

News of Interest to and Pertaining to Alliance Colored People

Edited by Rev. T. B. J. Barclay

To the People: Through the wisdom and judgment of the colored people of the African Methodist Episcopal church I was sent here to build a house of worship for the Lord. Finding only about nine members to work with, the task looked huge, but with the help of God and the assistance of the generous people of Alliance, we will build a church for the betterment of my people—to lift them up—to make them better citizens—to provide a clean, moral atmosphere—to point out the way of the Lord.

Jesus said, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." All good Christians like to be classed among those who love God, but to love your neighbor—the man who needs your help—the man made in the image of God, asking for a man's chance in the race of life—the poor, the helpless and the needy—ah, yes, it is another thing when to love thy neighbor. Be free and willing to help in time of need. The real thought is to give every man and woman a chance to hear the gospel. As an evidence of sincerity help him to attain to the highest manhood and womanhood possible through the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Help us to find the wounded and dying, the ignorant and degraded, and by your financial strength snatch them from the jaws of sin and death and bring them back to life and usefulness and Christian service for God and man.

Help us to help each other, Lord, and feel a brother's cause.

Yours in His name,
REV. T. B. J. BARCLAY,
Pastor.

An idle head is the devil's workshop. No need to be idle. There is plenty to do. Get busy before Chief Jeffers says, "Move on." Work and save your money. Get a home. Get a wife. Make a bank account and be a man, a gentleman, and a good citizen.

Don't forget the special services Sunday night at the A. M. E. church. You are invited to attend.

W. Cole of Edgemont is now in the city. He is working at the roundhouse.

We have a professional knocker in the city. There is no room for knockers. When God had made all good things there was still some dirty material left, so he made the beasts and reptiles and poisonous insects. Yet when he had finished he had some scraps that were too bad to make into a rattlesnake, a hyena, a scorpion or a skunk. So he put all these scraps together, covered them with suspicion, wrapped it all with jealousy, marked it with a yellow streak and called it a—knocker. The knocker is full of everything but progress.

R. J. Cambell is now working for Uncle Sam at the new postoffice building. He is wheeling pressed mail for the masons.

Sam Sheldon is a busy man. Just watch him.

J. O. Minor had a fearful shock the other night. The other fellow took his girl to the show. What do you know about that?

Owen Hampton has gone to Bayard to work during the summer.

Mrs. E. Cannon of Denver is here visiting her husband, who is porter for H. King.

Dr. P. E. Pope, presiding elder of the Colorado conference of the A. M. E. church, will hold the second quarterly conference meeting of the year here Thursday, March 8. All are invited to attend and hear him. Dr. Pope lives in Denver. There is some talk of changing this church from the Colorado to the Kansas conference.

Ira Washington and Mr. "Red" have left the city on a hurried mission. Their destination is not known. The police are cleaning up.

W. C. Ridley of Kansas City was a pleasant caller in town Saturday.

A. P. Curtis is still at the Burlington station where he is making good.

H. B. Lewis, in the railroad service, is on duty in Texas for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ellington are confined to their beds. The pastor paid them a visit and all hope to see them up again soon.

Miss Minnie Ford is caring for Mrs. Shelton and children while Mrs. Shelton is ill.

John Scott is on the sick list.

Mrs. M. L. Barclay is suffering from a severe sore throat.

The Herald had quite a number of new readers last week and will have more. The Herald gets and prints the news—indeed she do.

Don't forget to bring your news notes to the writer at the barber shop on Box Butte avenue two doors south of the Herald office. Copies of the Herald are for sale here every week.

Will Weaver and wife of Edgemont are in the city again.

The Knights of the Shepherds held a splendid meeting at their lodge home in Hamilton's Hall Friday evening. Mrs. Hattie Campbell, Mrs. C. Julius and Miss Minnie Ford were appointed to constitute a reception committee for the order.

John Scott is visiting in Cherry county for a few days. Other night and ordered eggs. The

A stranger went into the cafe the cook asked, "How will you have them cooked?" "Will it make any difference in the cost?" inquired the man? "No, no." "Then cook them on the top of a slice of ham," was the answer. Sam fell out.

Refreshments will be served on Friday night by the ladies of the Knights of the Shepherds at the lodge hall.

Seventy-five cents will pay your subscription for six months to The Herald, or you can buy it by the copy at the barber shop.

William Herrington of Denver paid us a visit a few days ago. He was a pleasant caller.

Mr. Walker of Denver was in town the other day, happy as a lark.

The 15th, of April will be Rally Day for our new A. M. E. church. Who will lead?

Some of the big men have forgotten to pay their dues. See the pastor as your name will be read in the quarterly conference. To be a big man do big things—pay up.

Bible reading class every Sunday evening at six o'clock. Don't miss it.

Rev. J. B. J. Barclay preached at Crawford Sunday while Rev. J. O. Minor filled the pulpit here.

OMAHA LAND BANK DIRECTORS NAMED

Two of Newly Appointed Officials Are Nebraska Men—President is Iowa Man

On Monday the federal farm loan board announced the following appointments for the federal land bank at Omaha:

President and director, D. P. Hogan, Massena, Ia.

Vice President and director, J. M. Carey, Cheyenne, Wyo.

Secretary and director, F. G. Odell, Omaha, Neb.

Treasurer and director, E. D. Morcom, Sioux Falls, S. D.

Director, Warren C. Baker, Mitchell, S. D.

Register and Attorney M. L. Corey, Hastings, Neb.

Who Hogan is

D. P. Hogan, president and director, of Massena, Ia., has been for years a student of rural credits in this country and abroad, as well as of all phases of agriculture pertaining to his section. He was formerly a member of the general assembly of Iowa and has done much to create public interest in the subject of rural credits throughout the state. He has been a practical farmer and for the last 25 years has continuously owned and operated farms in Iowa, Nebraska and Idaho. For 20 years he has been actively engaged in banking, specializing in large farm loans; is now president of the Farmers Savings Bank of Massena, Ia., resigning to accept this appointment.

J. M. Corey, vice president and director, of Cheyenne, was formerly governor of Wyoming and also served as senator from that state. He was a successful lawyer before moving to Wyoming in 1877, where he has large cattle interests. Mr. Corey introduced the bill which admitted Wyoming to statehood and is author of the "Corey Act" which has aided largely in the settlement of the state.

F. G. Odell, secretary and director, of Omaha, is a native of Illinois and has been a resident of Nebraska since 1883. He was formerly editor of a Nebraska farm magazine and is a successful farmer, being widely known as an agricultural economist and writer on agricultural affairs.

Mr. Odell's Record

Mr. Odell was active in the propaganda for rural credit from its inception and has long been officially connected with agricultural organizations. For several years he was chairman of the legislative committee of the Nebraska Farmers' congress and a member of the executive committee of the Farmers National congress of the United States. He served as secretary of the Nebraska Rural Life commission, chief of bureau of agricultural statistics for Nebraska, and at present is executive secretary of the National Conservation congress.

E. D. Morcom, treasurer and director, of Sioux Falls, S. D., has been for thirty-five years identified with the growth and development of the Dakotas, even antedating the division of this territory into two states. He has traveled extensively through these two states and is thoroughly familiar with land values and agricultural needs in his section.

Baker and Corey

Warren C. Baker, director, of Mitchell, S. D., is an agriculturalist and extensive owner of farm lands. He is actively engaged in practical farming and is well informed on the needs of the farmer in the Eighth land bank district.

M. L. Corey, register and attorney of Hastings, Neb., is a graduate of the law department of the University of Nebraska, and has successfully practiced law for ten years. He was twice elected county attorney; was president of the State bar at Clay Center and is now receiver for the First National bank of Sutton.

Will Sloan's Liniment Relieve Pain?

Try it and see—one application will prove more than a column of claims. James S. Ferguson, Phila., Pa., writes: "I have had wonderful relief since I used Sloan's Liniment on my knees. To think after all these years of pain one application gave me relief. Many thanks for what your remedy has done for me." Don't keep on suffering, apply Sloan's Liniment where your pain is and notice how quick you get relief. Penetrates without rubbing. Buy it at any Drug Store. 25c. Adv—3

WELCOME NEWS FOR YELLOWSTONE PARK TOURISTS

Commencing this Summer all tourist transportation within Yellowstone Park will be by automobile. The White ten-passenger cars that were so serviceable during 1916 over the Cody Scenic Road will be used throughout the Park.

Park tickets will cover a complete five-day tour—in and out the same gateway, or in one gateway and out the other, whether via Cody, Gardiner or Yellowstone. All Park tourists, whether patrons of the hotels or the permanent camps, will be carried in automobiles. Touring the Yellowstone Wonderland by automobile will, indeed, be a combination of efficiency and luxury. Nothing in the travel world could be more scenic and satisfying than touring Yellowstone by automobile in connection with the Cody scenic route.

This early news is given to the public that has long waited for it. Illustrated publications will later be furnished on request by the undersigned.
