CONCERNING PRIZES TO BE AWARDED BY HERALD

The capital prize of The Herald's $3,000 subscription campaign is a brand new, 1920 model Reo six touring car, purchased from the A. H. Jones company, Reo distributors, with headquarters in the Masonic temple. The retail price of the new Reo six is $1,985 f. o. b. Alliance. The Reo is the gold standard of automobile values. The identical machine to be awarded may be seen any day at the show rooms of the A. H. Jones company.

Free Trip to California

The second prize is a free round trip to California, which includes first-class transportation, by direct route, and Standard Pullman accommodations to and from the choice of the following California points: San Diego, Los Angeles or San Francisco.

$50 in Gold
The third prize is one that appeals to everyone—$50 in gold—the good old coin of the realm.

$35 Gold Watch
The fourth prize is a $35 Hallmark gold watch, choice of gentleman's Dressup, thin model, or lady's bracelet watch, flexible chain or ribbon. It is seventeen jewels, twenty-year case, purchased from Holsten's, the dependable jeweler. The next time you are down town look in at Holsten's window and see these watches for yourself.

$25 Gold Watch

The fifth prize is a seven-jewel Elgin watch, purchased from L. Moxon, the popular jeweler on Box Butte avenue. Mr. Moxon stands back of Elgin watches, and the one to be awarded by The Herald was personally selected by Mr. Moxon. See this handsome watch in his show window.

Eastman Kodak

The name Eastman means everything in the kodak world. The sixth prize of the campaign is a 3-A Eastman kodak purchased at Holsten's. You can't go wrong with an Eastman kodak. See it in Holsten's window.

Anseo Camera

On display at Thele's is a post card size Anseo camera, which is the seventh prize of the campaign. The Anseo camera is an A-one camera in every respect. You will appreciate it better after seeing it in the window at Thele's.

Solid Gold Pendant

The eighth prize of the campaign is a solid gold pendant purchased from Holsten's. The set is an aquamarine stone of first quality. As Holsten handles nothing but the best jewelry this pendant can be relied upon to be first class in every respect. See it on display.

20% Cash Commission

All active contestants who do not win one of the eight prizes will be paid 20 per cent ($1 out of every $5 collected) of all subscription money
