Delaware, Ind., February 4, 1828, and died in Alliance, Wednesday morning, January 7, at 9 a. m., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Della Mallery. She would have been nineuntil the fourth of February.

She was married to Solomon Round on October 14, 1847, at Delaware, Ind., at the age of nineteen. Shortly after her marriage she drove with her husband across country to Ottumwa, Ia., where they made their home for a number of years, her husband being engaged in farming and stockraising and shipping. In 1856 they moved to Clarinda, Ia., where the deceased has made her home continuously until last July when she came to Alliance to spend her remaining days with her daughter. Her husband died in 1906.

Mrs. Round was the mother of thirteen children, seven of whom are dead. Those living are Pearl W. Round at Arcadia, Neb., George Round of Ord, Neb., Mrs. Mary Morris of Cincinnati, Mrs. Jennie Anderson of Buffalo, Wyo., Mrs. Myrtle Prosser of Chicago, and Mrs. Della Mallery of Alliance.

When a young woman, Mrs. Round was converted and joined the Methodist church in Ottumwa, in which church communion she remained a devoted membed until she was called to the church triumphant. She passed away without a struggle. She was not even sick. Tuesday night she retired and slept well as usual. Wednesday morning she arose, dressed and ate breakfast. At 8 o'clock she said she was tired and wanted to lie down, and in an hour she had passed away.

Short funeral services were held from the home of Mrs. Della Mallery Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. Mearl C. Smith officiating. The body was taken Thursday night to Clarinda, Ia., for burial. Mrs. Mallery accompanied the remains.
