

RAILROAD NOTES

The Bivens, an old employe of the freight house, has resigned his position and gone to Fort Worth, Texas.

Ralph McKenzie returned to work Wednesday night after several days off on account of his lame back.

S. H. Cole returned to his duties the 25th of November after a several weeks' sera with the smallpox.

Roscoe Tiple, night baggageman, went to Crawford Sunday on No. 41, returning on No. 42. He did not miss the train, it seems, but sleep is responsible for his getting a ride to Antioch.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ormsby, the former ticket agent at the Burlington station, who went to Rochester, Minn., several days ago for Mrs. Ormsby's health, have gone from Rochester to some point in Texas for the winter.

Mr. White of Mr. Bracken's office, was in the city Monday on business.

Mrs. G. L. Griggs and daughter, Mildred, left Sunday night on No. 301 for Arizona to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Joe Thorne. They expect to make an extended visit.

Eliener Kronvahl, assistant chief clerk in the superintendent's office, has resigned his position and will go to Omaha, where he has accepted a position with the Consumers' Oil Co. Perley Beach, chief clerk in the trainmasters' office, will take the position left vacant by Mr. Kronvahl.

Glen Wilt, assistant timekeeper in the superintendent's office, will fill the vacancy left by the promotion of Perley Beach.

The B. of R. C. held a business meeting Monday night at I. O. O. F. hall.

Mrs. Reed, formerly with M. Nolan & Co., is now collecting freight bills for Wallace & Robbins' drag service.

Conductor Ray Mark has been laying off, being sick with the grippe.

Brakeman Charley Wickman has been compelled to stay in his home on account of tonsillitis.

Trainmaster Campbell of Edgemont, S. D., spent Thanksgiving at home in Alliance with his family.

Lewis Griggs, son of Superintendent C. L. Griggs, spent Thanksgiving at home with his parents. Lewis Griggs is attending the university at Lincoln.

Emmett Barrett is off for a few days the first of this week on account of sickness.

E. S. Brauer, assistant yardmaster, is laying off to move his household goods to the building next door.

Forrest Lape, foreman of the coach engine, is acting in the place of Mr. Brauer, while the latter moves his home.

Harry Arrison, foreman at the freight house, will lay off a few days soon to take a much needed vacation in Kansas City.

Sunday afternoon two brakemen from the Sterling division met with somewhat painful injuries. Two way cars collided and shook up both men considerable. It was reported one man's teeth were knocked out, but the report could not be confirmed.

Conductor R. C. Hoag has been laying off this week on account of illness.

Brakeman R. U. Lang was called to Litchfield this week on account of the death of his sister-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Larson went to Denver last Saturday on business.

ONE MINUTE STORE TALK

"You give women credit for having brains, the way you merchandise women's wear. There's too much of the idea that women buy without thinking. It's a relief to see your efforts in the right direction," said a clever little woman.

WOMEN'S

COATS AND SUITS

AT—
$39.50

Values up to $54.50 at $39.50

From the standpoint of value this is the biggest Coat and Suit Sale in Alliance—a fact that is easily verified by comparison of values.

Fur Collar Coats

at only $39.50

Many coats—the majority of the coats in this sale—have fur collars, and generous fur collars at that. The materials are unusual in quality, for instance, beautiful Pom Pom, Bolivia, Broadcloth, Polo Cloth, Silvertip, Kersey and fancy mixtures. Colors Navy, Brown, Black, Tan, Taupe, Copen, Foch, Plum, Burgundy and Two-Tone color effects.

High Grade Suits

Every woman can use to advantage one or more of the Suits in this sale. The styles are not extreme, but practical, including many with touches of fur, and the high grade materials alone are a great attraction—Tricotine, Serge, Wool Velour, Silvertone, Broadcloth in all wanted autumn colors, Taupe, Brown, Tan, Copen, Foch, Navy, Black, Plum, Reindeer, Checks and Mixtures.
