HEMINGFORD

The banquet given on Friday night in the basement of the Methodist church by the Red Cross was attended by about thirty-four soldiers with their wives and lady friends. A four-course dinner was served, consisting of oyster cocktail, perfection salad, Turkey with dressing, mashed potatoes, pickles, cheese, cranberries, coffee, red, white and blue ice cream and plenty of coke. So far as we have heard everyone has survived the generous feed. K. L. Pierce was toastmaster and several of the citizens gave toasts interspersed with talks by the soldier boys, all of which was greatly enjoyed. At 8 p. m. the company proceeded to the opera house where a splendid program was given, consisting of band music, community singing, address by Mayor Muirhead and a response by M. R. Swanson; quartets, chorus singing, solos, duets, etc. Mrs. N. A. Rockey had charge of the demobilization of the service flag and all the stars were demobilized but on representing Clive Erskine. Appropriate mention was made of the gold star representing Edward Paul. About $250 was subscribed for the purchase of a bronze slab for the boys. Everybody enjoyed the occasion and no one any more than the boys in uniform. Everyone did their part well.

H. D. Johnson sold his new house located east of Main street to Mrs. O. Stephenson.

Plenty of coal came in this week, but each customer is limited to one ton.

The Methodist and Congregational churches will give their Christmas programs on Wednesday evening of next week.

The new furnace for the Methodist church has arrived and will be installed soon. This will insure a warm church every Sunday.

Last week on Monday about thirty friends met at the Methodist parsonage and enjoyed an evening together in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and the Messrs. B. M. Rohrbaugh and G. Orr, all of whom are leaving this place. All had a fine time singing and playing games. A luncheon was served.

There will be the regular preaching services at the Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening, at 11 and 7:30 o'clock. Epworth League will hold its meeting at 6:30.
