Miller, proprietor of the Alliance Cafe and Hotel, has installed a large electric sign on the building corner.

J. H. Robinson, of Kansas City, representing Crystal White soap, spent part of last week in the city on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Show and daughter left Monday noon for Hot Springs, South Dakota, for a short outing trip.

Mrs. Morris Kates of Lincoln, mother of Mrs. Lee Baase, returned to her home Friday, after a visit here for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Sieffert and Mr. and Mrs. Wright made a trip by auto into the hills Sunday, where they visited with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hill and baby and Mrs. E. S. Owens were in Bridgeport last week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry.

"Jimmie" Pierce, The Herald's office boy, returned Sunday noon from Omaha, where he accompanied his parents on a short trip.

Miss Genie Gilmore, of Grand Island, a sister of Mrs. F. M. Seldell of Alliance, left Monday noon for Chadron after a visit here.

Stephen Farrell of Chicago, the "big coffee man of Nebraska", who represents the Chase & Sanborn line, spent part of last week in the city.

If you are paying high interest rates in the Building & Loan call on the Nebraska Land Company and get the money at reduced interest rates.

Dr. George J. Hand made a trip to Hay Springs Sunday, accompanied by his brother of Crawford. They made the trip in the doctor's new King auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gentle returned Sunday noon from a trip to Idaho Falls and other western points, where they visited with relatives for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes left Tuesday noon for Feeling, Okla., where they will visit Mr. Estes' sister and look for a location. Mrs. Estes was formerly Elsie Clough.

Frank Cruickshank, of The Denver Post, representing the Sells-Floto circus, as general press representative, was a caller at The Herald office one day last week.

J. C. McCorkle returned Friday noon from Hysham, Mont., where he went early last week for the funeral of his son-in-law, Frank Dunning, formerly of Alliance.

Mrs. Bettie Sharp, police matron, reports that the Camp Fire Girls organization is proceeding very favorably and that the girls of the town are taking much interest.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wright of Whitman left for their home Monday. They have a daughter in St. Joseph's hospital, who is convalescing after an operation a short time ago.

John Wiker returned Monday morning from his recent trip to Douglas, Wyo. His father, Al Wiker, and sister Mrs. Richard Waters, remained at Douglas for a vacation.

Ben J. Sallows, editor of the Alliance Times, and Mayor P. E. Romig of Alliance are spending part of the week at New York City. They incidentally visited Coney Island a time or two.

Rev. H. H. Miller of Tobias, Nebr., stopped over Friday on his way to Bayard. On Saturday he went from there to Belmont, where he assumes the duties of pastor of the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fee returned Sunday noon from a vacation trip of a month spent at Denver, Colorado Springs and other mountain points. They were accompanied by their son, Teddy.

Joseph Lean, the lumber representative, who covers a large number of western states, spent Saturday and Sunday in Alliance. While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thomas.

Chas. Watteyne and family left Monday noon for a trip of two weeks which will combine business and pleasure and will include St. Joseph, Falls City, Tecumseh and other points.

Mrs. Claude Brown and daughter Irene came down from Hemingford Tuesday noon to spend some time with Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. H. Bushnell, who is here for medical treatment.

Fred Mollring of the insurance firm of Snoddy & Mollring was called to Pawlet Monday to settle damage claims resulting from the heavy hail and wind storm near that point on Monday, July 10.

Mrs. G. E. Coffee and daughter of Ashland, Ore., are guests of Mrs. D. W. Butler. Mrs. Coffee and Mrs. Butler were old school mates. Mrs. Coffee and daughter are enroute to southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Balbier and family of Alvona, Iowa, who have been touring the west in their car, stopped over at the F. W. Hicks home to visit this week. They expect to return via the Black Hills country.

Ed Owens, popular dryman, celebrated his fifty-first birthday on Saturday. Ed doesn't show his age at all and it took much arguing to convince his friends that he had really passed the half-century mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Thomas of Ashby visited with relatives and friends in Alliance over Sunday. Philip is the editor and publisher of the Ashby Argus, one of the live newspapers of the sandhill country.

H. B. Ramsey, a manager of the Prudential Life Insurance Co., conveyed Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pierce and family to Omaha by auto, leaving Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mr. Ramsey remained in Omaha. The Pierce family returned Sunday noon by train.

Miss Anna Hibben of Fremont, a school efficiency expert, after a short stop at Alliance, went to Hemingford on business Monday. Her co-worker, Miss Wilda Ramey, of Omaha, was called home Sunday by a telegram announcing the death of her father, at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Campbell and son Robert returned Monday morning from a two weeks trip in southern Texas, visiting relatives. They also visited Kansas City, and Elvo, Kansas, where they visited Mrs. Campbell's brother, going from there to Omaha, for a visit with Mr. Campbell's brother, then to Taylor where they visited Mr. Campbell's parents.

Mrs. Wm. Orr of Ogara came to Alliance Tuesday noon for a short stay with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Witham returned from Aurora Sunday.

Miss Willa Spier of St. Joseph, Mo., is the guest of Mrs. V. I. Jeep.

Three days only—the big one cent sale at Holsten's, the Rexall store.

Birdene Woods has accepted a position with the Haddorf Music Company.

Miss Blanche Kibbie and Mr. F. H. Hulen went to Rushville Saturday on business.

Brown Church of Hemingford came to Alliance Wednesday noon to consult a physician.

The big one cent sale at Holsten's, the Rexall Store, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ethel Lunberry of the Horace Bogue store returned Friday from a trip to McCook, Denver and Atkinson, Kansas.

Mrs. A. G. Brice and family returned Saturday noon from a ten days' visit with relatives at York and Harvard.

Arlene Morrison, of Crawford, came down Wednesday night to be present at the Keeler-Schafer wedding.

Mrs. Forest Hill and little son left Wednesday for Sheridan, Wyo., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Davis and Floy Buchanan, of Hyannis, stopped off at Alliance between trains Wednesday on their return from Denver.

Two for the price of one, and one cent extra. Save money by attending the one cent sale this week at Holsten's, the Rexall Store.

Mr. Crane, father of Mrs. James Keeler, arrived Monday morning to attend the wedding of his granddaughter, Nelle Keeler.

Mrs. Tibbets, of Hastings, mother of Mrs. Robert Reddish, arrived Tuesday morning to spend some time visiting her daughter and family.

Bess Reid and Raymond Collins returned Wednesday night to Lincoln, after a week's visit with friends and with the former's father, George Reid.

Everybody's going to be at Holsten's to take advantage of the big one cent sale this week. Two articles for the price of one, plus one cent.

Mr. Mahaffy has purchased a lot between Tenth and Eleventh on Laramie avenue and will begin construction of a beautiful new modern home Monday.

Mrs. William Mitchell, Mrs. William Carson Shaw, and Mrs. C. L. Drake returned Sunday night from the Black Hills where they have been camping for the past three weeks.

Word was received from Hysham, Mont., that Mrs. Frank Dunning and baby girl were both quite ill at a hospital at Forsyth, Mont. Mrs. Dunning is suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Mrs. Percy Cogswell fell down stairs Sunday night and wrenched her back and tore the ligaments of her right limb. She has her knee in a plaster paris cast and is confined to her bed.

Bess Reid and Raymond Collins of Lincoln went to Hot Springs Monday morning and returned Wednesday morning stopping in Alliance for the Keeler-Schafer wedding.

Don't forget to attend the one cent sale at Holsten's—the Rexall Store—on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. See the big ad, the bills, or call at the store and get your share of the bargains offered.

Sunday morning a camping party, which will include Mrs. Harry E. Gantz, Mrs. Katie Pecknappaugh, Misses Cieta and Helen Harrington, Teresa Morrow, Margaret Harris, Mabel and Doris Young, will leave for the Black Hills. They have taken the Studman cabin at Savoy and expect to be gone about a month.

Rev. Wilson Mills of Omaha will be in Alliance Sunday in company with Rev. C. H. Burwill who is to become the new colporteur for western Nebraska. He will likely make Alliance headquarters for some time. Rev. Mills is superintendent of missions for western district of American Baptist Publication Society.

The following candidates were taken into the Eastern Star lodge Tuesday evening: Mrs. James Walker, Mrs. Forest Hill, Misses Vera Spencer and Marian Mote. Ice cream and cake was served by the officers of the lodge, the ice cream having a pink star in the middle of the white cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Adams and daughter Daisy, of Havelock, arrived Wednesday morning to visit their daughter and sister Mrs. George Davis. They were accompanied by little George Parker and Dorothy Davis, their grand children who have been visiting them for the past two months. Mr. and Mrs. Adams will visit in Alliance a short time and then go to Denver and Colorado Springs for a short visit.

Society Col.

Miss Mae Newberry will introduce Miss Welsh of Omaha, to a number of her friends tonight at a Kensington.

On Wednesday afternoon, July 12, Mr. Charles Sumner Wilson and Miss Eva Irene Latham of Alliance were united in marriage by Rev. John B. Williams, at his residence in Chadron.

Miss Teresa Morrow entertained for Misses Cieta and Helen Harrington at a theatre party Saturday evening. The other guests were Misses Margaret Harris, Thelma Fitzpatrick, Hannah Cotant, Mabel Young, Matilda and Julia Frankle, and Ruth Morris.

About eighty of the younger set were guests of Miss Ruth Morris, Thursday evening, at a dancing party given in compliment to Miss Margaret Welsh of Omaha and William O'Keefe. The out-of-town guests were Miss Margaret Welsh of Omaha, Misses Helen and Cieta Harrington of O'Neill, and Miss Fay Cross of Mitchell. A program of twenty dances was played by Mrs. John Wiker and the Alliance Orchestra.

Reddish-Lee Wedding
The marriage of Ray V. Reddish of Alliance and Miss Martha May Lee of Elmira, Oregon, was solemnized June 8 at the home of the bride in Elmira. The couple took their immediate departure via auto for Alliance, their route being via Butte and Boise. At Blackfoot, Idaho, they visited the families of Sollenberger, Thompson and Gregg, former Alliance people. They then went on to Ogden, Utah, stopping at interesting points en route. Brief stops were made at Salt Lake City and Cheyenne. At Henry, Nebr., they were met by the families of Reddish, Mounds and Cantwell of Alliance and Reddish of Kansas, where two days were spent catching pike in the North Platte river. On arrival at their

We Can Fit You With Glasses for Every Purpose
DRAKE & DRAKE
OPTOMETRISTS
313 1-2 Box Butte Ave. Alliance, Nebr.

ranch home an informal wedding dinner was given, the guests being the families of W. N. Reddish of Mulvane, Kansas; Fred Reddish of Bridgeport; W. H. Swan, Wm. M. Hill, W. D. Zediker, Frank and Lynn Cantwell, Ray Stansberry, Ray Gladstone, Lloyd Johnson, Wm. Mounds, Silas Soules and Wm. Bignell. The couple will be at home to their friends after August 1.

Keeler-Schafer Wedding
Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock at Holy Rosary Catholic church in Alliance was solemnized the marriage of Miss Neile Keeler and Clarence Schafer, both of Alliance. Father Manning performed the ceremony. Al Snedeker of Bridgeport was best man, and Mae Schafer, sister of the groom, was bride's maid. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played on the organ as the bridal party ascended the altar.

Immediately after the ceremony the members of the immediate families and close friends were served a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Keeler. The couple left at noon on their honeymoon trip, going first to Scottsbluff where they will spend a few days with Mr. Schafer's people, going from there to eastern points. The bride is a Box Butte county girl and one of Alliance's accomplished young ladies. In 1915 she graduated from the Alliance high school. The groom holds a responsible position with the Keeler-Coursey Company in Alliance. He is one of the leading members of the Alliance volunteer fire department and with the bride was treated to a ride on the big fire truck following the wedding. They start on their married life with the good wishes of a host of friends.

David Beach Received Discharge
Word has been received from David Beach, a former Alliance boy, who is now stationed at Mercedes, Texas, saying that he will receive his discharge in about ten days, when he will come home for a visit with his parents and friends. He is a member of the Indiana National Guard. About September 1 he will return to Valparaiso, Indiana, to take up his studies in the medical college at that place. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Beach, well known residents of Alliance.

Mrs. Patmore Breaks Wrist
Mrs. Martha Patmore fell and broke her right wrist this morning. She was getting out an electric stove and in doing so received an electric shock which threw her to the floor, resulting in the injury to her wrist.

Consign Your Shipments to the Blain Horse & Mule Commission Co.
Grand Island, Nebraska
Our Motto: "Service and a Square Deal"
Auction Every Tuesday and Wednesday. Private Sales, Daily
For Information write or wire us

Seasonable Sale of Summer Comforts This Week Only

Right now in the Midsummer we are going to sell you these seasonable articles at the following unseasonable prices. Everything included in this list is good reputable merchandise and backed by our regular guarantee, your money back if not satisfied.

TALCUM POWDERS	TOILET CREAMS	BATH BRUSHES
Williams 12c	Santox Greaseless 15c	$1.00 Bath Brush 75c
Colgates 12c	Santox Peroxide 15c	75c Bath Brushes 50c
Rickseckers 8c	Dikes Peroxogen 15c	50c Bath Brushes 30c
Santox Violet 15c	Santox Cold Cream 15c	25c Hand Scrubs 15c
The Very Best	Rickseckers 50c Size 30c
SPONGES	TOILET WATERS	PERFUMES
$1.00 Sponges 75c	50c Eau De Fleurs Toilet Water 30c	50c White Rose 25c
75c Sponges 55c	25c Colgates Toilet Water 19c	50c Locust Blossom 25c
65c Sponges 45c	50c Colgates Toilet Water 35c	$1.00 Jickey 75c
35c Sponges 25c	$1 Colgates Toilet Water 65c	$1.50 Djer Kis $1.00
25c Sponges 19c	75c Ping Pong Toilet Water 50c	50c Apple Blossom 30c
	$1 Theodoris Toilet Water 75c	50c Corylopsis 30c
	$1.25 Attar Tropical Toilet Water $1.00	(Vantines)
	Our Special	SOAPS
	$1.00 Seven Roses Toilet Water 75c	Stearns Carnation 5c
	50c Seven Roses Toilet Water 30c	10c Stearns Lily of the Valley 5c
		10c Stearns Glycerine 5c
		25c Duke Skin Soap 15c
		25c Cashmere Bouquet 20c

These Prices are for cash only
With every $1.00 worth purchased we will give a 50c Volland's Cook Book Calendar free while the stock lasts.
The kiddies get a balloon free with each 25c worth purchased. Don't neglect to take advantage of this timely sale.

THIELE
Druggist and Stationer