UP IN ARMS NOW—WANT BETTER SERVICE

The Commercial Club has come to the conclusion that Alliance needs better telegraph service and have determined to file formal complaint with the state Railroad Commission setting forth in a clear and concise manner the need for better service and telling of the inadequateness of the present service.

A meeting of the officers of the telegraph company held not a great while ago promised that two messenger boys would be added here to help expedite the business of delivering messages. Up to the present time the company is doing business in the same old way without the two extra messenger boys. Business and professional men and others complain that it is impossible for them to handle their messages properly over the telephone and that the local telegraph office, which is located in the depot, is too far from their places of business for them to walk down with their messages. Other towns and cities are afforded better service in this respect.

The state Railroad Commission has the power to make the telegraph company give Alliance better service. The Commercial Club expects that within a short time now some action will be taken, soon after the real facts are known.

WOODROW WILSON WINS WITHOUT WAR

Returns Show 29 Electoral Votes More Than Enough to Elect—Has Great Popular Vote

Woodrow Wilson was re-elected president of the United States at the general election held Tuesday of last week. For several days the result was uncertain and first one side and then the other was claiming a victory, but now after more than a week following the election and with but two states really uncertain Wilson has 272 votes in the electoral college and Hughes 243. It takes 266 votes to elect. Minnesota and New Hampshire are still doubtful. Minnesota will remain doubtful until the vote of the national guardsmen on the border is known. New Hampshire will remain in doubt until the official recount is completed. California was in the doubtful list for a time but is now regarded as for the president.

The Popular Choice
President Wilson is the popular choice having received a popular vote of 8,563,713 as compared to 8,160,401 for Hughes, a lead for the President of 403,312. Wilson increased his popular vote over four years ago by 2,360,593. His vote in 1912 was 6,203,120.

The Wilson States
The following states went for Wilson and gave him votes in the electoral college as follows: Alabama 12; Arizona 9; California 13; Colorado 6; Florida 6; Georgia 14; Idaho 4; Kansas 10; Kentucky 13; Maryland 8; Louisiana 10; Mississippi 10; Missouri 18; Montana 4; Nebraska 8; Nevada 3; New Mexico 3; North Carolina 12; North Dakota 5; Ohio 24; Oklahoma 10; South Carolina 9; Tennessee 12; Texas 20; Utah 4; Virginia 12; Washington 7; Wyoming 3. A total of 272.

The Hughes States
Hughes carried the following states and will receive votes in the electoral college as follows: Connecticut 7; Delaware 3; Illinois 29; Indiana 15; Iowa 13; Maine 6; Massachusetts 18; Michigan 15; New Jersey 14; New York 45; Oregon 5; Pennsylvania 38; Rhode Island 5; South Dakota 5; Vermont 4; West Virginia 8; Wisconsin 13. A total of 243.

The vote for a deceased Democratic elector in Washington may give Hughes one elector in that state and a vote for a deceased elector in West Virginia may give Wilson one elector in that state.

West and South Unite
A glance over the states going for Wilson shows that the solid south and the great west united in re-electing a people's president. This is the first election, save one, in which a president was elected who did not receive the New York electoral vote. It shows that the great multitude of common people have been able to elect a president without the aid of Wall Street and Tammany Hall. The west has asserted itself. The west has at last come into its own. Heretofore the west did not count for much politically but it is now entirely probably that four years from now when another campaign is made that both parties will shoot strong ammunition in the states of the great west.

Vote on State Offices
With eighty-eight of the ninety-three counties of the state reporting, Clemmons has a lead of over 1,400 on Prof. Thomas for the office of state superintendent of schools. For land commissioner, Shumway has increased his lead to nearly 4,000, with eighty counties reporting.

Official County Returns

The complete vote for Box Butte county as ascertained by the official count made by the canvassing board composed of County Clerk M. S. Harraraves, John W. Guthrie and H. J. Ellis will be found in clear, tabulated form on the first page of the second section of this issue of the Herald. The table affords ample opportunity for comparison as well as showing the total vote in the county for each candidate. In the case of the president vote it was not thought necessary to give the vote for each elector, so the largest single vote for an elector for each party is given opposite the names of Wilson and Hughes.

POSSIBLE THAT ALLIANCE WILL BE OUT OF THE MUD

Right now there are indications that would lead an observer to think that perhaps there is some possibility that after all Alliance will soon be out of the mud. The Alliance Commercial Club has instructed the secretary to investigate the paving proposition and gather information as to the relative cost of the different kinds of paving, the durability of the several kinds, etc. The secretary will start immediately to gather the desired information that the club may have a better idea of how to go ahead in the work of trying to improve the streets of the city.

No definite action of any sort has been taken as regards the paving of the streets, but with the information at hand the club will be in a position to go at the matter in an intelligent manner later when definite action may be desired.

INSTALL TWO ELECTRIC OVENS

The equipment in the home-economics department at the Central school has been bettered by the addition of two electric ovens. Classes from each of the schools will use the equipment at the Central school.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, Our all-wise and loving Heavenly Father has decided best to remove from our ranks our beloved co-worker Teresa Marie Southard, and

Whereas, We realize that in her death we have lost a staunch supporter of the cause of righteousness who has given many years of loving service in the Master's vineyard,

Be it resolved, that we, the members of the Alliance W. C. T. U., extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in their sorrow;

Resolved, that we point them to God, who alone can comfort and sustain them in the hour of affliction and who has promised to make all things work together for good to those who love Him;

Resolved, that we list our hearts in prayer that He may help us to live righteously that when our summons comes we, too, may rest in peace with Him;

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of our Union, a copy sent to the bereaved family, and published in the Alliance papers.

TURKEYS SELL AT 20c POUND

Those who are fortunate enough to own a flock of turkeys about this time seem bound to make a good piece of change. Saturday live turkeys were sold here for twenty cents a pound. Dennis Landrigan of Ellisworth were in town one day last week looking for a market for sixty-four of the Thanksgiving birds.

SURE SOME MONEY IN SHEEP

Rushville Standard: Wm. O'Mara of Alliance was in the city last Friday and called at the court house to place on file some papers which placed him in possession of "more land," some of which he leased and some of which he purchased. Mr. O'Mara owns one of the best ranches in Sheridan county and is making money hand over fist. In conversation with him we learned that his clip from his sheep the past season netted him $7,390.50, and he sold $12,072 worth of sheep. Under the republican administration and a "high tariff" Mr. O'Mara sold his wool at from 12 to 15 cents per pound. But under a democratic administration and a protective tariff he received from 25 to 28½ cents per pound for wool. Yet there are some people who will insist on voting their own destruction.

CORNER STONE IS TO BE LAID FRIDAY

Masons Will Have Charge of the Ceremonies—Grand Lodge Officer to Be Present

On Friday of this week, November 17, the corner stone of the new federal building now being erected in Alliance to house the post office, federal land office, etc., will be laid. The local Masonic order will have charge of the work and will lay the corner stone according to the Masonic ritual. Most Worshipful Grand Master Andrew H. Viehle, of Norfolk, Neb., will be in attendance and will have charge of the ceremonial. It is expected that there will be a large representation from the Nebraska grand lodge.

Invitations have been sent to the various Masonic lodges in this section of the state to be in attendance and while it is not probable that the lodges, in most instances, were received in time for the several lodges to take any action themselves, it is believed that there will be a large representation of individual members. The mayor and members of the city council of Alliance have accepted the invitation to attend and will do so in their official capacity. Invitations have also been sent to the local representatives of the United States government, to the Alliance Commercial Club and to the schools of the city, and others.

The Most Worshipful Grand Master will be escorted by Bunah Commandery No. 26 Knights Templar. Members of the local order and the members of the Order of the Eastern Star, the women's auxiliary, will be in attendance in full regalia.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the local committee and it is expected that the ceremonies will be most impressive. The arrangements committee is composed of the following: Chairman, Ira E. Tash; J. H. H. Hewitt, George D. Darling, M. S. Harraraves and Clifford Sward. The invitations were attended to by the following committee: F. M. Knight, B. J. Sallows and Earl D.
