BURR PRINTING CO., Owners

GEORGE L. BURR, JR., Editor
EDWIN M. BURR, Business Mgr.

Subscription $2.00 year, in advance

Entered at the post office at Alliance, Neb., for transmission through the mails as second class matter. Published Tuesday and Friday.

—Walter Jensen was in The Herald office on Wednesday evening and instructed to send his copy of the paper to Antioch. He says that he cannot get along without it and that has a tendency to make us feel pretty tolerable fine.
—W. R. Harper is taking his meals at our boarding house during the absence of Friend Wife. He became a booster for the kind of cats "Ma" puts up about the second course of the first meal.
—Four cartons of Camel cigarettes arrived Thursday at the local recruiting office, two apiece for Sergeant Joseph E. Farrell and Sergeant Henry T. Ryan. They came as a reward of merit, or bonus, for extraordinary success in recruiting, and were sent out from Omaha headquarters. The boys in the Alliance office have smashed almost all the recruiting records there are during the past nine months and the Omaha bunch know how to appreciate hard work.

—Harry T. Czarnowsky of Loveland, Col., is spending three or four days in the city this week. He was in the commission business in this city about six year ago. He is planning to remove from Loveland to Denver in the near future.
—George Snyder will work in this territory in the interests of the Carpenter-Liebhart Fruit company of Denver.

—P. J. Jaquay of the George D. Darling establishment drove to Hemingford Thursday to deliver an Edison phonograph.

—If you are an advertiser, and are paying for more circulation than The Herald can give you, would it not be advisable to make sure that you are getting it? The Herald's circulation, both in the city of Alliance and the county, is such that it will cost you less, per person, to reach those you want to reach by using our advertising columns. One should buy publicity in the same way he buys corned beef—get the most and the best you can for your money.

—For Sale—One five room house, good condition. Modern except heat. Good location. See Nebraska Land Company. 4

The New Oakland Sensible Six Sedan

OAKLAND SENSIBLE SIX

Every essential convenience, from mechanical lifts for the windows in its double-latch doors to an inconspicuous heater for use on cold days, has place in the equipment of the new Oakland Sensible Six Sedan. And being of solid body construction, and built upon the standard Oakland chassis, its range of activity is fully as great as that of the open car.

Many men and women, who could well afford costlier cars, are driving Oakland Sensible Six Sedans. Their selection was prompted primarily by the unmatched value that this handsome, sturdy car represents and the unusual operating economies that the Oakland Sensible Six effects over a long lifetime of efficient performance.

Touring Car, $1075; Roadster, $1075; Coupe, $1825; Four Door Sedan, $1825. F. O. B. Pontiac, Michigan. Additional for Wire Wheel Equipment, $75.
