FISH PLANTED IN ALLIANCE TERRITORY

20.000 of the Finny Tribe Furnished By State and Planted in Lakes and Streams in This Section.

The state fish car arrived in Alliance Tuesday at noon and delivered to the Alliance Anglers' club, of which F. E. Holsten is president, and Lloyd C. Thomas is secretary, more than half a carlcad of baby fish, which were planted during the afternoon in lakes and streams near Alliance. The fish included 2,500 bass, 3,000 blus gill sunfish, 2,000 croppies, 2,000 southern bull frogs, 500 bull heads and 7,000 perch.

Those who assisted in planting the fish, in addition to Mr. Holsten and Mr. Thomas, were Hugh eBal, Father Manning, F. A. Bald, Roy Beckwith.

In addition to the large shipment, a small supply was received by private parties, which included a supply of perch and sunfish to Robert Graham, which were planted in Storm Lake, on his ranch south of Alliance; and a supply of croppies, bullheads, perch and bullfrogs to D. R. Lawrence, which were planted by him in a lake on his place north of Alliance.

George K. Koster, state game warden, who accompanied the car, urges that parties wanting fish for planting next spring make their applications now to the state game and fish commission. The new state fish car, which is the finest in the Unitet States, left Gretna Monday morning and delivered fish for Lake Erickson, near Aurora; Donovan, near Grand Island; St. Michael, Ellsworth and Bingham. Mr. Koster was accompanied by Thomas Carroll. deputy United States marshal for Nebraska; James Covney, deputy game warden, of South Sioux City; and State Veterinarian W. T. Spencer, formerly of Alliance.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The football rally held Thursday morning was very enthusiastic. Speeches were made by Mr. Prince and Howard Lotspeich, captain of the team. The game Friday ended more gloriously than we had anticipated. Of course, we knew they could do it, but hadn't dared to hope they could do it so well. Scottsbluff was apparently stunned with surprise. It was a great sight to see some of our lighter boys tackle fellows twenty pounds heavier than themselves, and bring them to the ground. The progcess our team has made is remarkable, but the end is not yet. We have to square accounts with ayard. next Friday, and from now on we have a game a week for nearly the entire season.

Among out-of-town visitors Fri day were Superintendent Crawford, of Chadron, who umpired the football game, and Superintendent Peters, of Rushville, who was visiting in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Cross entertained the teachers o fthe high school at a duck dinner Monday. All through the morning the delicious odors brought smiles of anticipation to the faces of the invited guests, but the realization was the best of all. Several persons were heard to remark that they had to make an effort to keep from quacking. Accounts of the expedition, of which the dinner was a result, called forth much laughter.

Once upon a time a duck hunter sat down violently upon the bank immediately after firing his gun. When asked why he brought such a gun, he remarked that it was the only thing he was able to bring that had any "kick" to it.

Several Petitions Have Been Filed in Past Ten Days-Some of the Late Cases

Ethel May Quinn has filed a petition asking for a divorce from her husband, Edward Raymond Quinn, non-resident. The couple were married in Deadwood, S. D., on May 12, 1914, and have no children. Or September 1, the petition alleges, the defendant abandoned her, and, though an able-bodied man, able to provide for her, he has failed to do so for the past two years. She asks a divorce and the restoration of her maiden name, Ethel May Ward, Mrs. Ward states that she has been a resident of Box Butte county for over that they were married in Alliance in November, 1917. They have one child. On the fifteenth of April, 1919, the petition alleges, the defendant stole an automobile from W. W. Norton and was on October 11 sentenced to imprisonment for a term of from one to seven years. uted to her support.

Jesse W. Lynn asks a divorce from Nela Lynn, to whom he was married January 5, 1902, and with whom he lived until October 23, .1913, when, his petition states, she abandoned him. The couple have no children. Alta Maud Lackey has filed a petition asking for a divorce from Lawrence H. Lackey, who has failed and neglected, according to the petition, to establish and maintain a home for her. On November 16, 1918, the defendant is said to have gone to Antioch to work and persuaded her to give her consent to the sale of an equity in their Alliance home, her at Antioch. He requested her to live with her mother until this could be done. The petition states that not only did he fail to do so, but that he sold the funiture of the home without her knowledge or conto go to work and has since failed to provide for her and her children. The couple were of different religious faiths, and he has refused to allow her the custody of their four children, who are now with his mother. She asks for a decree and the custody of the children.

The Community club has no funds for such a purpose, and neither has the city, although City Manager Smith, to whom the case was refeered, managed to meet the emergency.

It developed that the W. C. T. U. are financially unable to keep up the work. There has been a heavy drain upon them, and as a result the rent for the city mision is in arrears Rev. J. Orrin Gould said that he believed the churches in Alliance had all the load they could carry at present, and he favored turning the matter over to a Salvation army corps. It was objected to this that there is no post in Alliance, and that the city could not very well enter into an ar-

-William Elmore, a former Alliance resident, was struck by an automobile and killed in Sheridan last Saturday evening. He had started to cross the street and did not see the car, the fender of which struck him. Death was almost instantaneous.

-Mrs. Brown, an employe of the Burlington cafe in this city, attempted suicide late Saturday night at the promising to establish a home for Rogers' rooming house. The attempt, it is said, followed a quarrel in which Mrs. Brown accused her husband of having an affinity.
