Bingham News

R. R. Kincaid and L. E. Ballinger returned from Denver last Thursday.

Owing to sickness in Bingham there were no services at the church last Sunday.

A number of our young people attended the dance held at Ashby Friday night.

E. R. Marshall is working at the potash plant in Antioch. Mrs. Marshall remained on the homestead.

W. W. and F. M. Gilbaughs and Miss Gregory were in Bingham Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Shafenberg have started a restaurant at the old stand in the Williams building.

L. E. Ballinger's new home is nearing completion and soon the family will be enjoying its comforts.

Among the many cases of sickness are M. L. and R. E. Kincaid and their mother, Mrs. R. R. Kincaid. All are reported better.

A case of sickness in almost every family is the record of our town for the past two weeks.

John Gilbaugh and his two sons, Ivan and Bert, with their families, have moved to Fort Collins, Colorado, where they will farm the coming season.

J. T. Burton and family returned from their winter's stay in Lincoln. We are glad to have them at home once more.

W. E. Yake, who has enlisted in the coast artillery, is visiting his parents before leaving for Fort Logan, Colo. He hopes to get in the big fight in France soon. The good wishes and respect of all the people go with him in the noble cause.

That Bingham is not last to have a bank is (almost) an assured fact. This is welcome news to the people in this part of the hills.

The Churches

REVIVAL MEETINGS

Beginning Thursday, April 18, at the Baptist church, evening at 8 p. m., revival services will be conducted by Dr. W. T. Sherrod, the noted evangelist from the southern staff of evangelists, Ft. Worth, Texas. He brings with him a special singer to direct the song service.

Everybody invited to join in this campaign to save the lost and to build up Christian character.

"PROPHECY AND THE KAISER"

Third in the course of special talks on prophecy, Mr. Morris will speak next Sunday morning on "Prophecy and the Kaiser." Is there a plan in the whole system of prophecy? Has God a plan for the liberation of humanity? Has God a plan for the government of nations? Will the divine plan succeed at last or with the Kaiser?

There will be a vesper service at 8 p. m. given by the Juniors. Something novel and highly entertaining. Don't miss this service.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

War is the greatest, the most severe, the most awful, the direct temporal curse and judgment of God upon men. This history of all past wars, the biographies and autobiographies of generals, officers, soldiers and private citizens who have passed thru the times of war, all testify to this sad truth. This dread monster is now stalking among us in its second year. But the hour of need is also the hour of opportunity. Every faithful and patriotic citizen will in these times enter the sanctum of his heart and pledge his individual and unstinted loyalty in words and deeds to this our blessed native land. Every faithful Christian will also turn to the Lord with his whole heart and lay hold of his promises. They will lift up hands and hearts pleasing to the Arbitrator of Battles and the King of kings, and will implore him to have mercy upon our people. For these ideals of true patriotism and Christianity the Lutheran church stands. Rev. F. Worthman next Sunday will preach a patriotic sermon along just these lines. Services commence at 2 p. m. Everybody welcome.

DEGENERATION

Text: Romans 6-23, For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

"There are but two religions—Christianity and Paganism—the worship of God and idolatry. A third between these is not possible. Where idolatry ends, there Christianity begins and where idolatry begins there Christianity ends."—Jacobi.

"A religion that never suffices to govern a man will never suffice to save him. That which does not distinguish him from a sinful world, will never distinguish him from a perishing world."—John Howe.

"No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will hold to one and despise the other."

"He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth."—Jesus. He who makes no progress, degenerates. While bathing in a certain stream I attempted to stand still but the strong current carried me downward. So it is with him who tries to remain neutral in the work of the Lord. Degeneration weakens a man, his posterity and his country. There are five steps in regeneration which lead us to say, "the wages of sin is death."

The first step in degeneration is unbelief. "In all unbelief there are these two things—a good opinion of one's self and a bad opinion of God."—H. Bonar.

Here are several positive statements of the Scriptures concerning belief. "He that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him." "I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by me." "And in none other is there salvation; for neither is there any other name under heaven that is given among men, wherein we must be saved."

Unbelief of the eternal gospel truth leads to disobedience. Israel's unbelief led to disobedience and their bones bleached in the wilderness. Unbelief leads to all kinds of disobedience and then man is full of guilt. If one permits his conscience to be seared or branded as with a hot iron, the guilt is there just the same. By doubling and redoubling disobedience the burden of guilt becomes heavier and heavier. A certain unfortunate mortgaged his home. Unable to lift the debt he bore his burden to the grave. Some mortgage their souls to the Devil and bear the burden of guilt to the grave. By their own acts of disobedience they are exiled from God.

When Adam disobeyed he tried to hide from God. The same was true with Jonah. So today the unrepentant desires to get away from God. He does not want to be told of the penalty. He desires sermons to tickle his ears. But "the wages of sin is death."

So unbelief leads to disobedience. This brings on guilt which exiles one from God with the result: death. As the scriptures teach, Heb. 10:27. For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, their remaineth no more sacrifices for sin, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation which shall devour the adversary. While the wages of sin is death there is a way of escape. The free gift of God is eternal life thru Jesus Christ our Lord.

Stephen J. Epler, minister Church of Christ.

ANDREW G. STONER BURIED AT OSCEOLA

Prominent Angora Citizen Died in Alliance on Friday — Remains Interred at Osceola

Andrew Grant Stoner was born near Osceola, Nebraska, on December 7, 1874. He died at St. Joseph hospital at Alliance on Friday, April 12, at 6:15 p. m., having undergone an operation for appendicitis on Monday, April 1.

He was engaged in farming in Polk county, Nebr., until the spring of 1904, when he took up a homestead near Angora.

He was married to Abbie B. Carline at Osceola on September 25, 1899. Two children were born to this home—Mildred C. Maybell, wife of Bruce E. Maybell, of Angora, and Kenneth C. Stoner, of Angora.

After experiencing the hardship of early pioneer life in Cheyenne county, he became engaged in stock raising. He has but recently completed a fine modern home on his ranch near Angora.

He was a public spirited citizen, honest, honorable and upright in all his dealings.

His relatives were notified on Thursday that he would not get well. His wife, son, daughter and her husband and his mother, Mrs. Alice E. Stoner, of Osceola, and his brother, S. C. Stoner, and Andrew Stoner, of Lincoln, and his two nephews, Wallace D. Stoner and Andrew Stoner, and his brother-in-law, Leo Carline and wife, were all at his bedside when he passed away.

He left to mourn his loss, his immediate family, his mother, three brothers and two sisters and a host of friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Alice E. Stoner, of Osceola, his mother; Mrs. Alma A. Dolan, of Osceola, his sister; Miss Lillian U. Stoner, from Seattle, Wash., his sister; L. L. Stoner, of Angora, his brother; C. A. Stoner, of Osceola, his brother; S. C. Stoner, of Lincoln, his brother; his father, C. D. Stoner, having pre-deceased him about one year ago.

Short funeral services were had at the chapel of Darling's undertaking apartments at Alliance on Sunday, April 14, at 11 a. m. Rev. E. L. Case, of Angora, conducted the services.

Among the many friends and relatives who attended the services at Alliance were the following:

Miss Lillian U. Stoner from Seattle, Wash.; Clifton Stoner, of Concordia, Kans.; Andrew Seger and Bert J. Seger, of Scottsbluff, and A. B. Carline and wife of Scottsbluff; Fred Helsen, of Concordia, Kans.; S. C. Stoner, of Lincoln, and the following from Angora:

Abbie B. Stoner, Kenneth C. Stoner, Mildred C. Maybell, Bruce E. Maybell, Leo Carline, Rev. E. L. Case and wife, Herman Case, R. T. Ely, H. A. Glau and family, John Berry, Mr. Boodry, Lyle Glau and wife, A. H. Atwell and wife, James Perkins and wife, Mrs. Crawford, Floyd Friend and wife, Alva Gillespie, A. L. Shipley, W. N. Thompson and wife W. G. Gentle and wife, Miss Emma Gentle, Neil Norris, Agnes, Lila and Fern Miller, W. E. Powell and family, Bert Hutchison, Harry Fetters, Geo. Micek, F. A. Hughes.

The remains were taken to Osceola for interment in the Osceola cemetery. Further funeral services were held at the M. E. church at Osceola at 10 a. m. Tuesday and were conducted by the pastor.
