

BOX BUTTE COUNTY IS RESPONDING GENEROUSLY

In this issue will be found an advertisement explaining some of the present and future plans and workings of the Alliance Packing company of Alliance, Neb. Several of their representatives are now interviewing the people of Box Butte county and subscriptions for shares are being liberally taken. Practically every person quickly comprehends the great benefits to be derived from having an institution so near the home shipping market. But it requires extra capital to enlarge the capacity output and Box Butte county is responding generously.

There is no doubt as to the safety of the enterprise, as dozens of stockraisers have shares, and the logical result is they will protect their money by shipping their livestock to their own market, which is what it sanely is when you hold one or more shares of this company. In other words you are virtually buying and selling your own stock. Not a bad proposition, is it?

METHODIST CHURCH

The Sunday school class composed of lady teachers won the banner last week for having the largest number present, together with their teacher, at 10 o'clock. Next week the banner will be given in the same way, excepting that if a teacher cannot be present because of sickness or some other good reason, and provides a substitute in advance, that will count the same as the regular teacher, providing the substitute is there on time.

Because of the regular missionary address given last Sunday, the unveiling of the Christian service flag will take place next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Beginning with the coming Sunday, Harold Thomas will take charge of the class of boys formerly taught by Mr. Barger.

The topic to be considered in the Sunday morning sermon will be "Has the Kingdom Failed to Come?" May say it has. It is on the decline, losing numbers, losing interest. Some say if the church had done its duty there would never have been a war. These thoughts will be considered and the questions answered in the sermon.

Doctor Venner made this statement: "The fight the church will be engaged in during the next twenty-five years will not be against the saloon, but to preserve the Christian sabbath, and to save it from utter collapse." In line with this thought, the Sunday night theme will be "The Christian Sabbath."
MEARL C. SMITH, Pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

This church desires to make itself understood in the community as being an organization concerned with the entire community program. Very often churches are misunderstood in a community, and are unjustly accused of being narrow in their programs. Our entire program is large enough, we believe, and comprehensive enough, to have a concern for every interest in the city of Alliance that is worthy of such a community. It is with this idea in view that we extend a very cordial invitation to the people of the city to have a part with us in this program.

The services next Sunday morning will be inspiring and helpful. The subject for consideration will be, "If Millions Prayed." The service will begin promptly at 11 o'clock and last one hour. The young people's societies meet at 6:30 p. m. The evening service subject will be "The Rising River." You will want to hear these subjects discussed in a broad way. These are subjects with a peculiar interest to every good citizen of the community, and will give you a greater vision of life as a citizen. Bring your friends. "The Friendly Church" on the corner of Seventh street and Laramie avenue. Welcome.

J. ORRIN GOULD, Minister. CHURCH OF CHRIST

Have you found yourself? The church endeavors to help each person to find himself. The willing mind is the working mind. Find your work and stick to it! Next Lord's day will be a great day in the course of the "Win-One" campaign, the sermon subjects are: "The Cost of Discipleship" and "Christianity in Practice." The preaching of the word inclusive of the communion service is the important part of the service. Prayer and praise are also important. We shall not neglect any important phase. The "Word" is emphasized at every service. The teaching service, the Bible school and the training service, the Christian Endeavor are open to all. It costs something to support any worthy cause. We try to give you one hundred cents on the dollar. Come to the church with a message and a welcome.

STEPHEN J. EPLER, Minister.

—Capt. J. B. Miller of Alliance is in Mullen and his scores of friends here are taking advantage of the opportunity to extend cordial greetings. He is one of west Nebraska's most highly esteemed citizens and the people of Mullen and Hooker county are invariably glad to welcome him. Captain Miller is on this occasion combining business with pleasure. He will remain in the county for several weeks as the officially accredited representative of the Alliance Packing Co., explaining the advantages of this new industry, which is undoubtedly destined to be the leading enterprise of this section of the state.—Hooker County Tribune.
