U. S. Naval Reserves

Then Look Every Man and Your Girl in the Eye.

Learn a trade while doing your duty. YOUR DUTY in time of war is to offer yourself, your all—not your "bit." Stop flimsy excuses. Be a man, among the cleanest and highest paid fighters in the world—the U. S. NAVAL RESERVES.

All Branches of the NAVAL RESERVES are wide open. You must have a release from your draft board, and proof of your United States citizenship, such as a statement from your board that you were born in the United States, or a sworn statement from your parents as to when and where you were born.

The War's Biggest Hero

Is the Man Who Today Will Enlist
in the Navy to Be a U. S. Fireman

Ages 18 to 35. Biggest pay, best food of any service on earth. $36.20 a month with all living expenses.

Automobile men, drivers and mechanics of all kinds among 50 other ratings urgently needed to be filled.

PAY STARTS AT ONCE

Firemen work four hours and are off eight, then four on and twelve off, four on and eighteen off four on and twenty-four hours off. A fireman is off every other day in port. He never has extra duty, for firemen must be kept ready for emergency runs. He steps up to an engineman who can take charge of any power plant in the country.

Days for drafted men to volunteer are numbered. Get a release from your draft board now, while you can. Boards will release you if you get busy, but not if you sit around home and wait.

United States insurance and allowances go to the men in the Navy. Ages, 18 to 35. Good character and full United States citizenship are required and imperative.
