

THE SEVEN-YEAR HIC

(If You Get It Once You Never Want It Again)

Punk Poetry of —7

There is a guy names Kijib Cyxv-rovsang,
When he cusses he says "gosh, gee or
dang;
He runs like a turtle and jumps like
a rock,
And I think that the weight is all in
his sock;
His nose is the prominent thing on his face
And his mouth takes up all the other
space;
His eyes are green and blue and
black,
And the point of his shoe is sharp as a tack;
His brains snt any biggern' an ant,
And when he comes to a hard problem, he says he can't.

—By William.

Punk Poetry of Herbert

Ole Herbert, ole Herbert he went out
to skate,
He took a tumble an' fell on his
pates
An' when I says, "You should hire a hearse,"
He immediately got up an' began to
curse;
He finally got up again and on the ice started to roam,
When all of a sudden we heard a shock an' there he was on hi dome.

—By Paul.

P.—"Why does Chick wear that little lid?"
W.—"Because if it were a little heavier it would break through the thin crust of his brainless head."

Paul—"Why is Verne so anxious to get a job at the show taking tickets?"
William—"So the girls will get in free."

If you feel awful lonely and don't know what to do,
Buy one of our papers and see what relief it brings to you.
It tells of the kids that are punk in school,

Also of ones with shaggy wool.
It tells of every crazy hick,
Who gets pale when it comes to arithmetic.
And then it has poems, jokes and
rhymes,
And gets news out before The Herald or Times.

—By William.

Paul—"Why does every dog follow that guy?"
William—"I dunno, but they all seem to know their near relations."

Paul—"Why are you looking so pale lately, Bill?"
Bill—"Oh, I'm afraid our school is going to blow up."
Paul—"Why?"
Bill—"Oh, because the girls carry
so much powder."

WHAT EVERY VETERAN KNOWS

That propagandists taught us to hate and drillmasters taught us to kill. We will gladly forget hating and killing if the propagandists and drillmasters will let us.

That the fight between capital and labor is based on the selfishness and greed of men. We are frequently forced to take sides in it, according to our position in life at the moment, but we yearn with all the earnestness in our being for a condition of society in which we might freely guide our life by ambition, truth, energy and the love of God, home and country, instead of engaging in a class struggle to take something away from another class for the benefit of our class.

That one way to prevent war is to take all the profit out of it.

"He says I'm a good skate"
—Chesterfield

A REAL pal—that's Chesterfield. Look at its record. Three million smokers—less than five years on the market! Two words explain it—"They Satisfy."

Our expert buyers in the Orient select for Chesterfields only the finest grade of the four choicest varieties of Turkish tobacco.
To these are added the best of mild but full-bodied Domestic leaf.

But, in the end, it's the blend that makes Chesterfields "satisfy." And the blend—our private formula—cannot be copied.

Extra wrapper of moisture-proof paper seals in the flavor.
