

The WEEK'S DOINGS

George Neuswanger arrived in Alliance Tuesday to take up his new duties as county agent for Box Butte county. He is a very pleasant fellow to meet and will without doubt make friends fast. The first work of Mr. Neuswanger of course will be to get to know the people of the county. The field work in connection with the office of markets in the marketing of Box Butte potatoes will give the new county agent an excellent opportunity to get acquainted with the farmers and ranchers of the county.

Mrs. A. P. Kell, sister of Mrs. J. W. Tynan of this city and well known here through her former residence, died Sunday morning in Denver after a lingering illness. Mrs. Tynan was in Denver and Mr. Tynan left Tuesday to attend the funeral.

If you don't see me before ordering that new fall suit we will both lose money. New woollens now on display. Roy B. Burns, KEEF-UNNEAT Tailors and Cleaners. 40-1f-8602

A contract of sale was entered into this week for the sale of the E. P. Sweeney ranch of 2650 acres located east of this city. The buyers are Morton Sweeney and Jess Wilson. The consideration is said to be in the neighborhood of $35,000. The new owners will take possession the first of March, next year. Considerable hay land and one lake containing potash are contained in the tract.

E. N. Foss left Monday for his home at Omaha following a visit at the home of his sister here, Mrs. Ray Stansberry.

Mrs. Ray Stansberry is enjoying a visit this week from her mother, Mrs. Ellen Foss, of Omaha. Mrs. Foss arrived in Alliance Monday and will stay an indefinite length of time.

Miss Eunice Overton arrived Sunday night from her home near Spokane to spend the winter at the home of her sister, Mrs. P. Van Graven.

Feagins & Son, commission merchants, report that within the last thirty days they have purchased 275 car loads of feeders on order for eastern stock men. They expect to have purchased better than 300 car loads before the week is over.

Horace Bogue arrived in Alliance Sunday following a three weeks' business and pleasure trip spent in New York. A part of his time was spent in looking at the new merchandise and buying to fill the needs of his store.

The Commercial Club gave a dinner at the Alliance hotel Wednesday noon for Perley Beach and Jay Vance, who left last night for Fort Riley to join the national army. Those in attendance at the Commercial Club dinner other than the guests of honor were four in number, being: Earl Mallory, president of the Commercial Club; H. M. Bushnell, Jr., secretary; County Judge Ira E. Tash; and County Clerk W. C. Mounds, who is also secretary of the exemption board. The Commercial Club plans to feed the other drafted men before they go to Fort Riley.

Work is going along nicely on the new federal building now being erected in Alliance at the corner of unpaved Box Butte and Fourth streets. A car load of interior finishing material, including windows, etc., was received this week and since that time a number of carpenters have been busy. The work is fast nearing completion, although there seems to be considerable yet to do.

On Saturday Miss Alforetta LaMon started to work carrying messages. It is said the management is anxious to hire one or two more girls.

Miss Blanche Kibble returned from Denver Monday where she attended the annual meeting of the stock holders of the Nebraska Potash Company. L. F. Hulan, until recently of Antioch but who has taken quarters at the Drake hotel, was also in attendance at the meeting. Mr. Hulan, who has been general manager of the company, has resigned the active management of the company, being succeeded by Harvey W. Lamb. Mr. Lamb is already at Antioch and has taken up his duties as manager of the company.

When the new pipe line from the potash plant at Holland is completed to the Ryan and Richardson lakes on the James Rice ranch, the company will have access to 320 acres more of water. The lakes are located some fifteen or sixteen miles from the plant. Work on the pipe line will start immediately, the pipe having already been unloaded at Holland.

Fred Smith, who gave his home address as Oecola, Ia., but who stated he has been employed at Grand Island for a period of seventeen months, was arrested at the Burlington depot here Saturday morning on suspicion. It was found he had six pins of booze in his grip. He confessed to having purchased the liquor in a saloon at Douglas, Wyo. In imposing sentence Judge Tash gave him a lecture and a thorough "calling." The fine was $100 and costs. Not being able to pay the fine in full, Smith was sent to the county jail until he could secure the funds or otherwise satisfy the law.

Emil Seeling, who was at the local hospital for treatment, returned to his work at the Herman Krause ranch Tuesday. He was brought to the hospital after accidentally shooting off three fingers on his left hand while cleaning a gun. The first two fingers are entirely gone and the third finger is off at the first joint.

Mrs. L. H. Highland and Mrs. L. Z. Holloway left Wednesday night for Newton, Kans., for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. David. They went via Denver where they stopped over to visit a brother and an aunt.

J. W. Guthrie, insurance man, goes this week to Mackinaw Island, Mich., to attend a national meeting of the agents of the Equitable Life. He is one of the seven Nebraska men who attend the convention. One of the requirements for attendance is that the agent must have written $150,000 in business during the past year. A special train will take the delegates from Chicago to Michigan.

Jake Herman and wife left Tuesday morning for a trip through eastern Nebraska, going via auto. They will visit Lincoln, Omaha and other nearby points on the trip.

"Silent" Jim Keeler, all-around sportsman, has surprised his friends the last few days by appearing in public clad in an up-to-the-minute golf coat. Jim refuses to tell where the golf links are, but evidently has been taking golf lessons—perhaps he has been practicing auto polo with a Ford.

C. J. Faught, representative of the L. C. Smith typewriter, reports the sale of one silent eight and one silent three model machine to Box Butte county, and a silent eight model to Principal Crawford of the Alliance high school.

Former Sheriff A. D. New of Rushville, Sheridan county, motored over Saturday with his son Clarence, on business, returning home Sunday morning.

C. M. Looney and R. C. Strong, two of our live-wire traveling men, returned recently from the Black Hills, where they spent vacations in company with their families.

George Darling has rented the west room on the ground floor of the Masonic temple building for use as a storage room in order to care for the immense stock of furniture and house furnishings which he is stocking up with.

George Darling, Edison dealer, reports the sale of fine Edison machines to a Grand Island party and a fine Chippendale mahogany model to O. C. Moore of Alliance.

The fire department was called out at 6 o'clock Sunday morning to extinguish a small blaze in an outbuilding at 420 Laramie avenue. A few minutes' work with a garden hose sufficed.

Clarence Schafer has resigned as bookkeeper for the Keeler-Coursey garage and his place has been taken by E. M. Martin. Mr. Schafer has accepted a position with the Burlington.

J. C. Moffitt of Baldwin, Ill., forty miles from St. Louis, was an Alliance visitor last week. Mr. Baldwin came to Box Butte county in 1888 and has been gone from the county eighteen years. He homesteaded south of Alliance. While in the city he greeted many old friends.

T. E. Stevens, president of the Potash Reduction Company of Holland, was an Alliance and Hoffman visitor Saturday, attending to business matters. Mr. Stevens is one of the pioneers in the potash business and deserves much of the credit for the rapid advancement of the industry.

Adolph Carey with Mrs. Aville Hart and son, all of Ladora, Ia., arrived Sunday for a visit with Joe Carey, O. A. Odell and relatives. They were much surprised at the crops which grace the farms of this vicinity, coming as they do from the corn belt of the country. Ears of corn, from ten to fourteen inches long, taken by Mr. Odell from the short stalks of the local fields, amazed them.

F. T. Garvin, district agent for the Mitchell automobile, autoed to Gordon Wednesday on business.

Charles Spacht left on 44 today for Plattsmouth, Nebr., where he will teach mathematics and athletics in the high school. He will stop over in Lincoln for a day to attend the state fair.

The remains of Mrs. L. D. Carter, a former resident of Alliance, passed through Alliance Sunday enroute to Table Rock, Nebr., for burial. Mrs. Carter was killed at Portland, Ore., Thursday in an accident to a riding device called "The Whip," used in amusement parks and carried with carnivals. The husband accompanied the remains. Mr. Carter is a former Burlington fireman. The family left here about five years ago. Their small son was burned in a fire in a barn at Seneca just before the family moved from this city.

Albert E. Mitts, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mitts, living near Ellsworth, died Sunday morning from ptomaine poisoning. The body was taken to Rapid City for burial.

Miss Caroline Kirchnavy of Chadron has been visiting here with Miss Mable Ormsby for several days.

School opened in Alliance Monday morning as per schedule. All teachers were here for the opening. The enrollment is said to be the largest in the history of the schools. The enrollment in the freshman class is especially large.

Mrs. Charles Pennicuek is home from a visit of several months with relatives and friends at Los Angeles, and other California points.

The Rebekah circle will meet with Mrs. L. T. Burrow, 606 Missouri, this afternoon, Sept. 6.

J. F. Gill of Colorado, a former resident of Alliance, will conduct services at the city mission Sunday afternoon and evening and every night next week. A general invitation is extended. It is hoped the attendance at all meetings will be large.

Mrs. James Fairfield and Mrs. H. J. Wilson of Antioch were visitors here Monday.

The first edition of the Antioch News will be issued today. The Antioch News succeeds the Alliance News which printed its last issue last week.

H. Halzbach left the last of the week for Billings, Mont.

Mrs. Vern Andress is visiting this week with friends in Deadwood, S. D.

Mrs. Jim Jamison of Holland was here the last of the week having some dental work done.

Five new boilers are being installed in the new boiler room at the potash plant at Holland. Three new swinepens have also been installed.

H. G. Valleau and daughter, Miss Hortense, of Sparks, Nebr., are guests at the A. V. Gavin home this week. Mr. Valleau is an old timer in the railroad game here.

D. B. Keithly of Walla Walla, Wash., has been buying mules in the vicinity of Alliance during the past week. He is shipping the mules east. Mr. Keithly bought the Big-nell mules. C. C. Smith assisted Mr. Keithly.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller of Crawford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bennett Saturday and Sunday. They were on their way to St. Louis.

A baby boy was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mashek, living twenty-five miles north and east of Alliance.

Mrs. Ray Hoag left Tuesday night for McCook where she is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, former Alliance residents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Show of Holland are the parents of a baby boy, born to them Monday.

Misses Tilma Smith and Bernice Nienbore of Antioch were over-Sunday guests of friends in Alliance.

Miss Anna Hoffman of Antioch was in Alliance on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Laing are home from a visit with relatives and friends in Sarpy county.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Marr of Blingham were Alliance visitors the last of the week as was also Mrs. Ruth McCarty.

Judge J. H. Broady of Lincoln, widely-known Lincoln attorney, was in Alliance today, stopping over between trains for a short visit with Lloyd Thomas, editor of The Herald. Judge Broady is an instructor in the law department of the state university, giving part of his time to this work. During the past winter he and Lloyd spent much time together. Lloyd being a member of the committee which drew up the prohibition bill, and Judge Broady assisted the committee in the drafting of the bill. He was much interested this morning in the trial held in county court, the charge being brought under the prohibition law. The judge left this afternoon for Bridgeport and Scottsbluff on business relating to cases in which he is interested.

W. D. Rumer, head of the Rumer Motor Company, returned Wednesday afternoon from a trip to Casper, Wyo. Mr. Rumer is general western representative for the Jackson Automobile Company and on the trip arranged for a representative at Casper.

Leo Nicolai of the firm of Nicolai & Son left Wednesday evening for Denver. He will return before the end of the week, driving back a new Oldsmobile Eight roadster.

J. J. Vance and wife left Wednesday night for Lincoln, accompanying their son Jay that far on his way to Fort Riley, where he and Pearl Beach will enter the cantonment as the first of the new army from Box Butte county. Mr. and Mrs. Vance will take in the state fair at Lincoln before returning.

Clayton Worley left this noon for Lincoln to attend the state fair. Mr. Worley left Wednesday night but he took the wrong train and found himself on the way to Denver before he got "wise." He came back and started over again, making sure this noon that he was on a train bound eastward.

Frank Scanlon of Axtell, Kans., who has been visiting his brother, John, returned home Wednesday night.

John Scanlon and wife were in from Curly, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frost were surprised this week by a visit from Mrs. Frost's brother, who arrived Wednesday.
