The Compliment Is Appreciated

After a newspaper man works six and three-quarter days a week, sixteen hours each day; gets up at one o'clock in the morning and works for the next six hours on a murder case in order to get the news first hand; meets the four o'clock morning train to interview W. J. Bryan; rides eighty miles in the hot sun and wind in a Ford auto to visit a fair at a neighboring town getting sunburned until he looks like a boiled ham; rides most of the night the following night in the selfsame Ford in order to be back in time for work the next day, besides doing a few things not mentioned, he feels pretty well repaid for his efforts to find compliments like the following, which appeared in the Omaha Journal last week: "The Alliance Herald reached us last week with twenty pages of home print. It was full to overflowing with good live news and advertising matter. It certainly looks like Alliance was made up of some live wires and business boosters."

Wants to Sell His Outfit

On opening up the office one morning last week we found the following note underneath our door: "Dear mister editor, do you know of anybody who wants to buy a kumduckers outfit, including uniform, coat, cap and kit, also a ticket punch? I wuz agoin ter be a strike breaker but them dog gon mutts didnt go out and I hev no use for the outfit. I need the mun and wil pay you wel if you will git me a buyer. I Won't Work at nothin' else sence I jined the L. W. W.'s. I em agin Wilson bekaus he siopt the strike, ain't yew?"

His Ambition

I wish I was a rock a-sittin' on a hill A-doin' nothin' all day long But just a-sittin' still. I wouldn't eat. I wouldn't sleep. I wouldn't even wash. I'd just sit there a thousand years And rest myself, by-gosh! McClary's Magazine.

The Dosage Indicated It

Johnny: "Pa, did Moses have dyspepsia like you?"
Father: "How do I know? What makes you ask such a question?"
Johnny: "Why our Sunday school teacher says the Lord gave Moses two tablets."

Mistook His "Calling"

A parson of a country church recently tenderly announced that he had received a call to another field. After the service, one of the deacons approached the parson saying: "I've been thinking of the announcement that you made. Are they offering you more money in that new field?"
"Oh, yes, brother," was the reply. "Three hundred dollars more."
"Well, I don't blame you for going, parson, but in making that announcement you didn't use the right term. That isn't a 'call'; it's a 'raise'."—Frances B. Phipps, Florida.

The Common Prayer

"Johnny," said a Sunday school teacher, "do you say prayer every morning?"
"No, ma'am, but my fother does," said Johnny, whose dad is a hardware man.
"And what prayer does your father say, Johnny?"
"He says, 'Oh, Lord, how I do hate to get up.'"

Man Wants but Little

It was in the far South.
"How's times?" asked the tourist.
"Pretty tolerable, stranger," responded the old fellow who was sitting idly on the stump of a tree. "I had a pile of brush to burn and the lightning set fire to it and saved me the trouble of burning it up."
"That was good."
"I had some trees to cut down, but the cyclone leveled them and saved me the trouble."
"Remarkable! But what are you doing now?"
"Waal, stranger, I'm waiting now for an earth quake to come along and shake the potatoes out of the ground."

Candor Uncanned

Senator La Follette, apropos of certain frank confessions in "high finance," said:
"Candid, at any rate, isn't it? In fact, it's all so very candid that it reminds me of Uncle Wash White."
"Uncle Wash had been a servant in the Carroll family for many years, and so, when young Charley Carroll ran for congress, he naturally expected the old man to support him. Charley Carroll was a good deal disappointed, therefore, when, the day after his defeat, he heard that Wash had voted against him.

"He sent for the old man."
"Uncle Wash," he said, "is it true that you voted against me yesterday?"
"Yas, Mars Charles; I done voted de Republican ticket," Uncle Wash admitted.
"Well," said the defeated candidate, "I like frankness, anyway; so here's a dollar for your candor."
"Uncle Wash pouted the dollar. Then he scratched his head, chuckled and said:
"Mars Charles, if you's buyin' can dor you owes me fo' dollars mo' kase I voted agin' you five times."

Wanted Real Cow's Milk

Wayne MacVeagh the lawyer and diplomat, has on the outskirts of Philadelphia an admirable stock farm. One day last summer some poor children were permitted to go over his farm, and when their inspection was done, to each of them was given a glass of milk.
The milk was excellent. It came, in fact, from a $2,000 cow.
"Well, boys, how do you like it?" the farmer said, when they had drained their glasses.
"Gee! Fine!" said one little fellow. Then, after a pause, he added: "I wish our milkman kep' a cow."

SAGE TEA BEAUTIFIES AND DARKENS HAIR

Don't Stay Gray! It Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flushed kidneys and stimulates them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he has lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEY

Eat less meat if Kidneys feel like lead or Bladder bothers you—Meat forms uric acid.

FALL BEST TO BEGIN TEST

Fall is the best time to start cows on official tests, says the dairy husbandry department at the state university farm, Lincoln.

The farmer also has more leisure time to put the cows in shape to care for them during the early part of the test. Information regarding tests may be obtained from the dairy husbandry department. It is a good plan to get full information on testing some time before you plan to start.

MANY HOMES DESTROYED IN CAIRO WIND STORM

Three persons injured—Between 25 and 50 buildings wrecked by the terrific wind

Saturday night's cyclonic storm at Cairo and vicinity caused a loss estimated at from $20,000 to $25,000, covered one-third by insurance. Between 25 and 50 buildings, including half a dozen very large barns, Broderson's greenhouse, the Cairo alfalfa mill, Rasmussen's implement storehouse, the Harrison lumber yards and the city's largest dancing hall, were either partly or wholly wrecked.

The farms of Pat Swan, Krantz & Son, Peter Elliot and C. Miller were most badly hit for farm property. Mrs. Sylvester Deffenbaugh, who was crushed by a falling wall when the house was moved from the foundation, being in the cellar for protection recovered consciousness and will recover. J. E. Rodgers and Mike Martin were slightly injured by flying debris. The greatest power of the storm seemed to remain about 20 feet above the earth, or greater damage would have been done. The area covered was about 4 square miles. The deluge of rain came suddenly and men caught in it report that horses stood stock-still in the roads and absolutely refused to budge.

F. O. B. DETROIT

NO other car at any price has ever approached this wonderful record of endurance.

In addition to this proven sturdiness, remember that the Maxwell averages between 25 and 30 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Moreover, the Maxwell is complete. It has electric starter and lights; demountable rims; one-man mohair top; speedometer; roomy, comfortable seats and an attractive appearance.

Are you particular about details? Do you demand evidence of value? If so, you will investigate the Maxwell, the features, record and reputation of which proclaim it the world's greatest motor car value.
