

LASS SAYS YANKS WERE HONEST AND PAID THEIR DEBTS WITHOUT THE DUN

Two Salvation Army Workers Found the Doughboy a Reliable Borrower in Almost Every Instance 'Tis Said.

Away from home and in many instances friends the Yankee doughboy learned by dear experience that "a friend in need is a friend indeed," according to the reports brought back from "over there" by those who were in position to do some of the boys a turn when it was needed and that the doughboy fully realized that such friendship meant to him, as well as that he is naturally of honest make-up is evidenced from the following report recently made by two Salvation Army workers, just back from France:

Borrowers—Boys of 121st Artillery Number of borrowers.....203 Amount borrowed.....29,000 francs Average loan.....59 francs Largest loan.....500 francs Amount repaid.....19,960 francs Bad accounts.....2 Loss.....40 francs Report on Credit of Doughboys.....A No. 1

Commandant and Mrs. J. M. Hale of The Salvation Army returned from twenty months of work in France thoroughly satisfied that the American doughboy is honest.

"We were with either the artillery or engineers during our entire stay and the soldiers we met were a square and high-hearted set of men," said the commandant. "Some of them were chronically broke and steady borrowers but they always paid their debts."

"When their pay envelopes were late they were out of money and came to us. We loaned 20,000 francs to one regiment alone and it was all repaid but 40 francs. These would have been paid had we gone out to collect them for I am sure the boys who borrowed simply forgot."

"The lads would come and say to my wife or me, 'Ma, (or if I was there 'Dad') I need a hundred francs. Here's my I. O. U.'"

"And they received the money. When the ghost walked they would come to us first and take up their paper, as they called it. We never dunned them and I must say they never even tried to walk on the other side of the road if they owed us money and had not paid. Instead they would say 'Dad, I was short but will make good next time.'"

"I know our experience was the same as that of other Salvationists and out of probably over 1,000,000 francs loaned in the aggregate the loss was not over 1,000, if it was that much. More than that I believe if any of the delinquents read this they'll send in what they owe."

"They were a square lot of fine, clean-cut, manly boys."

Commandant Hale declares that those who complain of the H. C. of L. had better not go to France these days.

"Eggs are $1.80 a dozen and chickens, old hens, cost between $2.50 and $3.00 each, regardless of weight," Commandant Hale remarked. "Soap that sells here for ten cents a bar brings forty-two cents over there. A cantaloupe that would cost twenty cents in Chicago costs $1.40 in France. Last fall turkey was $1.15 a pound and not good at that."

"Clothes run from three to ten times higher than in this country. In fact the only cheap necessity is vegetables. The French are getting all they can for everything they sell."

Our boys know they are being held up, but pay and kick to themselves. Bad as conditions are here, they are far better than across the seas."

LIVESTOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Cattle Receipts 28,000, New Record—Prices Lower

HOGS SELL 15-25c HIGHER

Receipts Very Light.—Sheep and Lamb Receipts Also Break Record With 70,000 Head.—Trade 50c or More Lower.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Sept. 15, 1919.—Cattle receipts today were estimated at 28,000 head, breaking the record made three weeks ago. Trading was more or less slow in all classes and values ruled lower all around. Butcher stock was generally 50c lower and closed extremely slow at the decline. Desirable stockers and feeders sold mostly 25@50c lower than last week's close and a similar decline was noted on beef.

Hog receipts were only 2,300 head, hardly enough being here to make a market. Values were generally 15@25c higher with an occasional sale as much as 50c higher. Most of the sales were made at $16.00 @ $16.50 with a top at $17.25.

Sheep and lamb receipts also set a new record this morning, approximately 70,000 head being yarded before the day was out. Fat lambs sold 50c lower with the top at $14.65 and old sheep showed a similar decline. The break was even more severe in feeders which broke 50@75c. Good to choice feeders sold mainly at $12.00 @ $12.50.

Tip to Authors.

A youthful aspirant applied to a successful authoress for advice as to how to succeed in literature. "You need indomitable perseverance, a type-writer and a mangle," was the reply. "Do you mean I had better take in washing?" asked the aspirant. "Nonsense! You need the mangle to take the creases out of your manuscripts. Mangle them well, and then, unless the editors have burned them with cigarette ash, no one can tell they have been out before."

$1,000 GAME OF BASE BALL

BIGGEST GAME OF THE SEASON TO BE PLAYED IN WESTERN NEBRASKA, WILL BE PLAYED AT THE FAIR GROUNDS, ALLIANCE

SUNDAY, SEPT. 21st.

ANGORA vs. ALLIANCE

BOTH LINE-UPS TO BE, MAN FOR MAN, AS PLAYED IN LABOR DAY GAME IN ALLIANCE. EACH TEAM IS ALLOWED ONE SUBSTITUTE

Alliance's base ball team is stronger than ever. Each evening they are out on the diamond keeping themselves in shape to administer to Angora a trimming much more decisive than the one of the first game. Pitcher Strubel will be here for the game and when he turns loose there will be nothing to it but "one, two, three." The other members of the team are "just ra rin' to go". Watch them dazzle their opponents in this big game.

The Angora team was defeated by Alliance on Labor Day, but still the boys imagine they have the best club. We know they have some good ball players but when it comes to being able to trim Alliance "it can't be done". "Stub" Fenning, who has been pitching for the sand hills gang will be on the mound for them in this game and Eddie McNulty will do the receiving. They're going their best to get into perfect form for the contest.

FRANK NEWHOUSE, of Denver, will umpire this big game.

Mr. Newhouse, who is one of the sport writers for The Denver Post is also one of the best known amateur base ball umpires in the middle west. During the Post tourney at Denver a couple weeks ago he umpired each and every game and was later employed at Casper, Wyoming during the tournament. He allows no "rough stuff" and gives the teams only what is earned. In this game he will be the sole and only judge and will direct the game in true major league style.
