

THE KITCHEN CABINET

One of the chief causes of financial pressure in modern life is the failure of some girls and women to realize that money does not fall like the dew, gently from heaven.

SOME GOOD DISHES.

Lima beans, fresh or dried, make most substantial dishes served in various ways.

Lima Beans a la Poulette.—Shell sufficient young lima beans to make a pint, cover with boiling salted water and cook until tender. Pour off all but a half cupful of the water and add one cupful of rich milk. Mix a little cold milk with a tablespoonful of flour and stir into the milk; cook five minutes, add salt and pepper to taste, a few drops of onion sauce, two beaten eggs, one teaspoonful of butter and the same amount of chopped parsley.

Vegetable Soup.—Cut into half-inch dice sufficient carrot and turnip to measure one-third of a cupful each; cut one-half cupful of celery into pieces, dice one and a half cupfuls of potato, and slice one-half of an onion. Put three tablespoonfuls of butter in a stewpan, add the vegetables, cover and cook 15 minutes. Add a quart of water and cook for an hour. Season with salt and pepper and serve with a garnish of parsley.

Veal Hash.—Chop a piece of cooked veal fine. To a pint of the chopped meat allow a teaspoonful of onion juice, a teaspoonful of salt, one-third of a teaspoonful of paprika, one teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, and a tablespoonful of tomato catsup. Melt a tablespoonful of drippings in a frying pan, moisten the meat with gravy, add seasonings and spread in the pan. Spread over the top one teaspoonful of the drippings and cook slowly for 15 minutes; it should be moist. Heap the hash on buttered toast and place a poached egg on each.

Peach Trifle.—Boil together for five minutes a cupful of sugar and one cupful of water with the stones from a quart of peaches. Allow the stones to stand in the sirup for ten minutes. Skim them out and lay in the peeled peaches, stewing until tender. Line a dish with cake soaked in any fruit, add the peaches and cover with whipped cream sweetened and flavored with almond.

MICKIE SAYS

SAY, FOLKS! WHEN YOU WRITE PIECES FOR THE PAPER, FOR THE LOVE OF MIKE, SIGN YOUR NAME TO 'EM SO THE BOSS WONT THROW 'EM ON THE FLOOR FER ME TO PICK UP. HE SAYS AN UNSIGNED LETTER AINT ANY BETTER THAN AN UNSIGNED CHECK!

It is not what we wear that makes us what we are. A curate of an Episcopal church in New York was riding across on the ferry one morning when two Irishmen came along the deck and one raised his hat, said: "Good morning, father." Whereupon the other turned to his friend, who had spoken and said: "Ah, a devil a bit is he a Father, Pat, he's married and got three children."

HUSBAND SWALLOWS HER SILVER SPOONS

Disordered Nerves Held Responsible for Philadelphia Man's Peculiar Appetite.

Philadelphia, Pa. — For several weeks Mrs. Joseph Quinlan had been mystified by the disappearance of numerous articles from her household. She changed servants half a dozen times, but the articles, such as silver spoons and pieces of household hardware, continued to be missed. Recently her husband became ill and was sent to the Philadelphia hospital, and there the surgeons cut open his stomach and removed the following articles:

Unable to Overcome His Appetite When Tempted.

- Thirty-four silver teaspoons.
- One alcohol cigar lighter and chain.
- One padlock.
- Twelve screen door hooks.
- One glass medicine dropper.
- Six ten-penny nails.
- Thirty-six carpet tacks.
- Thirteen metal buttons.
- Six safety pins.
- Forty pieces printers' type.
- Thirty-two coins.
- Four souvenir medals.
- Nineteen screws (assorted sizes).
- Two hundred and forty-seven pebbles.

Disordered nerves were responsible. Mr. Quinlan confessed he was unable to overcome his appetite when tempted, for instance, by a nice nickel-plated screen-door hook.

SHIPWRECK COMRADE LEAVES HIM FORTUNE

San Francisco.—An acquaintance formed in a boat full of castaways half a century ago bore tangible fruit for Frederick Clough of San Francisco, who has been notified that through the will of Henry Ferguson of Hartford, Conn., he is left a bequest of $100 a month for the rest of his life.

Clough is now seventy-one years of age. When he met Ferguson, Clough was a sailor on the old clipper ship Hornet and Ferguson was a passenger. The ship caught fire in the South Pacific and the two escaped in a boat with 13 members of the crew. After 44 days of extreme hardship, during which they ran short of both food and water, the party finally made one of the Hawaiian islands. There was the only boat saved. Clough and Ferguson both came to San Francisco, the former remaining here and the latter returning to his home in Hartford.

PACKS LOVE MESSAGE IN ICE

Ardent Message on Cantaloupe Wrapper Finds Way to Heart of Illinois Woman.

Calxico, Cal.—Despite the fact that it was sent halfway across the continent packed in ice, an ardent love message on a cantaloupe wrapper found its way into the heart of Miss Rosetta Saylor of Mattoon, Ill.

It was sent by Hugh W. Willis of Calxico. Recently they were issued a marriage license by County Clerk Cook, and it is understood the nuptials took place.

Willis was engaged in the cantaloupe business at Heber last year. A sudden impulse drove him to write on the inside of one of the wrappers: "To the girl who gets this—write to lonely Hugh White Willis, Calxico Cal."

Not two weeks elapsed before Willis got a letter from his bride-to-be.

Beats Dog Catcher.

Livermore, Me.—A water spaniel named Toto, belonging to Dr. George Johnson, escaped from the dog catcher by leaping into the storm water sewer. The next day, after a heavy rain, the dog stole up behind the dog catcher in the other end of the town and bit him. Then he returned home in safety through the sewer. The dog now lives on sewer rats.

They Make a Gallon of Gas Work Overtime—the Chalmers Hot Spot and Ram's-Horn Manifold

You don't have to fill up the gas tank in a Chalmers every time you take the car out.

You have two little Scotch sentinels up in your engine that watch the gas for you. Both are stingy.

One is the great Chalmers Hot Spot device, which isn't much to look at because it's so simple. It performs an operation on gas very much like a coffee grinder does on coffee. Only it also warms up the gas and puts it in 100% condition for power results.

The other is the Ram's-Horn Manifold, which took 90 days to design once the Chalmers engineers found their idea was right.

This device carries the gas vapor from the Hot Spot to the cylinders with almost hospital tenderness, so that when the explosions come there's not a thing left except the power.

And all of it goes to the rear wheels, and such a magnificent, soft, easy flowing kind of power that you are tempted to believe it almost supernatural.
