Standard Grocery Co., Acquitted And Their Method of Selling Groceries Vindicated

Senator Earl D. Mallery of the Mallery Grocery Co., had the proprietor of The Standard Grocery arrested in May last and charged him with advertising falsely, saying that Schilling's Best Japan Tea was not what we sold, but claimed we sold an "Inferior Tea" as Schilling's Best, but the Wise Judge ruled that the Standard's preponderance of evidence was sufficient to show that the Standard Grocery Co., was justly right and acquitted the defendant.

We maintained at the time this charge was brought that it was on account of "Our selling groceries for less than others, also we believe that you believe it was brought to try and force us to leave Alliance," but we assure you now, as we did when we opened our business, we are here to stay and serve you with the best at the lowest possible prices.

Try us for your fall and winter supplies. We will save you money. Let us figure on your mail orders before you send away. We will save you money.
