CAUGHT IN THE LANDSLIDE

Although we would like to have had it differently, the Republican landslide on Tuesday caught the editor of The Herald with the other Democratic candidates, local and state, and buried us under the avalanche of straight Republican ballots which were cast in the 73rd representative district. However, we are now up again and smiling and feel certain that we will be able to live through the next two years just as happy as though we had ridden the political waves to success at the polls.

There are no sore spots on us and we shall continue on our way contented. It may be necessary at times for us, in the semi-public life of a newspaper editor, to call attention to evils which need correcting or to criticize wrongdoers or to defend ourselves against attacks from others, but in doing so we shall always avoid doing it with malicious intent but rather for the good of our fellow men.

Our letter of congratulation was sent to our successful opponent yesterday, and read as follows:

Alliance, November 6, 1918.
 Mr. T. L. Briggs,
 Antioch, Nebraska.

Dear Mr. Briggs:
 The unofficial election returns, from Box Butte and Sheridan counties, although still incomplete, indicate your election by a substantial majority.

I therefore wish to offer you my hearty and sincere congratulations and take this opportunity to wish you a successful term in the office which I have held for the past two years.

I feel certain that you will serve the people of the 73rd district to the best of your ability during the coming term, and wish you the best of success.

Very truly yours,
 (Signed) LLOYD C. THOMAS.

HEMINGFORD

Mrs. Elinor Olds returned Thursday from Jireh, Wyo., where she had been for the past two weeks visiting her daughter Mrs. Joe Kuhn.

W. C. Muonta came up from Alliance Friday of last week on business.

Miss Regina Deising returned Sunday from Iowa, where she had been the past year visiting relatives and friends. Her many friends are glad she is home.

Mrs. Leora Rustin returned to Chadron the latter part of the week.

FALL Footwear

For the entire Family.

You'll be delighted when you see our new arrivals in Fall Footwear—delighted at the snappy, new shapes and the high quality of the leather. The whole general appearance of these Shoes is so far above anything we ever thought we would be able to show you this fall, that we want you to see them.

this week.
 The influenza seems to be dying out. There are only three or four new cases this week: last week there were four deaths caused by influenza. Gordon Oliver, the little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, died at his home here Friday morning.
 Henry Schmek died at his home about fourteen miles northwest of here Friday afternoon.
 Ralph Willis died at his home about seven miles southwest of here Saturday.
 Chester Pannee Leggins, an Indian boy, died here Saturday. They took him to Pine Ridge agency for burial.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pierce, Mrs. Alice Curtis and Anna Heath went to Alliance Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ben Curtis.

Local News Notes

Miss Edna Donovan, of Burton & Reddish office, is ill with the influenza.

J. W. Thomas was in the city Thursday looking after business interests.

Word has been received from Bryan Foss and Jerome Fleming that the ship they were on has safely arrived overseas.

Volley Wright of Downs, Kans., former Box Butte county citizen, was in the city this week buying potatoes to be shipped to his locality.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Bald, father and mother of F. A. Bald of Alliance, are visiting with the latter for a few days. Their home is at Aurora, Nebr.

Mrs. Lloyd Thomas and Mrs. C. C. Smith, members of the Y. M. C. A. campaign committee, spent yesterday in Hemingford on matters relating to the campaign to be started November 11.

James Malone left Thursday noon for Denver, after receiving a message saying his wife and three children were seriously ill with the influenza. Mr. Malone had the flu here the past week, and was quite sick.

Word has been received that Floyd Lotspeich, Elmer Strehlow and Howard Rider, who left here Monday noon for Denver to enlist, have been accepted. Warren Lotspeich, who went with them, did not pass the examinations.

Rev. A. A. Layton was called to Billings, Mont., Saturday, on receipt of a telegram announcing his son-in-law's death. Mrs. Layton has been with another daughter, who is ill with the flu. Mr. Layton will be gone about a week.

A vacation meditation:
 "Little bank roll, 'ere we part,
 Let me hug you to my heart,
 All the year I've clung to you;
 I've been faithful, you've been true.

Little bank roll, some day
 You and I will start away
 To a gay and festive spot.
 I'll come home, but you will not."

Miss Eunice Hutchinson, who has held the position of stenographer for the Thomas-Bald Investment Company for several months, left with her mother Sunday night for their former home at Des Moines, Iowa. While here they made their home with a brother and son, Morris Hutchinson.

Word has been received that Noel Young, one of the Alliance boys in the service of Uncle Sam, is still on Goat Island. They have not had any influenza there, and they selected some of the boys to take care of patients in the camps around there. Noel was quite disappointed as he was not chosen, and the man next to him was drawn for this work.

Word was received that Jerome Fleming was not in France. He had written to his folks that he was ready to go across, and then they did not hear from him for about two or three weeks and supposed he was on his way over. But his company was merely transferred again, and he and Jessie Simpson of Alliance went through Sidney yesterday. Jessie called up his parents, in Alliance, but Jerome didn't get a chance.

One of Uncle Sam's soldier boys sends in the following, written on a postal card:

"Eve had no Christmas,
 Neither did Adam,
 Didn't have socks;
 Nobody had 'em.
 Didn't even have cards;
 Nobody did.
 So take this and have it
 On Adam—old kid."

Nebraska's quota of the Fourth Liberty Loan was $70,373,350. T. C. Byrne, chairman, and E. F. Folds, secretary of the Nebraska Liberty Loan committee, reported last Monday morning that Nebraska has subscribed more than her quota, but just how much more was not definitely known. Practically every county reporting sent in the good word of oversubscriptions. Old Nebraska hasn't failed yet to "go over the top" in fine style on every loan, donation or other war activity.
