Society Col.

On Monday evening Helen Schott entertained in honor of Hannah Cotant, a few of her classmates. Miss Cotant left Tuesday noon for Cleveland, Ohio, where she will attend school this year. The young folks were entertained at out-of-door games, and light refreshments were served.

Marriage of Watson-Patterson (Contributed)

At high noon Thursday of last week a pretty wedding occurred at the Presbyterian manse in Alliance when Mr. Erwin S. Patterson and Miss Adalin R. Watson were united. The beautiful ring ceremony was used by Rev. Lewis McIntyre. Mr. Patterson is the postmaster of Flo-mot, Texas. Miss Watson was book-keeper for the Moore & Blood grocery for a number of months. Their many friends wish them lifelong happy sailing on the matrimonial sea.

Brevity in Railroad Work

Danny O'Brien got a job on the section working for the C. B. & Q. railroad in eastern Nebraska, where they have rivers which occasionally get out of their banks. The superintendent told him to go along the line looking for washouts.

"And don't be so long winded in your reports as ye have been in the past," said the sup. "Just report the condition of the roadbed as ye find it, and don't put in a lot of needless words that ain't to the point. Write like a business letter, not like a love letter."

Well, Danny got on the handcar and went along the track looking for washouts. When he came to the river he stopped the car and wrote
