G. L. Shumway, state land commissioner, was in Alliance Monday between trains while on his way to Lincoln. Mr. Shumway had been in Denver where he went on account of the death of his son-in-law, John Rider, who was a victim of influenza. At the close of his term as state land commissioner on January 1st, Mr. Shumway will return to Scottsbluff to make his home.

W. D. Rumer left Wednesday on a business trip to points north and west. The Rumer Motor Company is distributing agent for the territory for several hundred miles around Alliance for the well known line of Jackson and Elear automobiles. The company expected to add a new department soon after the close of the war—an aeroplane department. Frank Rumer of this firm is now in the aviation branch of the army and is getting experience that will prove valuable not only to him but to the firm as well when they add a line of aeroplanes to their already large business.

Rev. Charles R. Tyner, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, Lincoln who recently returned from doing Y. M. C. A. work in the trenches on the western front in France, where he was severely gassed, has been asked to become dean of the cathedral in the diocese of western Nebraska. Rev. Mr. Tyner is one of three brothers in the ministry of the Episcopal church. Rev. Fred D. Tyner, who was for several years rector of St. Andrews, Omaha is now a rector in Minneapolis. Rev. St. George Tyner is rector of the Episcopal church at Fremont, Neb. Mrs. Charles R. Tyner who was Miss Mary Sprague, was an Omaha girl and lived at 4338 Franklin Street.—Omaha Bee.

R. M. Baker, well known Alliance traveling man, made a trip to Denver a few days ago on business. Mr. Baker has been connected with the Donaldson Fruit Company of Grand Island as their representative for this territory and was called to Denver on notice that this company had been consolidated with the following firms: Brule & Bourk Co., Taylor Fruit Co., and the Carpenter Douglas Fruit Co., the new firm to be known as Rouk-Donaldson-Taylor, Inc. The new firm will engage in the wholesale distribution of fruits, vegetables and produce exclusively, the officers and directors of the new firm to be: President, H. J. Bourk; Vice-President, A. S. Donaldson; Treasurer, J. L. Taylor; F. R. Carpenter. The company headquarters will be at Denver and departments are being established for deciduous fruits, tropical fruits, citrus fruits, potatoes and vegetables, miscellaneous and staples each under the management and supervision of the most experienced men in the business. There will also be a carlot and jobbing department which will give special attention to carlot shipments; in fact every advantage looking towards a more economic and at the same time efficient and effectual distribution of food products will be a feature of the new firm.
